MESSAGE FROM THE CHANCELLOR

Dear Graduates and Families:

Welcome to Commencement 2010. I extend warm congratulations to our graduates and a welcome to the ranks of Tar Heel alumni. To all the family members and friends who supported you, I offer thanks on behalf of Carolina's faculty and staff.

Earning a university degree is for optimists only. Especially in uncertain economic times like ours, it takes a belief in the future and confidence in your own ability to make that future better — for you, your family, your community and the world.

I am confident in all of you. I know that you will go out into the world and make a difference, as countless other Tar Heels have done before you.

Carolina and Chapel Hill will be here for you. No matter where you go, you can count on our love and support. Now go out and change the world.

Hark the sound!

ALMA MATER

The words of "Hark the Sound," UNC–Chapel Hill's alma mater, were written in 1897 by William Starr Myers, a graduating senior. The Glee Club director asked Myers to put words to the tune "Amici," and the song was first performed on June 2, 1897, as part of the Glee Club's Commencement performance in Gerrard Hall.

Soon the song was almost forgotten. When a University quartet tried a few years later to remember the words, they could recollect only the first verse and the chorus of Myers' original version. Two members of the quartet, Charles S. Mangum and Charles T. Woollen, added two verses to the one they remembered. Mangum later became a professor in the School of Medicine, and Woollen worked as the University's business manager and comptroller.

HARK THE SOUND

Hark, the sound of Tar Heel voices
Ringing clear and true,
Singing Carolina's praises,
Shouting N.C.U.!

Hail to the brightest star of all!
Clear its radiance shine!
Carolina, priceless gem,
Receive all praises thine.

FOR YOUR INFORMATION

The Doctoral Hooding ceremony on Saturday will be captioned. For the Commencement ceremony in Kenan Stadium on Sunday, there will be a sign language interpreter as well as captioning. A student marshal or Disability Services staff member can advise people with hearing impairments about seating from which to view the interpreter.

This Commencement program is printed prior to administering final examinations. Therefore, including degree candidates' names in this program does not represent certification that candidates have satisfactorily completed degree requirements.

Diplomas for bachelor's, master of science and master of arts degrees will be printed after Commencement and mailed to graduates. Graduates with professional, doctoral or master's degrees that contain an area of study in the degree, such as Master of Accounting, may receive their diplomas in a special departmental or school ceremony. Or, they may pick up a diploma from the Office of the Registrar in the Student and Academic Services Building from 11:30 a.m. until 2 p.m. on Sunday. Diplomas will remain available in the Registrar's Office for two weeks following Commencement, after which time they will be mailed.

HOLDEN THORP
Chancellor

At Carolina, Holden Thorp has been an undergraduate student, a chemistry professor, a planetarium director, an inventor and an entrepreneur, as well as a dean. He graduated with honors, won teaching awards, led a powerhouse academic department, developed technology for electronic DNA chips, founded spinoff companies and succeeded as an administrator.

Now, as the 10th chancellor, Thorp is drawing from all of those experiences in leading Carolina among the ranks of the great research universities in the United States and around the world.

A North Carolina native, Thorp grew up in Fayetteville in a family steeped in Carolina traditions dating to the 1800s. His father, Herb, used to sing the alma mater, "Hark the Sound," at bedtime. When it was time to graduate from Terry Sanford High School, there was only one school on Thorp's college application list—UNC. He earned a bachelor of science degree with honors in 1986.

Attending a world-class research university—where research and teaching are done by the same people—gave Thorp opportunities to work in chemistry labs alongside some of Carolina's very best faculty. Those experiences inspired him to become a college professor. He pursued that dream at the California Institute of Technology, where he earned a doctorate in chemistry in 1989, and at Yale University for postgraduate work. After a year teaching at North Carolina State University, he came back to UNC's chemistry department in 1993.

Because he has lived it from both sides of the classroom, Thorp is passionate about the undergraduate experience. "Carolina is perfectly suited to leverage our students' interests in the great problems facing our world, to enhance their academic success and position them to lead us," he says. "Our greatest contributions are the UNC alumni who go on to be leaders in communities across North Carolina."

Thorp says the University's future depends on aspiring to global academic excellence and serving the needs of North Carolina's students and people. "We're the university of both—and: Both academic prominence and a commitment to our state."

Before becoming chancellor on July 1, 2008, Thorp served for a year as dean of the College of Arts and Sciences. He chaired the chemistry department, led a $17 million fundraising effort for the Carolina Physical Science Complex as faculty director, and spent four years as director of the Morehead Planetarium and Science Center.

Nationally, Thorp serves on the Associations Patent Reform Task Force, an advisory body to six associations representing U.S. higher education in a Congressional effort to reform patent law. He has published 130 scholarly articles on the electronic properties of DNA and RNA. He invented technology for electronic DNA chips that led to 19 issued or pending U.S. patents.

Although Thorp has lived mostly in North Carolina, he conducted a state tour during part of his first year as chancellor to show his personal commitment to the University's mission of serving the state. Stops included visits with high school students, university students, alumni and all UNC system chancellors.

An accomplished musician who plays jazz bass and keyboard, Thorp is married to Patti Worden Thorp, a Hope Mills native and UNC-Greensboro graduate. Their children are John and Emma.

THE DOCTORAL HOODING SPEAKER

Barbara Gitenstein

R. BARBARA GITENSTEIN, the first woman president of The College of New Jersey in its 154-year history, has more than 30 years of experience as a college professor and administrator in both the public and private sectors. She came to the college from Drake University, where she served as executive vice president and provost.

Gitenstein began her career in higher education as an assistant professor of English at Central Missouri State University. She held various faculty posts including professor of English and chair of the English department before being appointed associate provost at the State University of New York at Oswego. Gitenstein also held the post of acting assistant provost for academic programs with the SUNY system while on leave from SUNY–Oswego. In 1992, she was appointed to the position of provost at Drake University.

An active scholar, Gitenstein wrote the book "Apocalyptic Messianism and Contemporary Jewish-American Poetry," and has published numerous articles and reviews on Jewish and American literature. She also is active in higher education organizations and the community. She currently serves as vice chair of the Middle States Commission on Higher Education, is a member of the American Council on Education Commission on Advancement of Racial and Ethnic Equality, and is the presidential sponsor for the New Jersey chapter of the American Council on Education's Network of Women Leaders in Higher Education. She has served as a member of higher education transition teams for former New Jersey governors Jim McGreevey and Jon Corzine; chair and consultant evaluator for Middle States Commission on Higher Education evaluation teams; associate coordinator for the American Council on Education New York State Association of Women in Higher Education; and chair of the Jewish-American Literature of the Northeast Modern Language Association, among others. She also participated in the Higher Education Resources Services' Mid-Atlantic Institute for Women in Higher Education Administration at Bryn Mawr College.

Gitenstein has served as a board member of New Jersey Resources, ING Investment Funds, and ING Mutual Funds, and is a past statewide chair of the New Jersey State Employee Charitable Campaign. She was the recipient of the 2002 Woman of Distinction Award given by the Girl Scouts of the Delaware-Raritan Council, and was honored by the Executive Women of New Jersey at their 2002 Salute to the Policy Makers dinner for her contributions to the advancement of women in management and the profession. In May 2003, the YWCA of Princeton honored Gitenstein at its Tribute to Women, in recognition of her outstanding achievements, contributions to the community, and model character. The KidsBridge Children's Museum, which is dedicated to tolerance education, honored Gitenstein in October 2007 with its first Humanitarian Award. In 2009, she was recognized by the Women's Caucus of New Jersey as a Woman of Achievement.

Born in Florala, Alabama, Gitenstein received a bachelor of arts with honors in English from Duke University and a doctorate in English and American literature from the University of North Carolina at Chapel Hill. She and her husband, Donald Hart, have two children, Pauline and Samuel.

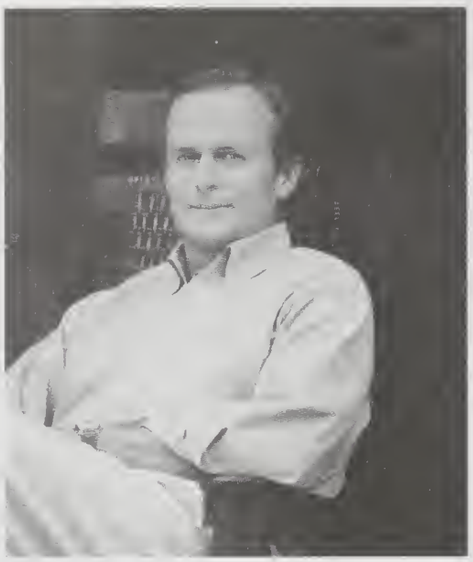
COMMENCEMENT SPEAKER

John Grisham



JOHN GRISHAM, a native of Jonesboro, Arkansas, is the author of 23 books including numerous legal thrillers. After receiving a bachelor of science in accounting at Mississippi State University in 1977, Grisham went on to earn a juris doctor from the University of Mississippi's law school in 1981. He practiced law for nearly a decade in Southaven, Mississippi, specializing in criminal defense and personal injury litigation. In 1983, he was elected to the Mississippi House of Representatives and served until 1990.

Since publishing his first legal thriller, "A Time to Kill," in 1988, Grisham has written one novel a year, and all of them have become international bestsellers. Nine of his books have been turned into movies, along with an original screenplay. "The Innocent Man" (2006) marked his first foray into nonfiction, and "Ford County" (2010) was his first short story collection.

Grisham's ties to Carolina are substantial. He spoke at two North Carolina Literary Festivals held on the UNC campus, in 1998 and in 2009. His daughter, Shea, graduated from Carolina in 2008 with a degree in elementary education and teaches in Raleigh.

When he's not writing, Grisham devotes time to charitable causes, including most recently his Rebuild the Coast Fund, which raised $8.8 million for Gulf Coast relief in the wake of Hurricane Katrina. He also keeps up with his greatest passion — baseball — serving as a commissioner for his local Little League.

HONORARY DEGREE RECIPIENT

Paul Joseph Rizzo

DOCTOR OF LAWS

PAUL RIZZO is chair emeritus of Franklin Street Partners, a private investment management firm and trust company located in Chapel Hill. Coach Carl Snavely recruited Rizzo, a native of Clinton, New York, to Cornell on a football scholarship. When Snavely moved to Carolina in 1945, Rizzo followed.

After a tour of duty in the United States Army, Rizzo lettered in football in four seasons on the legendary Carolina team that included Charlie Justice and Art Weiner, and was inducted into the Order of the Golden Fleece. He is remembered for scoring twice in the fourth quarter of the 1950 Cotton Bowl against Rice University, thereby preventing a shutout.

After graduating with a degree in accounting, Rizzo embarked on a business career that culminated in the position of vice chair of the board and chief financial officer of IBM. One day in 1987, after having reached IBM's mandatory retirement age of 60, Rizzo happened to be on a flight to Japan with Richard Jenrette, then a member of Carolina's Board of Trustees. Jenrette encouraged him to apply for the post of dean of the Kenan-Flagler Business School. Chancellor Christopher Fordham chose Rizzo for the job in a bold move that reached into the business community for an academic dean who had no previous experience in higher education leadership. Rizzo accepted the challenge with a goal of strengthening ties to North Carolina's business community and preparing Carolina's graduates for the increasing globalization of business.

Rizzo's administration initiated an era of phenomenal growth in Kenan-Flagler. He began with an executive education program that more than quadrupled in funding during his tenure. He energized the trustees and Kenan-Flagler's supporters by insisting that Carolina could and should compete with the best business schools in the nation. He pushed for a new building, advocated higher tuition for graduate students that would be retained by Kenan-Flagler to be used for building up its executive program, and de-emphasized the undergraduate program. At the end of his five-year term as dean, Rizzo had raised the Kenan-Flagler Business School to national stature.

His leadership roles at Carolina include membership on the Board of Visitors, the UNC Health Care System Board of Directors, the Educational Foundation Executive Committee and the UNC Board of Governors. Kenan-Flagler's Paul J. Rizzo Conference Center at Meadowmont is named in his honor. Rizzo's philanthropic work includes a leadership role in the Carolina First Campaign. He has been honored with the 1994 William Richardson Davie Award and the General Alumni Association's Distinguished Service Medal.

HONORARY DEGREE RECIPIENT

Eugene Leslie Roberts Jr.

DOCTOR OF LAWS

GENE ROBERTS is known by everyone in the news business as a hard-nosed journalist who in an era of great editors took second place to none. He came by his calling naturally and he pursued it with integrity and professional genius for more than half a century.

He began his lifelong love affair with journalism by helping with the Goldsboro Herald, a weekly paper published by his father. After graduating from Carolina with a B.A. in journalism (1954), Roberts worked for the Goldsboro News-Argus, where he wrote a farm column titled "Rambling in Rural Wayne." His readers enjoyed stories about things like who made the best watermelon rind pickles or a sweet potato that looked like Charles DeGaulle. After writing for the Norfolk Virginian-Pilot, the Raleigh News & Observer, and the Detroit Free Press, Roberts joined the staff of the New York Times. There, he became one of the first people to report in depth on how the civil rights revolution was affecting the lives of ordinary people. Similarly, his coverage of the Battle of Huế in Vietnam told the story of ordinary soldiers in desperate straits.

Roberts became national editor of the Times in 1969, often a stepping-stone to the top job, but in 1972, he took a chance on the struggling Philadelphia Inquirer. Serving as executive editor of the Inquirer for 18 years, Roberts turned what had been a rag wrung dry by its much larger rival, the Philadelphia Bulletin, into a top 10 newspaper. During his tenure, the Inquirer won 17 Pulitzer Prizes, including two gold medals for public service. He won the circulation war with the Bulletin and propelled the Inquirer to the top by expanding news coverage, adding national reporters and opening foreign bureaus.

Upon leaving the Inquirer, Roberts accepted an appointment as professor of journalism at the University of Maryland's College of Journalism, teaching courses on writing complex stories, the press and the civil rights movement, and newsroom management. In 1994, Roberts returned to the New York Times to guide the paper's move to become a national newspaper in fact as well as name. He retired in 1997 to return to his faculty position at the University of Maryland.

In 1990, the staff of the Philadelphia Inquirer and Knight-Ridder endowed the Eugene L. Roberts Prize in Carolina's School of Journalism and Mass Communication. The annual award encourages aspiring journalists to write the kind of in-depth stories that exemplify Roberts' career. In the words of the award criteria, a prize-winning story idea is "one that is dedicated to the untold event that oozes instead of breaks; to the story that reveals, not repeats."

In 2006, Roberts and his co-author Hank Klibanoff won a Pulitzer Prize for "The Race Beat: The Press, the Civil Rights Struggle, and the Awakening of a Nation," hailed as a highly important study of how journalists covered the civil rights movement.

Roberts is married to Susan Jane McLamb, Carolina Class of 1956, whom he met while he was a student here. They have four daughters and two grandchildren, and spend as much time as they can at their summer home in Bath, North Carolina, where groceries are delivered by rowboat.

HONORARY DEGREE RECIPIENT

Fred Colson Robinson

DOCTOR OF HUMANE LETTERS

FRED ROBINSON is the Douglas Tracy Smith Professor of English Emeritus at Yale University. He is the foremost North American scholar of the earliest recorded period of English language and literature.

Robinson earned his Ph.D. in English and comparative linguistics from Carolina in 1961, under the tutelage of Professor Norman Eliason. His colleagues at Carolina agree that he is the most distinguished living alumnus of our graduate program in English. Within two decades of completing his doctorate, Robinson had held faculty appointments at Stanford, Cornell and Yale, and had been elected a fellow of the American Academy of Arts and Sciences as well as a fellow of the Medieval Academy of America. Over the course of his career, Robinson has been a philologist in its original sense — a lover of words. His ability to bring to life old words from the past, in turn, underlies his criticism of literature in English in all periods. His reputation is based not just on his large output of scholarly books and articles, but more so on the quality and originality of the research they contain. Almost everything he has written has contributed new knowledge and perspectives to the field. His scholarship ranges from editions of Old English works, a major literary reappraisal of "Beowulf," philological notes and an introductory grammar for students of Old English.

All these endeavors have been informed by meticulous scholarship, judicious interpretative skills and a broad humanistic approach to Old English language and literature. His contributions to scholarship have been recognized by fellowships from the American Council of Learned Societies, the Guggenheim Foundation, the Haskins Medal of the Medieval Academy of America and the Sir Israel Gollancz Prize of the British Academy. Robinson's excellence as a teacher won for him

Yale University's William Clyde DeVane Medal in undergraduate teaching and is further evidenced by the distinguished company of scholars who pursued graduate studies under his direction. Two of them—Peter Baker, now on the faculty of the University of Virginia, and the late Nicholas Howe, of the University of California at Berkeley — edited a book of essays in Robinson's honor in 1998. Its title, "Words and Work," aptly echoes a passage in "Beowulf" explaining that one must judge others both by their words and by their works. In the preface the editors wrote, "His achievements as a scholar emanate from his love of words as the resonant constituents of language and his love of works as the larger forms into which words cohere."

Robinson's service to the world of scholarship includes serving as president of the Medieval Academy of America, founding member of the advisory board of the International Society of Anglo-Saxonists, chief editor of the journal Anglistica and founding editorial board member of Anglo-Saxon England.

Robinson's wife, Helen Wild Robinson, is also a Carolina alumna, having received her M.A. degree here in 1957. They have a son, a daughter and three grandchildren.

HONORARY DEGREE RECIPIENT

Patricia Timmons–Goodson

DOCTOR OF LAWS

PATRICIA TIMMONS–GOODSON is an Associate Justice of the North Carolina Supreme Court. A native of Florence, South Carolina, she is one of six children born to U.S. Army Airborne Ranger Edward Timmons and his wife, Beulah.

Timmons–Goodson received her B.A. and J.D. degrees from Carolina in 1976 and 1979, respectively. She began her legal career as a prosecutor in the office of the Cumberland County District Attorney. In 1984, at the age of only 29, she was appointed District Court Judge, a position she held for 13 years until she was elevated to the North Carolina Court of Appeals in 1997.

Timmons–Goodson retired from the Court of Appeals in 2005, thinking that she had completed her service to North Carolina, but within only a few months Governor Michael Easley asked her to accept appointment to the North Carolina Supreme Court. She is the first African American woman to serve as a judge in her home county of Cumberland, the first to be elected to any state appellate court and the first to serve on North Carolina's highest court. At Timmons–Goodson's induction ceremony, Chief Justice Sarah Parker pointed out that this was the first time that the court had two women among its seven justices.

As a Carolina undergraduate, Timmons–Goodson was inducted into the Order of the Valkyries and the Order of the Old Well in recognition of her outstanding leadership abilities. She is a member of the Central Selection Committee for the Morehead–Cain Scholarships and has served on the Board of Directors of the General Alumni Association. On University Day 2008, she administered the oath of office to Carolina's 10th Chancellor, Holden Thorp. Timmons–Goodson's many honors and awards include the 2007 William R. Davie Award, the General Alumni Association's Distinguished Young Alumna Award, the Order of the Long Leaf Pine, and honorary degrees from Johnson C. Smith University and St. Augustine's College.

She is married to Dr. Ernest Goodson, Class of 1976 and a 1979 graduate of Carolina's School of Dentistry. They are the parents of two sons, Ernest and Aaron.

A MESSAGE TO CAROLINA'S NEWEST ALUMNI

Congratulations! You are now graduates of the University of North Carolina at Chapel Hill. Let your General Alumni Association help you make a seamless transition from students to alumni — no matter where you find yourselves after graduation. Visit alumni.unc.edu/youngalumni.

GETTING STARTED

Don't miss out on special invitations and services. Call (877) 377-7125 or visit alumni.unc.edu/update to keep your official University record updated. Jump start your network with Carolina alumni — join the GAA's groups on Facebook and LinkedIn.

ALUMNI CAREER SERVICES

Networking is the most effective approach to finding a job. The GAA can connect you with more than 5,000 alumni volunteers in our Alumni Advisor Network who can help you explore career options.

GAA members from the Class of 2010 have full access (phone, e-mail or in person) to the GAA's certified career coach for one year following graduation. If you're thinking about grad school, GAA members also save $100 on Kaplan prep courses.

FINDING OTHER TAR HEELS IN YOUR AREA

- Welcome To events are held in late summer in cities where the majority of our new grads congregate: Charlotte, the Triangle, Atlanta, Washington, D.C. and New York.
- Local Carolina Clubs can be found in nearly 100 cities around the globe. Socialize, network, cheer on the Heels and continue that spirit of Tar Heel service within your community.
- TarNation, the GAA's Online Alumni Directory, can help you develop a network like no other. The directory includes nearly 270,000 former Carolina students.

TRUSTED INFORMATION SOURCE

The Carolina Alumni Review, the Out of the Blue e-newsletter, the GAA's Twitter feed and alumni.unc.edu can keep you updated on the University's achievements and challenges as well as what's going on in Chapel Hill.

Congratulations again. We hope you'll choose to join the nearly 70,000 GAA members who remain connected and help serve Carolina and our students — past, present and future. The GAA offers new grads a one-year membership for only $20 — half off the annual dues rate of $40. Or save $50 on life membership — only $28.25/month for 24 months.

For more information on how the Association serves new graduates, please call Jordan Myers or Diana Koonce at (800) 962-0742 or e-mail membership@unc.edu. Visit us on the Web at alumni.unc.edu.

CLASS OF 1960 CELEBRATES GOLDEN ANNIVERSARY

As part of their 50th class reunion, representatives from Carolina's Class of 1960 will join the academic processional at commencement and will precede the undergraduates. Watch for these most recent inductees into the General Alumni Association's Old Students Club, who will be adorned in Carolina blue gowns and wearing medallions commemorating their golden anniversary reunion.

COMMENCEMENT SYMBOLS AND TRADITIONS

THE CHANCELLOR'S MEDAL

The chancellor's medal, an emblem of the office of chancellor, is worn during the University's ceremonial occasions. The sterling silver disk, which is three inches in diameter and seven ounces Troy weight, was given to the University by John Sanders, professor emeritus and former director of the UNC Institute of Government, and his wife, Ann Beal Sanders. Modeled by sculptor Pete Hinton and bearing the University seal, it was first worn by Chancellor Paul Hardin during the 1994 University Day convocation.

THE BICENTENNIAL STAFF

The faculty marshal carries the bicentennial staff while leading the faculty processional on ceremonial occasions such as commencement and University Day. The staff, commissioned for the University's 1993 bicentennial celebration by John Sanders, professor emeritus and former director of the UNC Institute of Government, and his wife, Ann Beal Sanders, was modeled by sculptor Pete Hinton. It consists of a sterling silver three-inch-high replica of the Old Well mounted on a turned and tapered oak shaft. The shaft was made from timber salvaged from the 1822 section of Old West residence hall during its 1991–1993 renovation.

THE UNIVERSITY SEAL

The University seal typically appears on diplomas and graduation materials, grade transcripts and documents that indicate accomplishment in or on behalf of the University.

The first seal of the University of North Carolina, designed in 1790, showed the face of Apollo and his emblem, the rising sun, used to symbolize the dawn of higher education in the state. The words "SIGUL UNIVERSITAT CAROL SEPTENT" (Seal of the University of North Carolina) surrounded the drawing.

A modification in 1895 added lighted torches of learning beside Apollo's profile. Two years later another alteration replaced Apollo's head with a shield on which the words Lux (light) and Libertas (liberty), separated by a white band running from the upper right to the lower left of the shield, appeared.

In the 1940s, some observers mistakenly claimed the white stripe on the shield was a bend sinister, a heraldic code that was demeaning. In truth, the stripe was a bar sinister and merely denoted a second or later son. Still, the direction of the stripe was reversed, removing any question of stigma.

Today's seal is the same as the 1897 version, except the stripe runs from the upper left to the lower right.

DIPLOMAS

The University's first graduating class in 1798 included Hinton James, the first student to enroll. Seven men received the first documents that by today's standards can be called UNC–Chapel Hill diplomas. Having passed examinations in the sciences and the English language, Adam Alexander Springs earned a Bachelor of the Liberal Arts degree on July 10, 1798. His diploma, signed by the trustees of the University, is in the Southern Historical Collection in Wilson Library.

Modern-day Carolina diplomas are signed by the president of the UNC system, which consists of 17 constituent institutions; the chair of the UNC system's Board of Governors; the chair of the UNC–Chapel Hill Board of Trustees; the chancellor of UNC–Chapel Hill; and the dean of the UNC–Chapel Hill school or college that administers the student's degree.

UNIVERSITY COLORS

As symbols of unity among Carolina students, alumni and fans, the school colors of light blue and white were first used around 1800 to distinguish between members of the Dialectic and Philanthropic Literary Societies. Throughout the 19th century, students were required to be members of either the Di or the Phi. The Di's color was light blue, and the Phi's was white.

At University commencements, balls and other social events, the student officials, managers and marshals wore the color of their society, blue or white. Because the chief marshal or chief ball manager represented the whole student body, not just his society, he wore both colors.

When the University fielded its first intercollegiate athletic teams in 1888, the question of what colors to wear had already been answered. Light blue and white had come to symbolize membership in the University, not in a single society.

ACADEMIC DRESS

The following information, based in part on An Academic Costume Code and Ceremony Guide (published by the American Council on Education), may be helpful in identifying academic attire worn during UNC's commencement exercises.

DEGREE CANDIDATES' REGALIA. The University's Carolina blue bachelor's gown is untrimmed and has no hood. The black master's gown, also untrimmed, has a hood and an oblong sleeve, open at the wrist, that hangs nearly to the ground; the back part of its oblong shape is square cut and the arc in the front is cut away. The hooded doctoral gown features three bars across each sleeve. In 1999, the Faculty Council authorized a special doctoral gown for Carolina graduates. It is Carolina blue, with facings and crossbars of dark blue outlined in white piping. The facings bear the shield of the University supported by the torches of learning.

The hoods of master's and doctoral degree candidates vary in color according to the field of study (see list below).

This commencement weekend, some students will be wearing special cords. Gold cords will be worn by Honors graduates, and blue and white cords will be worn by Public Service Scholars.

FACULTY REGALIA. Faculty wear the regalia of the institution that conferred their highest degree. The doctoral gowns are usually faced with black velvet, although the color of the velvet may vary according to the field of study. Hoods, which differ in length according to the level of the degree held, are lined with official colors of the university or college that conferred the degree, usually with one color forming a chevron pattern over the other. Some colors you will see on faculty and administrators' robes are, for example, the crimson of Harvard, the maroon of Chicago, the orange and black of Princeton, the dark blue of Yale, and the light blue and white of North Carolina.

Like the hoods of master's and doctoral degree candidates, faculty hoods are edged and bound with velvet in the color appropriate to the field of study. The colors in the hoods and gowns of faculty and administrators represent the following fields in which degrees were taken:

APRICOT: Nursing
BROWN: Fine Arts
CITRON: Social Work
CRIMSON: Journalism
DARK BLUE: Philosophy
GOLDEN YELLOW: Science
GREEN: Medicine
LEMON YELLOW: Library Science
LIGHT BLUE: Education
LILAC: Dentistry
OLIVE GREEN: Pharmacy
ORANGE: Engineering
PEACOCK BLUE: Public Administration
PINK: Music
PURPLE: Law
SAGE GREEN: Physical Education
SALMON PINK: Public Health
SCARLET: Theology
YELLOW BROWN: Commerce, Business, Accountancy
WHITE: Arts, Letters, Humanities

CONFERRING OF THE HOOD, TURNING OF THE TASSEL

At a certain point in a commencement ceremony, a gesture or action symbolically indicates that the degree has been conferred. For doctoral degree candidates, that symbolic action is called the "hooding." During Saturday's hooding ceremony, doctoral degree candidates will be conferred with a hood by the provost and either their advisor or dissertation committee chair. For undergraduates, the gesture is the turning of the tassel. At the beginning of the main commencement ceremony on Sunday, undergraduate degree candidates will wear their tassels on the right side of the mortarboard (cap). Then, at the moment when their degrees are awarded, they will move them to the left side. Upon turning the tassel or being hooded, a student transitions from degree candidate to graduate.

MUSIC

Graduates, families and friends attending commencement weekend will have several opportunities to hear the University's beloved "Hark the Sound" and James Taylor's classic "Carolina in My Mind." These songs evoke the feelings of loyalty and friendship that students, alumni and true blue Tar Heels everywhere have for the University. But the orchestral marches that accompany the commencement processionals are equally memorable for their power and splendor. They are truly fitting musical celebrations of the talent and achievements of UNC–Chapel Hill's visiting dignitaries, faculty and graduates.

During Saturday's doctoral hooding ceremony and Sunday's main commencement ceremony, members of the academic processional will be welcomed by the fanfare brass, woodwinds and drums of Nikolai Rimsky-Korsakov's "Procession of the Nobles" and Richard Strauss' "Königsmarsch." Rimsky-Korsakov wrote his majestic march to open the second act of the opera-ballet "Mlada," which premiered in Saint Petersburg, Russia, in 1892. Strauss premiered the flourishing "Königsmarsch" at a palace concert in Berlin in 1907.

The new graduates will exit the ceremonies while hearing familiar Carolina melodies in "Tar Heel Rhapsody," a composition written specifically for the University that features its school songs.

DEGREES AND CERTIFICATES

UNDERGRADUATE CERTIFICATES

Certificate in Community Preparedness and Disaster Management
Certificate in Cytotechnology
Certificate in Dental Hygiene
Certificate in Nuclear Medicine Technology
Certificate in Radiography
Certificate in Sports Communication

CAROLINA ANNUAL FUND AND 2010 SENIOR CAMPAIGN

Congratulations, graduates! There is no doubt that your experience at Carolina has included unparalleled opportunities and that your degree will open many doors for you in the future.

As Carolina students, you have been touched every day by private gifts to Carolina that maintain and enhance the University's tradition of excellence. Annual gifts improve the lives of students, faculty and staff. From scholarships to new research buildings and equipment, to access to incredible performances at Memorial Hall, to more than 6 million volumes in the libraries across campus, private gifts have impacted every aspect of campus life.

You're invited to support UNC–Chapel Hill through the Senior Campaign. You can make a gift to any part of the University that is meaningful to you — your major, a student organization, scholarships and student aid, or campus-wide programs. Or, to make an immediate difference where it is needed the most, consider supporting the Chancellor's Unrestricted fund.

All gifts are included in the Senior Campaign and Annual Fund. Thank you to those who have already made your gift. Give online at annualfund.unc.edu/gift, with your OneCard at annualfund.unc.edu/onecard or by mail to P.O. Box 309, Chapel Hill, N.C. 27514-0309. For more information about the 2010 Senior Campaign, visit annualfund.unc.edu/seniorcampaign.

WELCOME YOUNG ALUMNI!

As you transition from students to alumni, we encourage you to join the Young Alumni Council in your area. Through the council, you can connect with fellow recent Carolina graduates in your area, participate in local events and social activities, and help Carolina stay strong by advocating philanthropy and support for the University among your peers. For information about Young Alumni programs and to join the Young Alumni Council in your area (Atlanta; Charlotte; New York City; Washington, D.C.; and the local Triangle area), visit youngalumni.unc.edu.

THE OLD WELL

At the heart of the campus stands the visual symbol of the University of North Carolina at Chapel Hill. For many years the Old Well served as the sole water supply for Old East and Old West dormitories. In 1897, the well was given its present decorative form at the direction of President Edwin A. Alderman, who described his beautification project as largely derived from the Temple of Love in the Garden of Versailles. In 1954, the well was given added beauty with brick walks, plantings and benches. Students can bring good luck with a drink from the Old Well on the first day of classes.

THE BELL TOWER

The Morehead–Patterson Memorial Bell Tower was given to the University in 1931 by John Motley Morehead III and Rufus Lenoir Patterson. Its 14-bell carillon rings both manually and electronically to call students to class, provide twilight music and serenade the dispersing crowd after football games. Rising 172 feet, the tower is surrounded by a hedge and lawn designed by William C. Coker, botany professor and creator of the campus Arboretum.

DEGREES WITH DISTINCTION

To graduate with distinction or with highest distinction, undergraduate students must have completed at least 45 academic hours at UNC–Chapel Hill and have an overall grade point average of at least 3.5 or 3.8, respectively.

UNDERGRADUATE HONORS PROGRAM

The Honors Program offers exceptionally well-qualified first-year students, sophomores and juniors an opportunity to take part of their general education curriculum in special honors seminars and honors sections. Honors seminars are special topics courses, limited in enrollment to 15 students and taught by outstanding members of the University faculty. Honors sections of regular departmental course offerings are also limited in enrollment and are taught by permanent members of the University faculty. Honors seminars and sections emphasize critical reading, class discussion and expository writing.

Senior departmental honors programs are provided for students who have demonstrated a very high level of scholastic ability and achievement and who desire to pursue an intensive, individualized program of study in their major discipline. Honors studies ordinarily consist of one or more of the following: the preparation of an honors thesis or essay, an independent research or reading program, an artistic performance or exhibition, or the completion of advanced course work in the major not normally required of students in that major. It is on the basis of participation in senior honors that a student may be graduated from the University "with Honors" or "with Highest Honors."

MESSAGE FROM THE CHANCELLOR

Dear graduates and families:

Welcome to December 2010 Commencement. Congratulations and welcome to the ranks of Tar Heel alumni. To all the family members and friends who supported you, I offer thanks on behalf of Carolina's faculty and staff.

You are graduating into a climate of economic uncertainty. However, whether you are heading for a job, further studies or something in between, you can be confident that your Carolina education has prepared you to tackle anything.

I am confident in all of you. We've watched as you met challenges with enthusiasm, encountered adversity with imagination and helped each other with compassion. I know that you will go out into the world and make a difference, as countless other Tar Heels have done before you.

Carolina and Chapel Hill are here for you, and we hope you come back to visit now and then. No matter where you go, you can count on our love and support. Now go out and change the world.

Hark the sound!

ALMA MATER

The words of "Hark the Sound," UNC–Chapel Hill's alma mater, were written in 1897 by William Starr Myers, a graduating senior. The Glee Club director asked Myers to put words to the tune "Amici," and the song was first performed on June 2, 1897, as part of the Glee Club's Commencement performance in Gerrard Hall.

Soon the song was almost forgotten. When a University quartet tried a few years later to remember the words, they could recollect only the first verse and the chorus of Myers' original version. Two members of the quartet, Charles S. Mangum and Charles T. Woollen, added two verses to the one they remembered. Mangum later became a professor in the School of Medicine, and Woollen worked as the University's business manager and comptroller.

HARK THE SOUND

Hark, the sound of Tar Heel voices
Ringing clear and true,
Singing Carolina's praises,
Shouting N.C.U.!

Hail to the brightest star of all!
Clear its radiance shine!
Carolina, priceless gem,
Receive all praises thine.

CAROLINA ANNUAL FUND AND 2011 SENIOR CAMPAIGN

Congratulations, graduates! There is no doubt that your experience at Carolina has included unparalleled opportunities and that your degree will open many doors for you in the future.

As Carolina students, you have been touched every day by private gifts to Carolina that maintain and enhance the University's tradition of excellence. Annual gifts improve the lives of students, faculty and staff. From scholarships to new research buildings and equipment, to access to incredible performances at Memorial Hall, to more than 6 million volumes in the libraries across campus, private gifts have impacted every aspect of campus life.

You're invited to support UNC–Chapel Hill through the Senior Campaign. You can make a gift to any part of the University that is meaningful to you — your major, a professorship, a student organization, scholarships and student aid, or campus-wide programs. Or, to make an immediate difference where it is needed the most, consider supporting the Chancellor's Unrestricted fund.

All gifts are included in the Senior Campaign and Annual Fund. Thank you to those who have already made your gift. Give online at annualfund.unc.edu/gift or by mail to P.O. Box 309, Chapel Hill, N.C. 27514-0309. For more information about the 2011 Senior Campaign, visit annualfund.unc.edu/seniorcampaign.

WELCOME YOUNG ALUMNI!

As you transition from students to alumni, we encourage you to join the Young Alumni Council in your area. Through the council, you can connect with fellow recent Carolina graduates in your area, participate in local events and social activities, and help Carolina stay strong by advocating philanthropy and support for the University among your peers. For information about Young Alumni programs and to join the Young Alumni Council in your area (Atlanta; Charlotte; New York City; Washington, D.C.; and the local Triangle area), visit youngalumni.unc.edu.

HOLDEN THORP
Chancellor

At Carolina, Holden Thorp has been an undergraduate student, a chemistry professor, a planetarium director, an inventor and entrepreneur, as well as a dean. He graduated with honors, won teaching awards, led a powerhouse chemistry department, developed technology for electronic DNA chips, founded spin-off companies and succeeded as an administrator.

Now, as the 10th chancellor, Thorp draws from all of those experiences in leading Carolina, which is among the great research universities in the United States and the world.

A North Carolina native, Thorp grew up in Fayetteville in a family steeped in Carolina traditions dating to the 1800s. When graduation from Terry Sanford High School approached, there was only one school on his college application list — UNC. He earned a bachelor of science degree with honors in 1986.

Attending a world-class research university — where research and teaching are done by the same people — gave Thorp opportunities to work in chemistry labs with some of UNC's best faculty. Those experiences inspired him to become a professor. He pursued that dream at the California Institute of Technology, where he earned a doctorate in chemistry in 1989, and at Yale University for postgraduate work. After teaching a year at North Carolina State University, he returned to UNC in 1993.

Because he has lived it from both sides of the classroom, Thorp is passionate about the undergraduate experience. "Carolina is perfectly suited to leverage our students' interests in the great problems facing our world to enhance their academic success and position them to lead us," he says.

The University's future depends on aspiring to global academic excellence and serving the needs of North Carolina's students and people. "We're the university of both – and: Both academic prominence and a commitment to our state," Thorp says.

Before becoming chancellor in 2008, Thorp served a year as dean of the College of Arts and Sciences. He chaired the chemistry department, led a $17 million fundraising effort for the Carolina Physical Science Complex as faculty director and was director of the Morehead Planetarium and Science Center.

Thorp is an inaugural member of the National Advisory Council on Innovation and Entrepreneurship, created by the U.S. Department of Commerce to support President Obama's innovation strategy. Members include successful entrepreneurs, innovators, investors and nonprofit and university leaders. He also serves on a new U.S. Manufacturing Competitiveness Initiative for the Council on Competitiveness, a group of CEOs, university presidents and labor leaders working to ensure U.S. prosperity in a global economy. He is also a member of the Champions' Board of Teach for America, which aims to end educational inequity across the nation, as well as the Associations' Patent Reform Task Force, an advisory body to six associations representing higher education in a Congressional effort to reform patent law. He has published 130 scholarly articles on the electronic properties of DNA and RNA. He invented technology for electronic DNA chips that led to 19 issued or pending U.S. patents.

Thorp co-authored a new book, "Engines of Innovation — The Entrepreneurial University in the 21st Century," with Buck Goldstein, University Entrepreneur in Residence. The UNC Press book makes the case for the pivotal role of research universities as agents of societal change. All royalties will support innovation and entrepreneurship at the University.

An accomplished musician who plays jazz bass and keyboard, Thorp is married to Patti Worden Thorp, a Hope Mills native and UNC–Greensboro graduate. Their children are John and Emma.

GEOFFREY SAYRE-MCCORD
Commencement Speaker

Geoffrey Sayre-McCord, Ph.D., is Morehead Alumni Distinguished Professor of Philosophy at UNC–Chapel Hill. A member of the philosophy faculty since 1985, Sayre-McCord has chaired the department for 10 years. He is the founding co-director of UNC's philosophy, politics and economics program and a member of the advisory board of the Parr Center for Ethics, which takes on a broad range of ethical issues. He also served on a faculty committee that contributed to Innovate@Carolina: Important Ideas for a Better World, a roadmap outlining how the University can produce basic knowledge with the highest impact.

Sayre-McCord specializes in moral theory and metaethics (which explores the nature and status of moral thought). His articles in scholarly journals have examined criminal justice and legal reparations, the relevance of ignorance to the demands of morality, the justification of moral beliefs and the reasons people have to be moral. He edited the books "Essays on Moral Realism" (Cornell University Press, 1988) and "Hume: Moral Philosophy" (Hackett, 2006).

Sayre-McCord twice won UNC's Tanner Award for Teaching Excellence, in 1987 and 2005. He has held several distinguished term professorships — including the prestigious Bowman and Gordon Gray — and received numerous fellowships. He regularly gives invited lectures at universities and conferences around the world.

His current research focuses on the nature of normative concepts, evolution and morality and Adam Smith's theory of moral sentiments; he lectured on the latter last year at Oxford University and the Australian National University.

THE OLD WELL

At the heart of the campus stands the visual symbol of the University of North Carolina at Chapel Hill. For many years the Old Well served as the sole water supply for Old East and Old West dormitories. In 1897, the well was given its present decorative form at the direction of President Edwin A. Alderman, who described his beautification project as largely derived from the Temple of Love in the Garden of Versailles. In 1954, the well was given added beauty with brick walks, plantings and benches. Legend holds that students can bring good luck with a drink from the Old Well on the first day of classes.

A MESSAGE TO CAROLINA'S NEWEST ALUMNI

Congratulations! You are now graduates of the University of North Carolina at Chapel Hill. Let your General Alumni Association help you make a seamless transition from students to alumni — no matter where you find yourselves after graduation. Visit alumni.unc.edu/youngalumni.

TRUSTED INFORMATION SOURCE

The "Carolina Alumni Review," the "Out of the Blue" e-newsletter, the GAA's Twitter feed and alumni.unc.edu can keep you updated on the University's achievements and challenges as well as what's going on in Chapel Hill.

GETTING STARTED

Don't miss out on special invitations and services. Call (877) 377-7125 or visit alumni.unc.edu/update to keep your official University record updated. Jump start your network with Carolina alumni — join the GAA's groups on Facebook and LinkedIn.

ALUMNI CAREER SERVICES

Networking is the most effective approach to finding a job. The GAA can connect you with more than 7,000 alumni volunteers in our Alumni Advisor Network who can help you explore career options.

GAA members from the Class of 2010 have full access (phone, e-mail or in person) to the GAA's certified career coach for one year following graduation. If you're thinking about grad school, GAA members also save $100 on Kaplan prep courses.

FINDING OTHER TAR HEELS IN YOUR AREA

- Local Carolina Clubs can be found in nearly 100 cities around the globe. Socialize, network, cheer on the Heels and continue that spirit of Tar Heel service within your community.
- TarNation, the GAA's Online Alumni Directory, can help you develop a network like no other. The directory includes nearly 270,000 former Carolina students.

Congratulations again. We hope you'll choose to join the nearly 70,000 GAA members who remain connected and help serve Carolina and our students — past, present and future. The GAA offers new grads a one-year membership for only $20 — half off the annual dues rate of $40. Or save $50 on life membership — only $28.25/month for 24 months.

For more information on how the Association serves new graduates, please call Christie Hogan '10 or Diana Koonce '02 at (800) 962-0742 or e-mail membership@unc.edu. Visit us on the Web at alumni.unc.edu.

COMMENCEMENT MUSIC

The University's beloved alma mater, "Hark the Sound," evokes the feelings of loyalty and friendship that students, alumni and true blue Tar Heels everywhere have for Carolina. The orchestral marches that accompany the commencement processional are equally memorable for their power and splendor. They are truly fitting musical celebrations of the talent and achievements of UNC-Chapel Hill's visiting dignitaries, faculty and graduates.

During today's commencement ceremony, members of the academic processional will be welcomed by the fanfare brass, woodwinds and drums of Nikolai Rimsky-Korsakov's "Procession of the Nobles" and Richard Strauss' "Konigsmarsch." Rimsky-Korsakov wrote his majestic march to open the second act of the opera-ballet "Mlada," which premiered in Saint Petersburg, Russia, in 1892. Strauss premiered the flourishing "Konigsmarsch" at a palace concert in Berlin in 1907.

The new graduates will exit the ceremony while hearing familiar Carolina melodies in "Tar Heel Rhapsody," a composition written specifically for the University that features its school songs.

DEGREES WITH DISTINCTION

To graduate with distinction or with highest distinction, undergraduate students must have completed at least 45 academic hours at UNC-Chapel Hill and have an overall grade point average of at least 3.5 or 3.8, respectively.

UNDERGRADUATE HONORS PROGRAM

The Honors Program offers exceptionally well-qualified first-year students, sophomores and juniors an opportunity to take part of their general education curriculum in special honors seminars and honors sections. Honors seminars are special topics courses, limited in enrollment to 15 students and taught by outstanding members of the University faculty. Honors sections of regular departmental course offerings are also limited in enrollment and are taught by permanent members of the University faculty. Honors seminars and sections emphasize critical reading, class discussion and expository writing.

Senior departmental honors programs are provided for students who have demonstrated a very high level of scholastic ability and achievement and who desire to pursue an intensive, individualized program of study in their major discipline. Honors studies ordinarily consist of one or more of the following: the preparation of an honors thesis or essay, an independent research or reading program, an artistic performance or exhibition, or the completion of advanced course work in the major not normally required of students in that major. It is on the basis of participation in senior honors that a student may be graduated from the University "with Honors" or "with Highest Honors."

ACADEMIC DRESS

The following information, based in part on An Academic Costume Code and Ceremony Guide (published by the American Council on Education), may be helpful in identifying academic attire worn during UNC's commencement exercise.

DEGREE CANDIDATES' REGALIA. The University's Carolina blue bachelor's gown is untrimmed and has no hood. The black master's gown, also untrimmed, has a hood and an oblong sleeve, open at the wrist, that hangs nearly to the ground; the back part of its oblong shape is square cut and the arc in the front is cut away.

The hooded doctoral gown features three bars across each sleeve. In 1999, the Faculty Council authorized a special doctoral gown for Carolina graduates. It is Carolina blue, with facings and crossbars of dark blue outlined in white piping. The facings bear the shield of the University supported by the torches of learning. The hoods of master's and doctoral degree candidates vary in color according to the field of study (see list below).

FACULTY REGALIA. Faculty wear the regalia of the institution that conferred their highest degree. The doctoral gowns are usually faced with black velvet, although the color of the velvet may vary according to the field of study. Hoods, which differ in length according to the level of the degree held, are lined with official colors of the university or college that conferred the degree, usually with one color forming a chevron pattern over the other. Some colors you will see on faculty and administrators' robes are, for example, the crimson of Harvard, the maroon of Chicago, the orange and black of Princeton, the dark blue of Yale, and the light blue and white of North Carolina. Like the hoods of master's and doctoral degree candidates, faculty hoods are edged and bound with velvet in the color appropriate to the field of study. The colors in the hoods and gowns of faculty and administrators represent the following fields in which degrees were taken:

APRICOT: Nursing
BROWN: Fine Arts
CITRON: Social Work
CRIMSON: Journalism
DARK BLUE: Philosophy
GOLDEN YELLOW: Science
GREEN: Medicine
LEMON YELLOW: Library Science
LIGHT BLUE: Education
LILAC: Dentistry
OLIVE GREEN: Pharmacy
ORANGE: Engineering
PEACOCK BLUE: Public Administration
PINK: Music
PURPLE: Law
SAGE GREEN: Physical Education
SALMON PINK: Public Health
SCARLET: Theology
YELLOW BROWN: Commerce, Business, Accountancy

THE BELL TOWER

The Morehead–Patterson Memorial Bell Tower was given to the University in 1931 by John Motley Morehead III and Rufus Lenoir Patterson. Its 14-bell carillon rings both manually and electronically to call students to class, provide twilight music and serenade the dispersing crowd after football games. Rising 172 feet, the tower is surrounded by a hedge and lawn designed by William C. Coker, botany professor and creator of the campus Arboretum.

THE UNIVERSITY SEAL

The University seal typically appears on diplomas and graduation materials, grade transcripts and documents that indicate accomplishment in or on behalf of the University. The first seal of the University of North Carolina, designed in 1790, showed the face of Apollo and his emblem, the rising sun, used to symbolize the dawn of higher education in the state. The words "sigul universitat carol septent" (Seal of the University of North Carolina) surrounded the drawing. A modification in 1895 added lighted torches of learning beside Apollo's profile. Two years later another alteration replaced Apollo's head with a shield on which the words Lux (light) and Libertas (liberty), separated by a white band running from the upper right to the lower left of the shield, appeared. In the 1940s, some observers mistakenly claimed the white stripe on the shield was a bend sinister, a heraldic code that was demeaning. In truth, the stripe was a bar sinister and merely denoted a second or later son. Still, the direction of the stripe was reversed, removing any question of stigma. Today's seal is the same as the 1897 version, except the stripe runs from the upper left to the lower right.

GRADUATE DEGREES

August 2010

Graduates' names are followed by their area of major study, dissertation or project title and the name of their doctoral advisor.

The Graduate School

ESTABLISHED 1903

Dean Steven W. Matson

DOCTOR OF PHILOSOPHY

Margaret Adgent, Epidemiology, Early Life Soy Exposure and Child Development: An Assessment of Language Acquisition, Play Behavior and Time-to-Menarche. Professor Julie Daniels.

Sunil Kumar Agarwal, Epidemiology, Association of Obstructive Airway Disease and Lung Function with Incident Heart Failure, and Optimal Prediction of Heart Failure in Community Settings: The Atherosclerosis Risk. Professor Gerardo Heiss.

Martha Elizabeth Ledbetter Alexander, Romance Languages, Jose Lopez Pinillos and the Early Spanish Social Theater: The Theme of Caciquismo in "El pantano," "Esclavitud" and "La tierra." Professor José Manuel Polo de Bernabé.

Dennis Lee Arnold, Geography, Administration, Border Zones and Spatial Practices in the Mekong Subregion. Professor John Pickles.

Danielle Marie Backes, Epidemiology, Natural History of Human Papillomavirus Infection among Young Men from Kisumu, Kenya. Professor Jennifer S. Smith.

Devin G. Barrett, Chemistry, Design, Synthesis and Applications of Novel Polyesters Based on Natural Metabolites. Professor Muhammad N. Yousaf.

Christopher A. Beasley, Chemistry, Investigations of Redox-Labeled Silica and Gold Nanoparticles in Solution and as Films on Electrodes. Professor Royce W. Murray.

Piotr Szymon Bobkowski, Journalism and Mass Communication, "Who I'd Like to Meet: Lil Wayne and God" — Self-Disclosure in Emerging Adults' MySpace Profiles. Professor Jane D. Brown.

Jason Bowers, Philosophy, Ontology, Priority and Teleology: A Defense of Classical Platonism. Professor Thomas Hofweber.

Christopher Brooke, Microbiology and Immunology, Evaluation of the Protective Effects of Complement Activation and T Cells during Venezuelan Equine Encephalitis Virus Infection. Professor Robert E. Johnston.

Brandon Douglas Burch, Genetics and Molecular Biology, The Use of Reporters to Identify Factors Involved in 3' End Processing of Nonpolyadenylated RNA Polymerase II Transcripts. Professor William F. Marzluff.

Tianji Cai, Sociology, To Weight or Adjust: An Empirical Study of the Design-Based and Model-Based Approaches. Professor Guang Guo.

Ye Cai, Business Administration, Board Connections and M&A Transactions. Professor Paolo Fulghieri.

Jessica Duncan Cance, Health Behavior and Health Education, The Meaning of Pubertal Timing and the Implications for Substance Use across Adolescence. Professor Susan T. Ennett.

Hongyuan Cao, Statistics, High Dimensional Statistical Testing with Applications to Gene Significance Detection. Professor Michael R. Kosorok.

Enver Michel Casimir, History, Champion of the Patria: Professor Louis A. Perez Jr.

Rania Chelala, Comparative Literature, Border-Crossing Laughter: Humor in the Short Fiction of Mark Twain, Mikhail Naimy, Edgar Allan Poe and Emile Habiby. Professor Linda Wagner-Martin.

Youjun Chen, Cell and Molecular Physiology, Adenomatous Polyposis Coli (APC) Regulates Axon Arborization and Cytoskeleton Organization via its Amion-Terminus. Professor William D. Snider.

Thomas Kevin Cherry, Information and Library Science, Online Cultural Heritage Materials and the Teaching of History in the Schools: A Concept Analysis of State Archives and Collaborative Digitization Program Web Resources. Professor Helen Tibbo.

Emmeline Chuang, Health Policy Management, Facilitating Service Access for Children and Families in Child Welfare: An Ecological Perspective. Professor Rebecca Wells.

Catherine Olevia Clark, Comparative Literature, Reading Sapphic Modernism: Belle Époque Poésie and Poetic Prose. Professor Erin Carlston.

Ian D. Clayton, Linguistics, On the Natural History of Preaspirated Stops. Professor Elliott Moreton.

Leon Garland Coleman Jr., Neurobiology, The Long-Term Effects of Adolescent and Postnatal Ethanol Exposure on the Adult Mouse Brain: A Multidisciplinary Approach. Professor Fulton T. Crews.

Mark Robert Cronan, Biochemistry and Biophysics, MAP3K Regulation of MAPK Activation in Vitro and Tumor Growth and Metastasis in Vivo. Professor Gary L. Johnson.

Catherine Cruz, Microbiology and Immunology, An Alphavirus NSP1 Determinant Modulates Type I Interferon Induction. Professor Mark T. Heise.

Jesse William Davis, Geological Sciences, Thermochronology and Cooling Histories of Plutons: Implications for Incremental Pluton Assembly. Professor Drew S. Coleman.

Daniel N. DeHanas, Sociology, Believing Citizens: Religion and Civic Engagement among London's Second Generation Youth. Professor Christian Smith.

Bruce Albert Desmarais, Political Science, Modeling Interdependence in Collective Political Decision Making. Professor Thomas A. Carsey.

Sarah Elizabeth Diamond, Biology, Causes and Consequences of Novel Host Plant Use in a Phytophagous Insect: Evolution, Physiology and Species Interactions. Professor Joel G. Kingsolver.

Kai Ding, Biostatistics, The Single-Index Hazards Model. Professor Michael Kosorok.

Marko Dumancic, History, Rescripting Stalinist Masculinity: Contesting the Male Ideal in Soviet Film and Society, 1953–1968. Professor Donald J. Raleigh.

Michele Martha Easter, Sociology, "Some Sort of Larger Force at Work": Meanings and Implications of Genetics for Women with Eating Disorders. Professor Andrew J. Perrin.

Melinda Eaton, Epidemiology, Non-Battle Injury and Non-Battle Psychiatric Illness in Deployed Air Force Members. Professor Stephen W. Marshall.

Timothy Kosarick Eitas, Genetics and Molecular Biology, NB-LRR Regulation and Function in Arabidopsis. Professor Jeff Dangl.

Atim Atte Enyenihi, Chemistry, Tandem Mass Spectrometry of Biomolecules: Applications and New Methods. Professor Gary L. Glish.

Gokce Esenduran, Business Administration, Role of Environmental Legislations and Firm-Level Strategies on Product Take Back. Professor Jayashankar M. Swaminathan.

Christopher George Faricy, Political Science, The Politics of Public Versus Private Social Welfare. Professor Virginia Gray.

Olesya Fomenko, Economics, The Effect of Schooling, Wages, Marriage and Socioeconomic Circumstances on Fertility Behavior in Russia. Professor David Guilkey.

Randi Foraker, Epidemiology, Socioeconomic Status and the Progression of Heart Failure. Professor Wayne D. Rosamond.

Kenneth Fortino, Environmental Sciences and Engineering, Organic Matter Processing in Arctic Lake Sediments. Professor Steve Whalen.

Peter Jack Gallo, Business Administration, See the Good, Speak the Good, Do the Good: Three Essays on Organizational Change for Sustainability. Professor Albert Segars.

Nicholas Gaskill, English, Vibrant Environments: The Feel of Color from the White Whale to the Red Wheelbarrow. Professor Jane F. Thrailkill.

Claudia N. Generaux, Pharmaceutical Sciences, Effects of Parasitic Infection on the Pharmacokinetics and Disposition of Pentamidine Analogs. Professor Dhiren Thakker.

Kristin Lowe Geonnotti, Health Policy Management, Prescription Drug Plan Enrollment and Patient Outcomes in Medicare Part D Beneficiaries with Diabetes. Professor Morris Weinberger.

Elizabeth Godin, Toxicology, Magnetic Resonance Imaging, In Situ Hybridization, and Immunohistochemistry-Based Analyses of Early Prenatal Ethanol Exposure-Induced Central Nervous System Abnormalities. Professor Kathleen Sulik.

Ann Elizabeth Goewert, Geological Sciences, Paleoclimate Archives and Evolutionary Patterns Preserved in Neogene Scallop Shells: Implications for Linking Climate Change, Paleobiogeography and Morphologic Evolution of Chesapecten along the Atlantic Coastal Plain, USA. Professor Donna Surge.

Yvonne Golightly, Epidemiology, Osteoarthritis and Injury in the Knee and Hip. Professor Stephen W. Marshall.

Jennie K. Grammer, Psychology, An Experimental Investigation of Contrasting Instructional Conditions on Children's Developing Memory Skills. Professor Peter A. Ornstein.

Hilary Nicole Green, History, Educational Reconstruction: African American Education in the Urban South, 1865–1890. Professor Heather A. Williams.

Stephen Nathaniel Greszler, Chemistry, I. Catalytic Redox-Initiated Glycolate Aldol Additions of Silyl Glyoxylates II. Diastereoselective De Novo Synthesis of Pentasubstituted Gamma-Butyrolactones from Silyl Glyoxylates and Ketones via Double Reformatsky Reactions III. Progress toward the Total Synthesis of Leustroducsin B. Professor Jeffrey S. Johnson.

Elizabeth Gritter, History, Black Politics in the Age of Jim Crow: Memphis, Tennessee, 1865 to 1954. Professor Jacquelyn Dowd Hall.

Alison Gustafson, Nutrition, Food Environment as a Determinant of Weight and Diet Change in Low-Income North Carolina Women. Professor Alice S. Ammerman.

Yeongmi Ha, Nursing, The Relationships between Children's and Parental Risk Factors, Dietary Patterns and Weight Status in Children with Intellectual Disabilities in South Korea. Professor Julie Jacobson Vann.

Amy Diane Hargis, Chemistry, Development of an Automated Microfluidic Device for High-Throughput Single Cell Kinase Analysis. Professor J. Michael Ramsey.

Darlene Michelle Head-Reeves, Education, Paternal Involvement among African American Fathers in Two-Parent Families: Influences in Early Child Development. Professor Lynne Vernon-Feagans.

Christine Marie Hebling, Chemistry, Investigation of Membrane Protein Dynamics of Gamma-Glutamyl Carboxylase Using Liquid Chromatography and Mass Spectrometry. Professor James Jorgenson.

Joshua Herr, Chemistry, Design and Characterization of a Microfluidic Flow Cytometer. Professor J. Michael Ramsey.

Max Tze-Han Huang, Oral Biology, Critical Roles of Inflammasome Components NLRs, PYCARD and Caspase-1 in Host-Pathogen Interactions. Professor Jenny P. Y. Ting.

Lindsey Ann Ingerman, Chemistry, Dynamic Combinatorial Chemistry as a Tool in the Identification of Novel Receptors for Biomolecules. Professor Marcey L. Waters.

Rex Jeffries, Biomedical Engineering, An NMR-Compatible Bioartificial Liver for Metabolomic Investigation of Drug Action. Professor Jeffrey M. Macdonald.

Soren Morgan Johnson, Genetics and Molecular Biology, Genetic and Pharmacologic Regulation of Cyclin Dependent Kinase 4 and 6 Activity in Mammalian Hematopoiesis. Professor Norman E. Sharpless.

Jessica C. Jones-Smith, Nutrition, Socioeconomic Status and Overweight: Using a "Fundamental Cause" Perspective to Examine Relationships across Time and Place. Professor Barry M. Popkin.

Juei-Chuan Connie Kang-Sickel, Environmental Sciences and Engineering, Keratin Adducts as Biomarkers for Dermal Exposure to Jet Fuel JP-8 in the U.S. Air Force Fuel Cell Maintenance Personnel. Professor Leena Nylander-French.

Atupele Kapito-Tembo, Epidemiology, Malaria and Anemia in HIV-Infected Pregnant Women in Malawi: Associations with Cotrimoxazole Prophylaxis, Submicroscopic Malaria, Iron Supplementation and Iron Deficiency. Professor Steven R. Meshnick.

Mehmet Karaca, Pathology, Regulation of Androgen Receptor Function by Tyrosine Phosphorylation. Professor Young E. Whang.

Eva Gabrielle Katz, Nutrition, The Association of Body Weight and Circumferences with Metabolic Risk Factors in Chinese Men and Women. Professor June Stevens.

Nevzat Kazgan, Genetics and Molecular Biology, Identification of a Nuclear Export Signal in the Catalytic Subunit of AMP-Activated Protein Kinase. Professor Jay E. Brenman.

Weimao Ke, Information Science, Scalability of Findability: Decentralized Search and Retrieval in Large Information Networks. Professor Javed Mostafa.

Zubeyir Kilinc, Economics, Wage Bargaining, Labor Market Institutions and Business Cycles. Professor Richard Froyen.

Se Hee Kim, Biostatistics, Semiparametric Models for Joint Analysis of Longitudinal Data and Counting Processes. Professor Donglin Zeng.

So-Yeon Kim, Psychology, The Source of the Associative Deficit in Aging: The Role of Attentional Resources for Processing Relational information. Professor Kelly S. Giovanello.

Adam Jordan Kimple, Pharmacology, R4 and R12 Subfamily RGS Proteins — Structures, Functions and Emerging Chemical Biology. Professor David P. Siderovski.

Elizabeth Jane King, Health Behavior and Health Education, HIV Service Utilization among Female Sex Workers in St. Petersburg, Russia: Individual and Contextual Influences on Access to Testing and Treatment Services. Professor Suzanne Maman.

Mary Alice Kirkpatrick, English, The Present Elsewhere: Theorizing an Aesthetics of Displacement in Contemporary African American and Postcolonial Literatures. Professor Minrose Gwin.

Doo-Hyun Ko, Chemistry, Fabrication and Characterization of Electro-Photonic Performance of Nanopatterned Organic Photovoltaics. Professor Edward T. Samulski.

Hyun Ok Lee, Genetics and Molecular Biology, Cell Type-Dependent Requirement for PIP Box-Regulated Cdt1 Destruction During S Phase. Professor Robert Duronio.

Jaekwang Lee, Biomedical Engineering, Dynamics of Synaptic Transmission in the CNS: Contribution of Neuron-Glia Interactions. Professor Mark Tommerdahl.

Seunggeun Lee, Biostatistics, Principal Component Analysis in High Dimensional Data: Application for Genomewide Association Studies. Professor Fei Zou.

Taehun Lee, Psychology, AN EM Algorithm for Maximum Likelihood Estimation of Process Factor Analysis Models. Professor Robert C. MacCallum.

Michelle Erin Leslie, Genetics and Molecular Biology, Membrane Trafficking and Receptor-Kinase Signaling Events Modulate Cell Adhesion in Arabidopsis. Professor Sarah J. Liljegren.

May May Leung, Nutrition, Fight for Your Right to Fruit©: Development and Testing of a Manga Comic Promoting Fruit Intake in Middle-School Youth. Professor Alice S. Ammerman.

Barbara Lowe-Greenlee, Education, Prader-Willi Syndrome: Parent Perceptions of School, Professional, Social and Informational Support, and Relations between Support, Child Behavior and Stress. Professor Rune Simeonsson.

Wei Luo, Chemistry, Developing Surface Chemistry Strategies to Study Cell Adhesion, Migration and Stem Cell Differentiation. Professor Muhammad N. Yousaf.

Matthew Jonathan Luter, English, Writing the Devouring Neon: Celebrity and Audience in American Literature 1973–2003. Professor Linda Wagner-Martin.

Kevin Scott Markle, Business Administration, Shift Happens: A Comparison of the Tax-Motivated Income Shifting of Multinationals in Territorial and Worldwide Countries. Professor Douglas A. Shackelford.

UNIVERSITY COLORS

As symbols of unity among Carolina students, alumni and fans, the school colors of light blue and white were first used around 1800 to distinguish between members of the Dialectic and Philanthropic Literary Societies. Throughout the 19th century, students were required to be members of either the Di or the Phi. The Di's color was light blue, and the Phi's was white. At University commencements, balls and other social events, the student officials, managers and marshals wore the color of their society, blue or white. Because the chief marshal or chief ball manager represented the whole student body, not just his society, he wore both colors. When the University fielded its first intercollegiate athletic teams in 1888, the question of what colors to wear had already been answered. Light blue and white had come to symbolize membership in the University, not in a single society.

MESSAGE FROM THE CHANCELLOR

Dear Graduates and Families:

Welcome to Commencement 2011. I extend warm congratulations to our graduates and a welcome to the ranks of Tar Heel alumni. To all the family members and friends who supported you, I offer thanks on behalf of Carolina's faculty and staff.

The world has changed a lot since you entered UNC, and you can expect that trend to continue. While many people still think of college years as a time of preparation, in reality you are already part of the world you live in. You have studied in places around the world and reached out to the surrounding community. You have learned that this is an interconnected world drawn closer together through new technologies.

I am confident in the education you have undertaken at Carolina. I know that you will go out into the world and make a difference, as countless other Tar Heels have done before you.

Carolina and Chapel Hill will be here for you. No matter where you go, you can count on our love and support. We can't wait to hear from you.

Holden Thorp

ALMA MATER

The words of "Hark the Sound," UNC–Chapel Hill's alma mater, were written in 1897 by William Starr Myers, a graduating senior. The Glee Club director asked Myers to put words to the tune "Amici," and the song was first performed on June 2, 1897, as part of the Glee Club's Commencement performance in Gerrard Hall.

Soon the song was almost forgotten. When a University quartet tried a few years later to remember the words, they could recollect only the first verse and the chorus of Myers' original version. Two members of the quartet, Charles S. Mangum and Charles T. Woollen, added two verses to the one they remembered. Mangum later became a professor in the School of Medicine, and Woollen worked as the University's business manager and comptroller.

HARK THE SOUND

Hark, the sound of Tar Heel voices
Ringing clear and true,
Singing Carolina's praises,
Shouting N.C.U.!

Hail to the brightest star of all!
Clear its radiance shine!
Carolina, priceless gem,

FOR YOUR INFORMATION

The Doctoral Hooding ceremony on Saturday will be captioned. For the Commencement ceremony in Kenan Stadium on Sunday, there will be a sign language interpreter. A student marshal or Disability Services staff member can advise people with hearing impairments about seating from which to view the interpreter.

This Commencement program is printed prior to administering final examinations. Therefore, including degree candidates' names in this program does not represent certification that candidates have satisfactorily completed degree requirements.

Diplomas for bachelor's, master of science and master of arts degrees will be printed after Commencement and mailed to graduates. Graduates with professional, doctoral or master's degrees that contain an area of study in the degree, such as Master of Accounting, may receive their diplomas in a special departmental or school ceremony. Or, they may pick up a diploma from the Office of the Registrar in the Student and Academic Services Building from 11:30 a.m. until 2 p.m. on Sunday. Diplomas will remain available in the Registrar's Office for two weeks following Commencement, after which time they will be mailed.

HOLDEN THORP
Chancellor

At Carolina, Holden Thorp has been an undergraduate student, a chemistry professor, a planetarium director, an inventor and entrepreneur, as well as a dean. He graduated with honors, won teaching awards, led a powerhouse chemistry department, developed technology for electronic DNA chips, founded spin-off companies and succeeded as an administrator.

Now, as the 10th chancellor, Thorp draws from all of those experiences in leading Carolina, which is among the great research universities in the United States and the world.

A North Carolina native, Thorp grew up in Fayetteville in a family steeped in Carolina traditions dating to the 1800s. When graduation from Terry Sanford High School approached, there was only one school on his college application list — UNC. He earned a bachelor of science degree with honors in 1986.

Attending a world-class research university — where research and teaching are done by the same people — gave Thorp opportunities to work in chemistry labs with some of UNC's best faculty. Those experiences inspired him to become a professor. He pursued that dream at the California Institute of Technology, where he earned a doctorate in chemistry in 1989, and at Yale University for postgraduate work. After teaching a year at NC State, he returned to UNC in 1993.

Because he has lived it from both sides of the classroom, Thorp is passionate about the undergraduate experience. "Carolina is perfectly suited to leverage our students' interests in the great problems facing our world to enhance their academic success and position them to lead us," he says.

The University's future depends on aspiring to global academic excellence and serving the needs of North Carolina's students and people. "We're the university of both – and: Both academic prominence and a commitment to our state," Thorp says.

Before becoming chancellor in 2008, Thorp served a year as dean of the College of Arts and Sciences. He chaired the chemistry department, led a $17 million fundraising effort for the Carolina Physical Science Complex as faculty director, and was director of the Morehead Planetarium and Science Center.

Thorp is an inaugural member of the National Advisory Council on Innovation and Entrepreneurship, created by the U.S. Department of Commerce to support President Obama's innovation strategy. Members include successful entrepreneurs, innovators, investors, and nonprofit and university leaders. He also serves on a new U.S. Manufacturing Competitiveness Initiative for the Council on Competitiveness, a group of CEOs, university presidents and labor leaders working to ensure U.S. prosperity in a global economy.

He is also a member of the Champions' Board of Teach for America, which aims to end educational inequity across the nation, as well as the Associations' Patent Reform Task Force, an advisory body to six associations representing higher education in a Congressional effort to reform patent law. The chancellor also serves on the National Security Higher Education Advisory Board, which works to bridge historical gaps between the U.S. intelligence community and academe regarding national security issues. Thorp also serves on the Board of Overseers for the Chemical Heritage Foundation, an independent nonprofit organization that fosters an understanding of chemistry's impact on society. He has published 130 scholarly articles on the electronic properties of DNA and RNA. He invented technology for electronic DNA chips that led to 19 issued or pending U.S. patents.

Thorp co-authored a new book, "Engines of Innovation — The Entrepreneurial University in the 21st Century," with Buck Goldstein, University Entrepreneur in Residence. The UNC Press book makes the case for the pivotal role of research universities as agents of societal change. All royalties will support innovation and entrepreneurship at the University.

An accomplished musician who plays jazz bass and keyboard, Thorp is married to Patti Worden Thorp, a Hope Mills native and UNC–Greensboro graduate. Their children are John and Emma.

THE DOCTORAL HOODING SPEAKER

Suzanne Cusick

SUZANNE CUSICK, professor of music at New York University, is a music historian specializing in the music of 17th-century Italy. She has published extensively on gender and sexuality in relation to the musical cultures of early modern Italy and of contemporary North America.

Her feminist readings of early modern music and musical culture have appeared in the Journal of the American Musicological Society, Early Music, The Cambridge Companion to Monteverdi and the Brazilian journal Per Musi: Revista Académica de Música. Cusick's book, "Francesca Caccini at the Medici Court: Music and the Circulation of Power" (Chicago, 2009), received the 2010 Book Award from the Society for the Study of Early Modern Women.

Since 2003, Cusick has edited Women and Music: A Journal of Gender and Culture, the first journal (and the only English-language journal) focused on the relationship of gender and sexuality to musical culture. She currently studies the use of noise, music and gender coercion in the detention and interrogation of prisoners being held during the fight against terrorism, work for which she received the Philip Brett Award given by the LGBTQ Study Group of the American Musicological Society in 2007.

Before joining NYU, Cusick served as a faculty member at the University of Virginia. During her decade at UVA, she led the creation of a doctoral program that combined the areas of musicology and ethnomusicology.

Among her other many achievements, she was the first Frederick Burkhardt Residential Fellow at Villa I Tatti, the Harvard University Center for Italian Renaissance Studies.

Cusick received her B.F.A. from Newcomb College of Tulane University and her Ph.D. in musicology from the University of North Carolina at Chapel Hill.

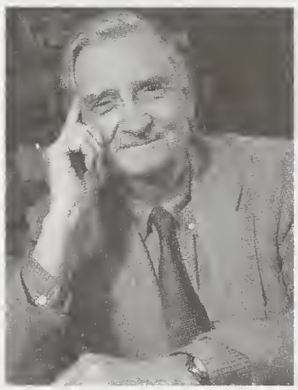
COMMENCEMENT SPEAKER AND HONORARY DEGREE RECIPIENT

Edward O. Wilson

DOCTOR OF SCIENCE



EDWARD O. WILSON is university research professor emeritus at Harvard University, and honorary curator in entomology of the Museum of Comparative Zoology. Born in Birmingham, Alabama, in 1929, he received his B.S. and M.S. in biology from the University of Alabama and, in 1955, his Ph.D. in biology from Harvard, where he taught for four decades, receiving both of its college-wide teaching awards.

Wilson is the recipient of more than 100 international medals and awards, including the National Medal of Science; the International Prize for Biology from Japan; the Catalonia Prize of Spain; the Presidential Medal of Italy; the Crafoord Prize from the Royal Swedish Academy of Sciences, given in fields of science not covered by the Nobel Prize; and for his conservation efforts, the Gold Medal of the Worldwide Fund for Nature and the Audubon Medal of the National Audubon Society. He is the author of 25 books, two of which won Pulitzer Prizes: "On Human Nature" (1978) and "The Ants" (1990, with Bert Hölldobler). Six of Wilson's books compose two trilogies. The first, "The Insect Societies," "Sociobiology" and "On Human Nature," (1971–1978) founded sociobiology and evolutionary psychology. The second, "The Diversity of Life," "The Future of Life" and "The Creation," (1992–2006) organized the base of modern biodiversity conservation.

Wilson has served on the boards of directors of The Nature Conservancy, Conservation International and the American Museum of Natural History, and gives many lectures throughout the world. His most recent books include "Consilience" (1998), which argues for the uniting of the natural sciences with the humanities. In 2003 he conceived the idea of the Encyclopedia of Life, which has since come to fruition.

Wilson lives in Lexington, Massachusetts, with his wife, Irene.

HONORARY DEGREE RECIPIENT

Timothy Brooks Burnett

DOCTOR OF LAWS

TIM BURNETT is president of family-owned Bessemer Improvement Company, a commercial and industrial real estate firm based in Greensboro, North Carolina.

A Morehead Scholar, he received his A.B. in mathematics in 1962 and was inducted into the Order of the Golden Fleece, the Order of the Grail-Valkyries and the Order of the Old Well, all honorary societies that recognize students of exemplary character and accomplishment. He went on to earn an M.B.A. with distinction from Harvard University in 1965.

Burnett has a long, broad and distinguished record of service to and support for the University. His leadership roles include eight years of service on Carolina's Board of Trustees, with two years as its chair. He also served on the Board of Visitors for two terms, twice as its chair; the steering committees for the Bicentennial Campaign and the Carolina First Campaign; and the Morehead-Cain Central Selection Committee. He served on the search committees that chose Chancellors Hooker and Moeser, and on the Rhodes Scholars Nominating Committee for the UNC campus. He is currently vice chair of the Board of Directors of the UNC Health Care System and on the board of the University of North Carolina at Chapel Hill Foundation, Inc., as well as vice chair of the trustees of the Morehead-Cain Foundation.

Burnett has been a generous supporter of endeavors ranging from Carolina Performing Arts and the North Carolina Botanical Garden, to distinguished professorships and student success programs in the College of Arts and Sciences, whose foundation he chaired twice. He is a member of the Lux Libertas Society, an organization through which Carolina recognizes its most devoted supporters, and which takes its name from the University's motto etched in its official seal—Lux Libertas, Latin for "light and liberty."

Burnett's honors include the William Richardson Davie Award, the highest recognition given by the Board of Trustees, and the General Alumni Association's Distinguished Service Medal.

HONORARY DEGREE RECIPIENT

Mary Sue Coleman

DOCTOR OF LAWS

MARY SUE COLEMAN is president of the University of Michigan. Hers is a long and distinguished history of service to higher education as a scientist, scholar and administrator.

Coleman earned her undergraduate degree in chemistry from Grinnell College in 1965 and her Ph.D. in biochemistry from Carolina in 1969. She completed an NIH postdoctoral fellowship with Professor Mary Ellen Jones at Carolina in 1969–1970, and accepted her first faculty appointment at the University of Kentucky in 1972.

Coleman has served with distinction in the highest leadership positions of some of the nation's most distinguished institutions. She returned to Carolina first as associate provost and dean of research in 1990 and then as vice chancellor for graduate studies and research. She went on to serve as provost at the University of New Mexico (1993–1995), president of the University of Iowa and the Iowa Health System (1995–2002), and since August 2002 as 13th president of the University of Michigan.

At Michigan, Coleman has undertaken major initiatives focused on the interdisciplinary richness of the university, student residential life, ethics in our society, the economic vitality of the state and nation, and issues related to health care. She also led a capital campaign that raised more than $3.2 billion for her university, the most ever by a public institution as of the campaign's conclusion in 2008. Coleman has announced a groundbreaking partnership between the University of Michigan and Google, which will enable the public to search the text of the university's 7-million-volume library and will open the way to universal access and the preservation of human recorded knowledge.

As a biochemist, Coleman built a distinguished research career through her research on the immune system and malignancies. At the University of Michigan, she holds appointments of professor of biological chemistry in the School of Medicine and professor of chemistry in the College of Literature, Science and the Arts.

Coleman is a member of the Institute of Medicine and a fellow of the American Academy of Arts and Sciences and the American Association for the Advancement of Science. Leadership positions in higher education include having served on the Association of American Universities Executive Committee, the National Collegiate Athletics Association Board of Directors and the Knight Commission on Intercollegiate Athletics. She is a trustee of the John S. and James L. Knight Foundation and the Gerald R. Ford Foundation, and serves on the boards of directors of Johnson & Johnson and the Meredith Corporation.

In 2010, U.S. Commerce Secretary Gary Locke named Coleman the co-chair of the National Advisory Council on Innovation and Entrepreneurship.

Her honors include 10 honorary degrees and Carolina's Distinguished Alumna Award.

HONORARY DEGREE RECIPIENT

Ernest James Gaines

DOCTOR OF LETTERS

ERNEST GAINES ranks among the premier American writers of the second half of the 20th century.

Gaines grew up in the old slave quarters of River Lake Plantation in Oscar, Pointe Coupee Parish, Louisiana, a setting and culture that permeates his fiction. He moved to Vallejo, California when he was 15, joining the black diaspora from the American South. He earned a degree in literature in 1957 from San Francisco State University and later won a creative writing fellowship to Stanford University.

Gaines became writer-in-residence at the University of Louisiana at Lafayette in 1983 and, for many years, split his time between Louisiana and San Francisco. He retired in 2004 and is now writer-in-residence emeritus.

A gifted storyteller, Gaines is an artist whose work explores the endurance of human dignity. Gaines illuminates the intricacies of black-white relationships in the mid-20th-century American South and the experience of black Southerners in coping with and rising above a sense of powerlessness.

Gaines is best known for "The Autobiography of Miss Jane Pittman," written in the voice of a black woman who lived from the period of slavery to see the civil rights movement in full bloom. Published in 1971, it was one of the first widely read works to shed light on a largely neglected point of view of the American experience. In 1974, the book was made into a television movie and won nine Emmy Awards.

His 1983 novel "A Gathering of Old Men" is a riveting story of a black community's encounter with power. His 1993 novel "A Lesson Before Dying" centers on a young black man unjustly sentenced to death and a young teacher's visits to his cell. This work won the National Book Critics Circle Award for fiction and was nominated for the Pulitzer Prize.

In 2005 he published "Mozart and Leadbelly," a collection of short stories and essays. To date, he has published six novels, two collections of stories and a children's book. Four of his works have been made into television movies.

Gaines still resides in Louisiana in a house he built along False River on land within the boundaries of the same plantation where he grew up. In 1996, as a visiting professor at the University of Rennes, he taught the first creative writing class ever offered in the French university system.

Gaines' honors include Chevalier de l'Ordre des Artes et des Lettres, the American Academy of Arts and Letters, the National Humanities Medal, the Dos Passos Prize and a "genius" grant from the John D. and Catherine T. MacArthur Foundation. In 2004, he was nominated for the Nobel Prize in literature. The University of Louisiana at Lafayette formally opened the Ernest J. Gaines Center, an international center for scholarship on Gaines and his work, on October 31, 2010.

Each year the Baton Rouge Area Foundation presents the Ernest J. Gaines Award "to inspire and recognize African American writers of excellence."

HONORARY DEGREE RECIPIENT

John Grisham

DOCTOR OF LETTERS

JOHN GRISHAM, a native of Jonesboro, Arkansas, is the author of 25 books, including numerous legal thrillers. He grew up in Southaven, Mississippi, and though he originally dreamed of a career as a professional baseball player, he received a bachelor of science in accounting at Mississippi State University in 1977. He then went on to earn a juris doctor degree from the University of Mississippi's law school in 1981.

Grisham practiced law for nearly a decade in Southaven, specializing in criminal defense and personal injury litigation. In 1983 he was elected to the Mississippi House of Representatives and served until 1990.

Grisham spent three years working on his first novel, getting up at 5 a.m. in order to write before work. "A Time to Kill" was published in 1989. His next novel, "The Firm," spent 47 weeks on the New York Times bestseller list and became the bestselling novel of 1991. His next book, "The Pelican Brief," also hit number one on the list, and the book that followed, "The Client," debuted at number one, confirming Grisham's reputation as master of the legal thriller. Grisham is one of only three authors to sell two million copies of a book on a first printing.

Since 1988, Grisham has written one novel each year. There are more than 250 million of his books in print worldwide, translated into 38 languages. Nine of them have been turned into motion pictures. Grisham's latest book, "The Confession," was published in October 2010. His first collection of short stories, "Ford County," appeared in 2009, and "The Innocent Man," published in 2006, was his first work of nonfiction.

When he's not writing, Grisham devotes his time to numerous charitable causes, including his Rebuild The Coast Fund, which has raised $8.8 million for Gulf Coast relief in the wake of Hurricane Katrina. His childhood passion for baseball continues unabated. He serves as commissioner for his local Little League and has no fewer than six ball fields built on his properties where he has hosted more than 350 kids on 26 Little League teams. Grisham also serves on the Board of Directors for the Innocence Project, an organization dedicated to exonerating the innocent through DNA testing after they have been convicted.

Grisham's ties to Carolina are substantial. He spoke at two North Carolina Literary Festivals held on the campus in 1998 and 2009, and he was the University of North Carolina at Chapel Hill Commencement speaker in 2010, the same year his wife, Renee, received her bachelor's degree from UNC. His daughter, Shea, graduated from UNC in 2008.

HONORARY DEGREE RECIPIENT

Dwight T. Pitcaithley

DOCTOR OF LAWS

DWIGHT T. PITCAITHLEY, currently professor of history at New Mexico State University, served as chief historian of the National Park Service from 1995–2005.

Born in Carlsbad, New Mexico, Pitcaithley served in the U.S. Marine Corps in Vietnam, received his B.A. and M.A. from Eastern New Mexico University, and earned his Ph.D. in history from Texas Tech University in 1976. He entered the Park Service as a seasonal guide at Carlsbad Caverns National Park and soon rose to become a historian at the Southwest Regional office (1976–1979), the regional historian for the North Atlantic Region (1979–1989), chief of the National Capital Region's Division of Cultural Resources (1989–1995), and, finally, chief historian.

As chief historian, Pitcaithley worked with vision and creativity to push the Park Service to realize its full potential to inspire, inform and educate the American public in what has been called America's largest outdoor history classroom.

A first-rate scholar and a courageous risk-taker, Pitcaithley both reinvigorated the practice of history within the Park Service and enhanced the standing of public history within the historical profession. Surveyed in 2010 by the Organization of American Historians, Park Service historians praised Pitcaithley's "energized and proactive" approach for "making us feel respected and listened to." They credited him with making a "tremendous positive impact on how we present history and resource management issues in the Service." Pitcaithley was especially interested in bringing the insights of recent scholarship into historical interpretation in the parks. He helped shepherd a service-wide initiative that at last incorporated slavery as a central topic at Civil War battlefields. His ability, a colleague recalled, "to channel … criticism into discussions based on sound historical scholarship was phenomenal." He also forged an agreement between the Organization of American Historians and the Park Service that has improved historical interpretation and resource management at many sites, including Gettysburg, where extensive new Civil War exhibits were installed in 2008. At Philadelphia's Independence National Historical Park, he successfully intervened to ensure that the full story of how slavery underpinned the birth of American liberty would be told at the "President's House" site near where the Liberty Bell now sits. A major national study of history practice throughout the park system, which he originally envisioned, is currently underway.

A prolific publishing historian, Pitcaithley is author of "Little Paper Amendments: Slavery and the Constitution on the Eve of the Civil War" (forthcoming) and coeditor of "The Antiquities Act: A Century of American Archaeology, Historic Preservation and Nature Conservation" (2006), and has contributed chapters to "Becoming Historians" (2009), "Slavery and Public History: The Tough Stuff of American Memory" (2006), "Preserving Western History" (2005), "Public History and the Environment" (2004), "Myth, Memory and the Making of the American Landscape" (2001), and "Seeing and Being Seen: Tourism in the American West " (2001).

A MESSAGE TO CAROLINA'S NEWEST ALUMNI

Congratulations! You are now graduates of the University of North Carolina at Chapel Hill. Let your General Alumni Association help you make a seamless transition from students to alumni — no matter where you find yourselves after graduation. Visit alumni.unc.edu/youngalumni.

GETTING STARTED

Don't miss out on special invitations and services. Call (877) 377-7125 or visit alumni.unc.edu/update to keep your official University record updated. Jump start your network with Carolina alumni — join the GAA's groups on Facebook and LinkedIn.

ALUMNI CAREER SERVICES

Networking is the most effective approach to finding a job. The GAA can connect you with more than 7,000 alumni volunteers in our Alumni Advisor Network who can help you explore career options.

GAA members from the Class of 2011 have full access (phone, email or in person) to the GAA's certified career coach for one year following graduation. If you're thinking about grad school, GAA members also received discounts on Kaplan prep courses.

FINDING OTHER TAR HEELS IN YOUR AREA

- Local Carolina Clubs can be found in nearly 100 cities around the globe. Socialize, network, cheer on the Heels and continue that spirit of Tar Heel service within your community.
- The GAA's Online Alumni Directory can help you develop a network like no other. The directory includes nearly 270,000 former Carolina students.

TRUSTED INFORMATION SOURCE

The "Carolina Alumni Review," the "Out of the Blue" e-newsletter, the GAA's Twitter feed and alumni.unc.edu can keep you updated on the University's achievements and challenges as well as what's going on in Chapel Hill.

Congratulations again. We hope you'll choose to join the nearly 70,000 GAA members who remain connected and help serve Carolina and our students — past, present and future. The GAA offers new grads a one-year membership for only $20 — half off the annual dues rate of $40. Or save $50 on life membership — only $28.25/month for 24 months.

For more information on how the Association serves new graduates, please call Christie Hogan '10 or Diana Koonce '02 at (800) 962-0742 or e-mail membership@unc.edu. Visit us on the Web at alumni.unc.edu.

CLASS OF 1961 CELEBRATES GOLDEN ANNIVERSARY

As part of their 50th class reunion, representatives from Carolina's Class of 1961 will join the academic processional at commencement and will precede the undergraduates. Watch for these most recent inductees into the General Alumni Association's Old Students Club, who will be adorned in Carolina blue gowns and wearing medallions commemorating their golden anniversary reunion.

COMMENCEMENT SYMBOLS AND TRADITIONS

THE CHANCELLOR'S MEDAL

The chancellor's medal, an emblem of the office of chancellor, is worn during the University's ceremonial occasions. The sterling silver disk, which is three inches in diameter and seven ounces Troy weight, was given to the University by John Sanders, professor emeritus and former director of the UNC Institute of Government, and his wife, Ann Beal Sanders. Modeled by sculptor Pete Hinton and bearing the University seal, it was first worn by Chancellor Paul Hardin during the 1994 University Day convocation.

THE BICENTENNIAL STAFF

The faculty marshal carries the bicentennial staff while leading the faculty processional on ceremonial occasions such as Commencement and University Day. The staff, commissioned for the University's 1993 bicentennial celebration by John Sanders, professor emeritus and former director of the UNC Institute of Government, and his wife, Ann Beal Sanders, was modeled by sculptor Pete Hinton. It consists of a sterling silver three-inch-high replica of the Old Well mounted on a turned and tapered oak shaft. The shaft was made from timber salvaged from the 1822 section of Old West residence hall during its 1991–1993 renovation.

THE UNIVERSITY SEAL

The University seal typically appears on diplomas and graduation materials, grade transcripts and documents that indicate accomplishment in or on behalf of the University.

The first seal of the University of North Carolina, designed in 1790, showed the face of Apollo and his emblem, the rising sun, used to symbolize the dawn of higher education in the state. The words "SIGUL UNIVERSITAT CAROL SEPTENT" (Seal of the University of North Carolina) surrounded the drawing.

A modification in 1895 added lighted torches of learning beside Apollo's profile. Two years later another alteration replaced Apollo's head with a shield on which the words Lux (light) and Libertas (liberty), separated by a white band running from the upper right to the lower left of the shield, appeared.

In the 1940s, some observers mistakenly claimed the white stripe on the shield was a bend sinister, a heraldic code that was demeaning. In truth, the stripe was a bar sinister and merely denoted a second or later son. Still, the direction of the stripe was reversed, removing any question of stigma.

Today's seal is the same as the 1897 version, except the stripe runs from the upper left to the lower right.

UNIVERSITY COLORS

As symbols of unity among Carolina students, alumni and fans, the school colors of light blue and white were first used around 1800 to distinguish between members of the Dialectic and Philanthropic Literary Societies. Throughout the 19th century, students were required to be members of either the Di or the Phi. The Di's color was light blue, and the Phi's was white.

At University commencements, balls and other social events, the student officials, managers and marshals wore the color of their society, blue or white. Because the chief marshal or chief ball manager represented the whole student body, not just his society, he wore both colors.

When the University fielded its first intercollegiate athletic teams in 1888, the question of what colors to wear had already been answered. Light blue and white had come to symbolize membership in the University, not in a single society.

ACADEMIC DRESS

The following information, based in part on An Academic Costume Code and Ceremony Guide (published by the American Council on Education), may be helpful in identifying academic attire worn during UNC's Commencement exercises.

DEGREE CANDIDATES' REGALIA. The University's bachelor's gown was redesigned this year by award-winning colorist and fashion designer Alexander Julian — a Chapel Hill native and UNC alumnus — to be both Carolina blue and truly green, as in sustainably made. The fabric for the new True Blue gown is made from 100 percent post-consumer recycled plastic bottles (23 bottles for each gown) and is manufactured at mills in the Carolinas. The information about the gown's sustainability is suitably printed directly on the cloth, without the use of an extra label. In addition to being dyed a custom Carolina blue color, the True Blue gowns also have a more streamlined fit, white piping along the yoke and two white panels in front. The new tassels are blue and white, topped with a silver-colored Old Well medallion. An optional accessory is an embroidered white stole that the graduate may give to a parent in gratitude after the Commencement ceremony.

The untrimmed, black master's gown has a hood and an oblong sleeve, open at the wrist, that hangs nearly to the ground; the back part of its oblong shape is square cut and the arc in the front is cut away. The hooded doctoral gown features three bars across each sleeve. In 1999, the Faculty Council authorized a special doctoral gown for Carolina graduates. It is Carolina blue, with facings and crossbars of dark blue outlined in white piping. The facings bear the shield of the University supported by the torches of learning.

The hoods of master's and doctoral degree candidates vary in color according to the field of study (see list below).

This Commencement weekend, some students will be wearing special cords. Gold cords will be worn by Honors graduates, and blue and white cords will be worn by Public Service Scholars.

FACULTY REGALIA. Faculty wear the regalia of the institution that conferred their highest degree. The doctoral gowns are usually faced with black velvet, although the color of the velvet may vary according to the field of study. Hoods, which differ in length according to the level of the degree held, are lined with official colors of the university or college that conferred the degree, usually with one color forming a chevron pattern over the other. Some colors you will see on faculty and administrators' robes are, for example, the crimson of Harvard, the maroon of Chicago, the orange and black of Princeton, the dark blue of Yale, and the light blue and white of North Carolina.

Like the hoods of master's and doctoral degree candidates, faculty hoods are edged and bound with velvet in the color appropriate to the field of study. The colors in the hoods and gowns of faculty and administrators represent the following fields in which degrees were taken:

APRICOT: Nursing
BROWN: Fine Arts
CITRON: Social Work
CRIMSON: Journalism
DARK BLUE: Philosophy
GOLDEN YELLOW: Science
GREEN: Medicine
LEMON YELLOW: Library Science
LIGHT BLUE: Education
LILAC: Dentistry

CONFERRING OF THE HOOD, TURNING OF THE TASSEL

At a certain point in a Commencement ceremony, a gesture or action symbolically indicates that the degree has been conferred. For doctoral degree candidates, that symbolic action is called the "hooding." During Saturday's Hooding ceremony, doctoral degree candidates will be conferred with a hood by the provost and either their advisor or dissertation committee chair. For undergraduates, the gesture is the turning of the tassel. At the beginning of the main Commencement ceremony on Sunday, undergraduate degree candidates will wear their tassels on the right side of the mortarboard (cap). Then, at the moment when their degrees are awarded, they will move them to the left side. Upon turning the tassel or being hooded, a student transitions from degree candidate to graduate.

MUSIC

Graduates, families and friends attending Commencement weekend will have several opportunities to hear the University's beloved "Hark the Sound" and James Taylor's classic "Carolina in My Mind." These songs evoke the feelings of loyalty and friendship that students, alumni and true blue Tar Heels everywhere have for the University. But the orchestral marches that accompany the commencement processionals are equally memorable for their power and splendor. They are truly fitting musical celebrations of the talent and achievements of UNC–Chapel Hill's visiting dignitaries, faculty and graduates.

During Saturday's Doctoral Hooding ceremony and Sunday's main Commencement ceremony, members of the academic processional will be welcomed by the fanfare brass, woodwinds and drums of Nikolai Rimsky-Korsakov's "Procession of the Nobles" and Richard Strauss' "Königsmarsch." Rimsky-Korsakov wrote his majestic march to open the second act of the opera-ballet "Mlada," which premiered in Saint Petersburg, Russia, in 1892. Strauss premiered the flourishing "Königsmarsch" at a palace concert in Berlin in 1907.

The new graduates will exit the ceremonies while hearing familiar Carolina melodies in "Tar Heel Rhapsody," a composition written specifically for the University that features its school songs.

DEGREES AND CERTIFICATES

UNDERGRADUATE CERTIFICATES

Certificate in Community Preparedness and Disaster Management
Certificate in Cytotechnology
Certificate in Dental Hygiene
Certificate in Nuclear Medicine Technology
Certificate in Radiography
Certificate in Sports Communication

UNDERGRADUATE DEGREES

Bachelor of Arts with a major in:
African and Afro-American Studies; American Studies; Anthropology; Archaeology; Art History; Asian Studies; Biology; Chemistry; Classics; Communication Studies; Comparative Literature; Contemporary European Studies; Dramatic Art; Economics; English; Environmental Studies; Exercise and Sport Science; Geography; Geological Sciences; German; History; Interdisciplinary Studies; International Studies; Latin American Studies; Linguistics; Management and Society; Mathematics; Music; Peace, War and Defense; Philosophy; Physics; Political Science; Psychology; Public Policy; Recreation Administration; Religious Studies; Romance Languages; Russian and East European Studies; Slavic Languages; Sociology; Studio Art; Women's Studies

Bachelor of Arts in Education with a major in:
Child Development and Family Studies; Elementary Education; Middle Grades Education

Bachelor of Arts in Journalism and Mass Communication
Bachelor of Fine Arts
Bachelor of Music
Bachelor of Science with a major in:
Applied Science; Biology; Chemistry; Clinical Laboratory Science; Computer Science; Dental Hygiene; Environmental Sciences; Geological Sciences; Human Biology; Mathematical Decision Sciences; Mathematics; Physics; Psychology; Radiologic Science
Bachelor of Science in Business Administration
Bachelor of Science in Information Science
Bachelor of Science in Nursing
Bachelor of Science in Pharmaceutical Sciences
Bachelor of Science in Public Health with a major in:
Biostatistics; Environmental Health Sciences; Health Policy and Management; Nutrition

POSTBACCALAUREATE AND POST-MASTER'S CERTIFICATES

Postbaccalaureate Certificate in Auditory Learning in Young Children
Postbaccalaureate Certificate in Business Journalism
Postbaccalaureate Certificate in Clinical Laboratory Science
Postbaccalaureate Certificate in Field Epidemiology
Postbaccalaureate Certificate in Global Health
Postbaccalaureate Certificate in Healthcare Management
Postbaccalaureate Certificate in Maternal and Child Health Leadership
Postbaccalaureate Certificate in Molecular Diagnostic Science
Postbaccalaureate Certificate in Occupational Health Nursing Specialty
Postbaccalaureate Certificate in Public Health Concepts
Postbaccalaureate Certificate in Radiologist Assistant
Postbaccalaureate Certificate in Technology and Communication
Post-Master's Certificate in Information and Library Science
Post-Master's Certificate in Public Health Leadership

GRADUATE DEGREES

Master of Accounting
Master of Arts in the discipline of:
Anthropology; Art History; Biology; Chemistry; Classics; Communication Studies; Comparative Literature; Ecology; Education; English; Exercise and Sport Science; Folklore; Geography; Geological Sciences; Germanic Languages; German Studies; History; Linguistics; Mass Communication; Mathematics; Musicology; Philosophy; Political Science; Psychology; Religious Studies; Romance Languages and Literatures; Russian and East European Studies; School Psychology; Slavic Languages and Literatures; Sociology

Master of Radiologic Science
Master of School Administration
Master of Science in the discipline of:
Biochemistry and Biophysics; Biology; Biomedical Engineering; Biostatistics; Cell and Developmental Biology; Cell and Molecular Physiology; Chemistry; Computer Science; Dental Hygiene Education; Ecology; Economics; Endodontics; Environmental Sciences and Engineering; Genetics and Molecular Biology; Geological Sciences; Human Movement Science; Marine Sciences; Materials Science; Mathematics; Microbiology and Immunology;

Neurobiology; Nutrition; Occupational Therapy; Operative Dentistry; Oral and Maxillofacial Pathology; Oral and Maxillofacial Radiology; Oral and Maxillofacial Surgery; Oral Biology; Orthodontics; Pathology; Pediatric Dentistry; Periodontology; Pharmaceutical Sciences; Pharmacology; Physics; Prosthodontics; Public Health Nursing; Rehabilitation Counseling and Psychology; Speech and Hearing Sciences; Statistics and Operations Research; Toxicology

Master of Science in Clinical Research
Master of Science in Disaster Management
Master of Science in Environmental Engineering
Master of Science in Information Science
Master of Science in Library Science
Master of Science in Nursing
Master of Science in Public Health in the discipline of:
Biostatistics; Environmental Sciences and Engineering; Epidemiology; Health Behavior and Health Education; Health Policy and Management; Maternal and Child Health
Master of Science in Recreation Administration
Master of Social Work
Doctor of Philosophy in the discipline of:
Anthropology; Art History; Biochemistry and Biophysics; Bioinformatics and Computational Biology; Biology; Biomedical Engineering; Biostatistics; Business Administration; Cell and Developmental Biology; Cell and Molecular Physiology; Chemistry; City and Regional Planning; Classics; Communication Studies; Comparative Literature; Computer Science; Ecology; Economics; Education; English; Environmental Sciences and Engineering; Epidemiology; Genetics and Molecular Biology; Geography; Geological Sciences; Germanic Languages; German Studies; Health Behavior and Health Education; Health Policy and Management; History; Human Movement Science; Information and Library Science; Linguistics; Marine Sciences; Mass Communication; Materials Science; Maternal and Child Health; Mathematics; Microbiology and Immunology; Musicology; Neurobiology; Nursing; Nutrition; Occupational Science; Oral Biology; Pathology; Pharmaceutical Sciences; Pharmacology; Philosophy; Physics; Political Science; Psychology; Public Policy; Religious Studies; Romance Languages and Literatures; School Psychology; Slavic Languages and Literatures; Social Work; Sociology; Speech and Hearing Sciences; Statistics and Operations Research; Toxicology
Doctor of Public Health in the discipline of:
Biostatistics; Health Behavior and Health Education; Health Policy and Management; Maternal and Child Health; Nutrition

PROFESSIONAL DEGREES

Doctor of Audiology
Doctor of Dental Surgery
Doctor of Education in the discipline of:
Curriculum and Instruction; Educational Leadership
Doctor of Medicine
Doctor of Pharmacy
Doctor of Physical Therapy
Juris Doctor

CAROLINA ANNUAL FUND AND 2011 SENIOR CAMPAIGN

Congratulations, graduates! There is no doubt that your experience at Carolina has included unparalleled opportunities and that your degree will open many doors for you in the future.

As Carolina students, you have been touched every day by private gifts to Carolina that maintain and enhance the University's tradition of excellence. Annual gifts improve the lives of students, faculty and staff. From scholarships to new research buildings and equipment, to access to incredible performances at Memorial Hall, to more than 6 million volumes in the libraries across campus, private gifts have impacted every aspect of campus life.

You're invited to support UNC–Chapel Hill through the Senior Campaign. You can make a gift to any part of the University that is meaningful to you — your major, a professorship, a student organization, scholarships and student aid, or campuswide programs. Or, to make an immediate difference where it is needed the most, consider supporting the Chancellor's Unrestricted Fund.

All gifts are included in the Senior Campaign and Annual Fund. Thank you to those who have already made your gift. Give online at annualfund.unc.edu/gift or by mail to P.O. Box 309, Chapel Hill, N.C. 27514-0309. For more information about the 2011 Senior Campaign, visit annualfund.unc.edu/students.

WELCOME YOUNG ALUMNI!

As you transition from students to alumni, we encourage you to keep up with young alumni events and Carolina news through the Carolina Annual Fund young alumni Facebook page (facebook.com/UNCYoungAlumni) and Twitter page (@UNCYoungAlumni). Through our social media efforts you can connect with fellow recent Carolina graduates in your area, participate in local events and social activities, and help Carolina stay strong by advocating philanthropy and support for the University among your peers. For more information about young alumni programs, visit youngalumni.unc.edu.

CANDIDATES FOR DOCTORAL DEGREES

May 2011

Degree candidates' names are followed by their area of major study, dissertation or project title and the name of their doctoral advisor.

The Graduate School

ESTABLISHED 1903

Dean Steven W. Matson

DOCTOR OF PHILOSOPHY

Rebecca May Aldrich, Occupational Science, Discouraged Workers–Daily Occupations: Exploring Complex Transactions in the Experience of Unemployment. Professor Virginia Dickie.

Kristen D. Alexander, Physics and Astronomy, Fundamentals and Technology of Surface-Enhanced Spectroscopy Through the Fabrication and Manipulation of Plasmonic Gold Nanoparticle Dimers. Professor Rene Lopez.

Dan Amiram, Business Administration, Loss Given Default and Debt Contracts. Professors Wayne R. Landsman and Robert M. Bushman.

Robert J. Anderson, Physics and Astronomy, NMR Characterization of the Hydrogen Storage Properties of Microporous Materials. Professor Yue Wu.

Susan Casper Anenberg, Environmental Sciences and Engineering, Using Atmospheric Models to Estimate Global Air Pollution Mortality. Professor Jason West.

Roger Arce, Dentistry, Periodontal Disease and Preterm Delivery: Influences of Campylobacter Rectus Infection on Placental Innate Immunity. Professor Steven Offenbacher.

Charles William Arnold, Physics and Astronomy, A New Absolute Total Cross-Section for Photodisintegration of Beryllium-9. Professor Thomas B. Clegg.

Jamin Frederick Asay, Philosophy, Truthmaking, Truth and Realism: New Work for a Theory of Truthmakers. Professor Keith Simmons.

Erika Jewel Bagley, Psychology, Exploring Sources of the Association Between Sleep and Risk-Taking During Adolescence. Professor Martha Cox.

Antoine L. Bailliard, Occupational Science, Latino Immigration to Smalltown, North Carolina: Transformations in El Nuevo South. Professor Virginia Dickie.

Emily Bruderle Baran, History, Faith on the Margins: Jehovah's Witnesses in the Soviet Union and Post-Soviet Russia, Ukraine and Moldova, 1945–2010. Professor Donald J. Raleigh.

John A. Bauman, Pharmacology, Modification of Bcl-x and Mcl-1 Pre-mRNA Splicing Using Splice-Switching Oligonucleotides. Professor Ryszard Kole.

Russell H. Behler, Biomedical Engineering, ARFI Ultrasound for the Detection and Characterization of Atherosclerosis in an FH Pig Model. Professor Caterina Gallippi.

Kristen Robin Bell, Philosophy, Mercy and Criminal Justice. Professor Gerald J. Postema.

Jennifer Kirstin Benz, Political Science, Understanding Self-Interest: A Concept Bridging the Gap Between Psychology and Politics. Professor Thomas Carsey.

Waitman Wade Beorn, History, Descent into Darkness: Local Participation of the Wehrmacht in the Holocaust in Belarus, 1941–1942. Professor Christopher R. Browning.

Sarah Abigail Birken, Health Policy and Management, Where the Rubber Meets the Road: A Mixed-Method Study of Middle Managers' Role in Innovation Implementation in Health Care Organizations. Professor Shoou-Yih Daniel Lee.

Sarah E. Bond, History, Disreputable Trades in the Roman World. Professor Richard J.A. Talbert.

Narisa Kengtrong Bordeerat, Environmental Sciences and Engineering, Quantification of Epoxide Metabolite Specific N-Terminal Globin Adducts: A Biomarker of Internal Dosimetry of 1,3-Butadiene Exposure and Metabolism. Professor James A. Swenberg.

Christian Anne Burr, Genetics and Molecular Biology, Membrane Trafficking and Receptor Kinase Signaling During Plant Development. Professor Sarah Liljegren.

Catherine A. Burris, Religious Studies, The Reception of the Acts of Thecla in Syriac Christianity: Translation, Collection and Reception. Professor Bart D. Ehrman.

Maria del Carmen Cana Jimenez, Romance Languages, Voces Infantiles: Infancia, Memoria y Discurso Polìtico en la Narrativa Colombiana y Española Contemporánea. Professor Juan Carlos Gonzalez-Espitia.

Steve D. Cappell, Pharmacology, Systematic Analysis of Essential Genes Reveals New Regulators of G. Protein Signaling. Professor Henrik G. Dohlman.

Kimberly Lynn Hills Carpenter, Neurobiology, Functional Neuroimaging of the Interaction Between Social and Executive Neural Circuitry in Individuals With High Functioning Autism. Professor Aysenil Belger.

Margaret Alice Carrel, Geography, Space-Time Differentiation of Drivers of and Barriers to H5N1 Avian Influenza Evolution. Professor Michael Emch.

Mary Jean Carroll, Pharmaceutical Sciences, Probing the Dynamics of Dihydrofolate Reductase With Small Molecule Inhibitors. Professor Andrew L. Lee.

Zulfiya Chariyeva, Health Behavior and Health Education, The Role of Self-Efficacy to Explain the Effect of Counseling Time on Changes in Risky Sexual Behavior Among People Living With HIV: A Mediation Analysis. Professor Carol Golin.

Yuan Cheng, Biochemistry and Biophysics, Structural and Functional Studies of E. Coli Conjugative Relaxase-Helicase Tral and Arabidopsis Thaliana Protein Arginine Methyltransferase 10 (Prmt10). Professor Matthew Redinbo.

Eui Hwan Chung, Biology, Characterization of Plant Immune Receptor RPM1 Complex and an Associated Protein RIN4 in Arabidopsis. Professor Jeffery Dangl.

Sarah E. Clere, English, Troubling Bodies in the Fiction of Willa Cather. Professor Joseph M. Flora.

Marc D. Cohen, English, By the Express Permission of the Author: Intellectual Property and the Authorized Adaptations of Charles Dickens. Professors John McGowan and Beverly Taylor.

Holly Lynn Collins, Romance Languages, Rereading Race, Identity and Color From the 19th-Century Naturalists to 20th- and 21st-Century Migrant Narrative. Professor Dominique Fisher.

Alexander Hoff Couture, Physics and Astronomy, Cross-Section Measurement of 2H(N,Np)N at 16 MeV in Symmetric Constant Relative Energy Configurations. Professor Tom Clegg.

Adam Steven Cureton, Philosophy, On the Nature, Grounds and Limits of Social Moral Rules. Professor Thomas E. Hill Jr.

Cynthia A. Current, English, Technology and the Archive: Framing Identity in American Literature, 1880–1914. Professor John McGowan.

Jonathan Lee D'Amore, English, The Writing Life: Authorship and Authority in Recent American Autobiographical Narratives. Professor Linda Wagner-Martin.

Michael E. Darden, Economics, A Dynamic Stochastic Model of Lifetime Smoking Behavior. Professor Donna Gilleskie.

Mireya E. Davila, Political Science, Governing Together: The Concertaciûn Administrations in Chile (1990–2009). Professor Jonathan Hartlyn.

Carrie Pettus Davis, Social Work, Incorporating Naturally Occurring Social Support in Interventions for Former Prisoners With Substance Use Disorders: A Community-Based Randomized Controlled Trial. Professor Matthew Owen Howard.

Leslie Davison, English, A Case for Modernism: Tracing Freud in Bloomsbury. Professors Erin G. Carlston and Gregory M. Flaxman.

Felipe De Brigard, Philosophy, Reconstructing Memory. Professor Jesse Prinz.

Michelle Carin DeSimone, Toxicology, In Vivo and In Vitro Models to Assess Kidney Toxicity of Environmental Carcinogens. Professor David Threadgill.

Tania A. Desrosiers, Epidemiology, Occupational Exposure to Organic Solvents Among Women During Pregnancy. Professor Andrew F. Olshan.

Michaela Ann Dinan, Health Policy and Management, The Effect of Increased Pet Imaging on the Staging, Outcomes and Health Care Utilization of Medicare Non-Small Cell Lung Cancer Patients. Professor Morris Weinberger.

Elizabeth Suzanne Dorn, Biochemistry and Biophysics, Regulatory Mechanisms That Define Precise DNA Replication Origin Utilization. Professor Jeanette Cook.

Anna E. Dow, Epidemiology, Cotrimoxazole Prophylaxis in HIV-Infected Pregnant Women and Their Infants: Associations With Parasitemia, Common Illnesses and Birth Outcomes. Professor Annelies Van Rie.

Jo Ann Dowell, Nursing, Determining Intervention Fidelity From Chronological Field Notes. Professor Linda S. Beeber.

Scott Wilson Dunn, Journalism and Mass Communication, Perceptions of Bias in a Changing Media Environment: The Hostile Media Effect for Objective and Ideological Media. Professor Anne Johnston.

Andrew Jay Edmonds, Epidemiology, The Effects of Highly Active Antiretroviral Therapy on Survival and CD4 Cell Percentage in HIV-Infected Children in Kinshasa, Democratic Republic of Congo. Professor Frieda Behets.

Jed Thomas Elison, Psychology, Orienting to Object Exploration in Infancy: Examining the Genetic Liability for Autism. Professor J. Steven Reznick.

Kirsten M. Ellingsen, Education, Deriving Developmental Code Sets from the International Classification of Functioning, Disability and Health for Children and Youth (ICF-CY). Professor Rune Simeonsson.

Winifred A. Ernst, English, John Dryden: The Old Lion of 1700. Professor Thomas A. Stumpf.

Brit K. Erslev, History, "Nearly There:" Daniel Harvey Hill, Proponent and Target of the Lost Cause. Professor Joseph T. Glatthaar.

Sarah H. Ficke, English, Pirates, Runaways and Long-Lost Princes: Race and National Identity in Transatlantic Adventure Fiction. Professor Laurie Langbauer and William Andrews.

Erin J. Friedman, Biology, The Identification and Characterization of Interactions Between the Heterotrimeric G. Protein Beta Subunit and Two Downstream Effectors. Professor Alan Jones.

David R. Gallup, Computer Science, Efficient 3D Reconstruction of Large-Scale Urban Environments From Street-Level Video. Professor Marc Pollefeys.

Kathryn Elizabeth Gardner, Biochemistry and Biophysics, Dynamic Regulation of Histone Lysine Methylation in Saccharomyces Cerevisiae. Professor Brian D. Strahl.

Stephen Timothy Gee, Cell and Developmental Biology, The Role of Yes-Associated Protein (YAP) in Vertebrate Development. Professor Sharon L. Milgram.

Rachel Ellen Goldsmith, Pathology, Detection and Mechanistic Comparison of Two Anti-Trypanosomal Diamidines in a Rat Renal Model. Professor Richard R. Tidwell.

Summer G. Goodson, Cell and Developmental Biology, An Automated Multiclass Support Vector Machines Model for the Classification of Mouse Sperm Motility Patterns and Its Application to Studies of Metabolic Requirements for Sperm Function. Professor Deborah A. O'Brien.

Andrea J. Gossett, Biology, An Open and Shut Genome: The Dynamic Relationship Between DNA Sequence, Transcription Factors and Chromatin in S. Cerevisiae. Professor Jason D. Lieb.

Adam Graham-Squire, Mathematics, Explicit Formulas for Local Formal Mellin Transforms. Professor Dima Arinkin.

Elizabeth M. Greene, Classics, Women, Children and Families in the Material Record of Roman Military Communities. Professor Werner Riess.

Matthew Justin Grey, Religious Studies, Jewish Priests and the Social History of Late Roman Palestine. Professor Jodi Magness.

Christopher M. Grulke, Pharmaceutical Sciences, Development and Extension of Cheminformatics Techniques for Integration of Diverse Data to Enhance Drug Discovery. Professor Alexander Tropsha.

Michael J. Hackett, Pharmaceutical Sciences, Paclitaxel-2'O-Pentadecylhemiglutarate: A Prodrug Strategy for Albumin-Based Drug Delivery. Professor Moo J. Cho.

Christina Lynn Hamlet, Mathematics, Mathematical Modeling, Immersed Boundary Simulation and Numerical Validation of the Fluid Flow Around the Upside Down Jellyfish, Cassiopea Xamachana. Professor Laura A. Miller.

Ghassan Badri Hamra, Epidemiology, Bayesian Methods for the Evaluation of Tritium: Relative Biological Effectiveness and Cancer Risk. Professor David Richardson.

Carolyn F. Hank, Information and Library Science, Scholars and Their Blogs: Characteristics, Preferences and Perceptions Impacting Digital Preservation. Professor Helen R. Tibbo.

Nena Rashed Harris, Nursing, Life Course Patterns and Risky Health Behaviors in Incarcerated Women. Professor Margarete Sandelowski.

Sara Beth Haviland, Sociology, Age Relations in Small and Medium-Sized Information Technology Firms. Professor Victor W. Marshall.

Abigail Alexander Haydon, Maternal and Child Health, Beyond Age at First Sex: Implications of Adolescent Sexual Patterns for Adult Sexual and Reproductive Health. Professor Carolyn Tucker Halpern.

Carie Little Hersh, Anthropology, Losing Faith in the Secular: The Politics of Faith and Knowledge at Two American Parachurches. Professor Christopher T. Nelson.

Benjamin W. Heumann, Geography, Mapping Mangrove Forests Species and Structure Using Remote Sensing. Professor Stephen J. Walsh.

Brooke E. Hoots, Epidemiology, Developing Practical Tools to Inform the Allocation of Limited HIV Resources in North Carolina. Professor William C. Miller.

Katherine Maurine Horvath, Toxicology, Cigarette Smoke Alters Influenza-Induced Immune Responses of the Respiratory Epithelium. Professor Ilona Jaspers.

Jui-hua Hsieh, Pharmaceutical Sciences, Cheminformatics Approaches to Structure-Based Virtual Screening: Methodology Development and Applications. Professor Alexander Tropsha.

Yijuan Hu, Biostatistics, Statistical Analysis of Haplotypes, Untyped SNPs, and Copy Number Variants in Genome-Wide Association Studies. Professor Danyu Lin.

Brannon D. Ingram, Religious Studies, Deobandis Abroad: Sufism, Ethics and Polemics in a Global Islamic Movement. Professor Carl W. Ernst.

Stuart R. Jefferys, Genetics and Molecular Biology, PIE: The Protein Inference Engine. Professor Morgan Giddings.

Erik Jeremy Jensen, Mathematics, Norms of Eigenfunctions to Trigonometric KZB Operators. Professor Alexander Varchenko.

Courtney Latrice Jones, Pharmaceutical Sciences, Segregation of Biological Activities of Heparan Structures. Professor Jian Liu.

Sondra Jean Smolek Jones, Sociology, Motherhood in the Context of Fragile X Syndrome: Implications for Caregiving, Work and Romantic-Partner Relationships. Professor Andrew Perrin.

Amol Madhukar Joshi, Business Administration, Entrepreneurial Discovery and Information Complexity in Knowledge-Intensive Industries. Professor Atul Nerkar.

Sungkyu Jung, Statistics and Operations Research, Asymptotics for High Dimension, Low Sample Size Data and Analysis of Data on Manifolds. Professor J. S. Marron.

Jonah W. Jurss, Chemistry, Catalytic Water Oxidation Involving Ruthenium Polypyridyl Complexes. Professors Thomas J. Meyer and Joseph L. Templeton.

Wilson R. Kaiser, Comparative Literature, Partial Affinities: Fascism and the Politics of Representation in Interwar America. Professors Federico Luisetti and Richard Cante.

Manasigan Kanchanachitra, Economics, The Sensitivity of Econometric Model Fit Under Different Distributional Shapes. Professor Donna Gilleskie.

Richard Brandon Keithley, Chemistry, Improving in Vivo Fast-Scan Cyclic Voltammetric Detection of Neuromodulators. Professor R. Mark Wightman.

Emily Marie Kelahan, Philosophy, Hume's Treatise and the Theory of Ideas. Professor Alan Nelson.

Lindsay Anne Kennedy, Psychology, Thinking About You, Worrying About Me: Self-Other Differences in Risk Perception and the Influence of Numeracy and Emotions. Professor Lawrence J. Sanna.

Amber M. King, Pharmaceutical Sciences, Synthesis and Pharmacological Evaluation of Primary Amino Acid Derivatives (PAADs): Novel Neurological Agents for the Treatment of Epilepsy and Neuropathic Pain. Professor Harold Kohn.

Jonathan M. Kropko, Political Science, New Approaches to Discrete Choice and Time Series Cross Section Methodology for Political Research. Professor George Rabinowitz.

Matthew Carey LaFave, Genetics and Molecular Biology, Detection and Analysis of Common Fragile Sites in Drosophila Melanogaster. Professor Jeff Sekelsky.

Brian Mathew Lamb, Chemistry, Modelling Cell-Extracellular Matrix Interactions: Spatial and Conformational Control of Ligand Presentation on Self-Assembled Monolayers. Professor Muhammad N. Yousaf.

Parul Laul, Mathematics, Localized Energy Estimates for the Wave Equation on High Dimensional Schwarzschild Space-Times. Professor Jason Metcalfe.

Seungjin Lee, Psychology, Children's Memories of a Stressful Dental Procedure: Stress and Individual Differences — Effects on Remembering. Professor Peter A. Ornstein.

Yu Lei, Dentistry, Biochemical and Functional Characterization of the Mitochondrial Immune Signaling Complex. Professor Jenny Ting.

Brian Irwin Leinwand, Pharmaceutical Sciences, The Cost Effectiveness of Treatments for Pediatric ADHD: The Effects of Gender and Comorbidity. Professor Richard Hansen.

Letian Lin, Applied Sciences and Engineering, Fabrication, Structure and Properties of a Single Carbon Nanotube-Based Nano-Electromechanical System. Professor Lu-Chang Qin.

THE FIRST CAROLINA DIPLOMA

In September 1796 Carolina student Davie Gillespie began working with a group of men to determine the Southern boundary of the United States. His instructors gave Gillespie a document to carry as proof that he had been a student at the University of North Carolina. The document, now in the Library of Congress, was signed by his professors and ended with the statement, "We thought it proper to give him this certificate."

The University's first graduating class in 1798 included Hinton James, the first student to enroll. Seven men received the first documents that by today's standards can be called UNC–Chapel Hill diplomas. One of the original diplomas is in the Southern Historical Collection in Wilson Library.

During the University's early years, commencement at Carolina was a time for examinations and promotions to higher classes. There was a commencement, but no degrees awarded and no graduation.

Xiaoxiao Liu, Computer Science, Shape-Correlated Statistical Modeling and Analysis for Respiratory Motion Estimation. Professor Stephen M. Pizer.

Xin Liu, Statistics and Operations Research, Diffusion Approximations for Multiscale Stochastic Networks in Heavy Traffic. Professor Amarjit Budhiraja.

Zhiwen Liu, Epidemiology, Severe Hypoglycemia, Risk of Recurrent Events and Weight Gain on Insulin Therapy in Patients With Type 1 Diabetes Mellitus. Professor Til Sturmer.

Jeongok Gang Logan, Nursing, Psychobehavioral Factors, Arterial Stiffness and Blood Pressure in Korean Americans. Professor Debra Barksdale.

Joseph Vincent Lomino, Biochemistry and Biophysics, Triggered Folding of a Mycobacterium Tuberculosis Adhesin, Heparin Binding Hemagglutinin Adhesin (HBHA). Professor Matthew R. Redinbo.

Oswaldo Alonso Lozoya, Biomedical Engineering, Surveying Roles of Mechanics in Stem Cell Biology. Professor Lola M. Reid.

Yukiko Makihara, Human Movement Science, Neural Plasticity in Spinal Pathways That Affects Association Among Three Calf Muscles in Humans. Professor Richard L. Segal.

Peter A. Malaspina, Economics, Topics in Intellectual Property. Professor Peter Norman.

Christina Valerie Malik, Journalism and Mass Communication, The Persuasive Effects of Consumer-Brand Relationships in Product and Advocacy Advertising. Professor Sri Kalyanaraman.

Mark Christopher Mans, Chemistry, Total Synthesis and Revision of the Proposed Structure of Briarellin J. Professor Michael T. Crimmins.

Tracy Leigh Marion, Toxicology, Role of Bile Acids and Compensatory Hepatic Transport Proteins in Troglitazone-Mediated Hepatotoxicity. Professor Kim L. R. Brouwer.

Elizabeth R. Matthews, Ecology, Piedmont Alluvial Vegetation: Classification, Geographic Variation and Restoration. Professors Robert K. Peet and Alan S. Weakley.

TAR HEELS

The University uses the nickname "Tar Heels," and the entire state does as well. One version of the nickname's origin has the name first being applied to North Carolinians during the Civil War. One record talks of a battle in Virginia, where their supporting column retreated, but North Carolina troops stood alone to fight successfully. The victorious troops were asked in a condescending tone by some Virginians, who had retreated, "Any more tar down in the Old North State, boys?" The response came quickly: "No, not a bit; old Jeff's bought it all up." The Virginians asked: "Is that so? What is he going to do with it?" The reply: "He is going to put it on you'ns heels to make you stick better in the next fight."

THE OLD WELL

At the heart of the campus stands the visual symbol of the University of North Carolina at Chapel Hill. For many years the Old Well served as the sole water supply for Old East and Old West dormitories. In 1897, the well was given its present decorative form at the direction of President Edwin A. Alderman, who described his beautification project as largely derived from the Temple of Love in the Garden of Versailles. In 1954, the well was given added beauty with brick walks, plantings and benches. Students can bring good luck with a drink from the Old Well on the first day of classes.

THE BELL TOWER

The Morehead–Patterson Memorial Bell Tower was given to the University in 1931 by John Motley Morehead III and Rufus Lenoir Patterson. Its 14-bell carillon rings both manually and electronically to call students to class, provide twilight music and serenade the dispersing crowd after football games. Rising 172 feet, the tower is surrounded by a hedge and lawn designed by William C. Coker, botany professor and creator of the campus Arboretum.

DEGREES WITH DISTINCTION

To graduate with distinction or with highest distinction, undergraduate students must have completed at least 45 academic hours at UNC–Chapel Hill and have an overall grade point average of at least 3.5 or 3.8, respectively.

UNDERGRADUATE HONORS PROGRAM

The Honors Program offers exceptionally well-qualified first-year students, sophomores and juniors an opportunity to take part of their general education curriculum in special honors seminars and honors sections. Honors seminars are special topics courses, limited in enrollment to 15 students and taught by outstanding members of the University faculty. Honors sections of regular departmental course offerings are also limited in enrollment and are taught by permanent members of the University faculty. Honors seminars and sections emphasize critical reading, class discussion and expository writing.

Senior departmental honors programs are provided for students who have demonstrated a very high level of scholastic ability and achievement and who desire to pursue an intensive, individualized program of study in their major discipline. Honors studies ordinarily consist of one or more of the following: the preparation of an honors thesis or essay, an independent research or reading program, an artistic performance or exhibition, or the completion of advanced course work in the major not normally required of students in that major. It is on the basis of participation in senior honors that a student may be graduated from the University "with Honors" or "with Highest Honors."

SUNDAY, DECEMBER EIGHTEENTH
TWO THOUSAND ELEVEN

MESSAGE FROM THE CHANCELLOR

Dear Graduates and Families:

Welcome to December 2011 Commencement. Congratulations and welcome to the ranks of Tar Heel alumni. To all the family members and friends who supported you, I offer thanks on behalf of Carolina's faculty and staff.

The world has changed a lot since you entered UNC and you can expect that trend to continue. While many people still think of college years as a time of preparation, in reality you are already part of the world you live in. You've studied in places far from home and reached out to the local community. You've learned that this is an interconnected world drawn closer together through new technologies.

I am confident in the education you've undertaken at Carolina. I know that you will go out into the world and make a difference, as countless other Tar Heels have done before you.

Carolina and Chapel Hill will be here for you. No matter where you go, you can count on our love and support. We can't wait to hear from you.

H. Holden Thorp

INSIDE BACK COVER Commencement Committee

ALMA MATER

The words of "Hark the Sound," UNC–Chapel Hill's alma mater, were written in 1897 by William Starr Myers, a graduating senior. The Glee Club director asked Myers to put words to the tune "Amici," and the song was first performed on June 2, 1897, as part of the Glee Club's Commencement performance in Gerrard Hall.

Soon the song was almost forgotten. When a University quartet tried a few years later to remember the words, they could recollect only the first verse and the chorus of Myers' original version. Two members of the quartet, Charles S. Mangum and Charles T. Woollen, added two verses to the one they remembered. Mangum later became a professor in the School of Medicine, and Woollen worked as the University's business manager and comptroller.

HARK THE SOUND

Hark, the sound of Tar Heel voices
Ringing clear and true,
Singing Carolina's praises,
Shouting N.C.U.!

Hail to the brightest star of all!
Clear its radiance shine!
Carolina, priceless gem,
Receive all praises thine.

FOR YOUR INFORMATION

If you have any questions regarding Commencement activities, or in the event of an emergency, please contact an usher.

Captioning will be provided during the ceremony. A student marshal or Disability Services staff member can advise persons with hearing impairments about seating from which to view the screen.

This Commencement program is printed prior to administering final examinations. Therefore, including degree candidates' names in this program does not represent certification that candidates have satisfactorily completed degree requirements.

All diplomas will be printed after Commencement and mailed to graduates. Every effort has been made to ensure the accuracy of this program's content. Any omissions or errors are unintentional.

CAROLINA ANNUAL FUND AND 2011 SENIOR CAMPAIGN

Congratulations, graduates! There is no doubt that your experience at Carolina has included unparalleled opportunities and that your degree will open many doors for you in the future.

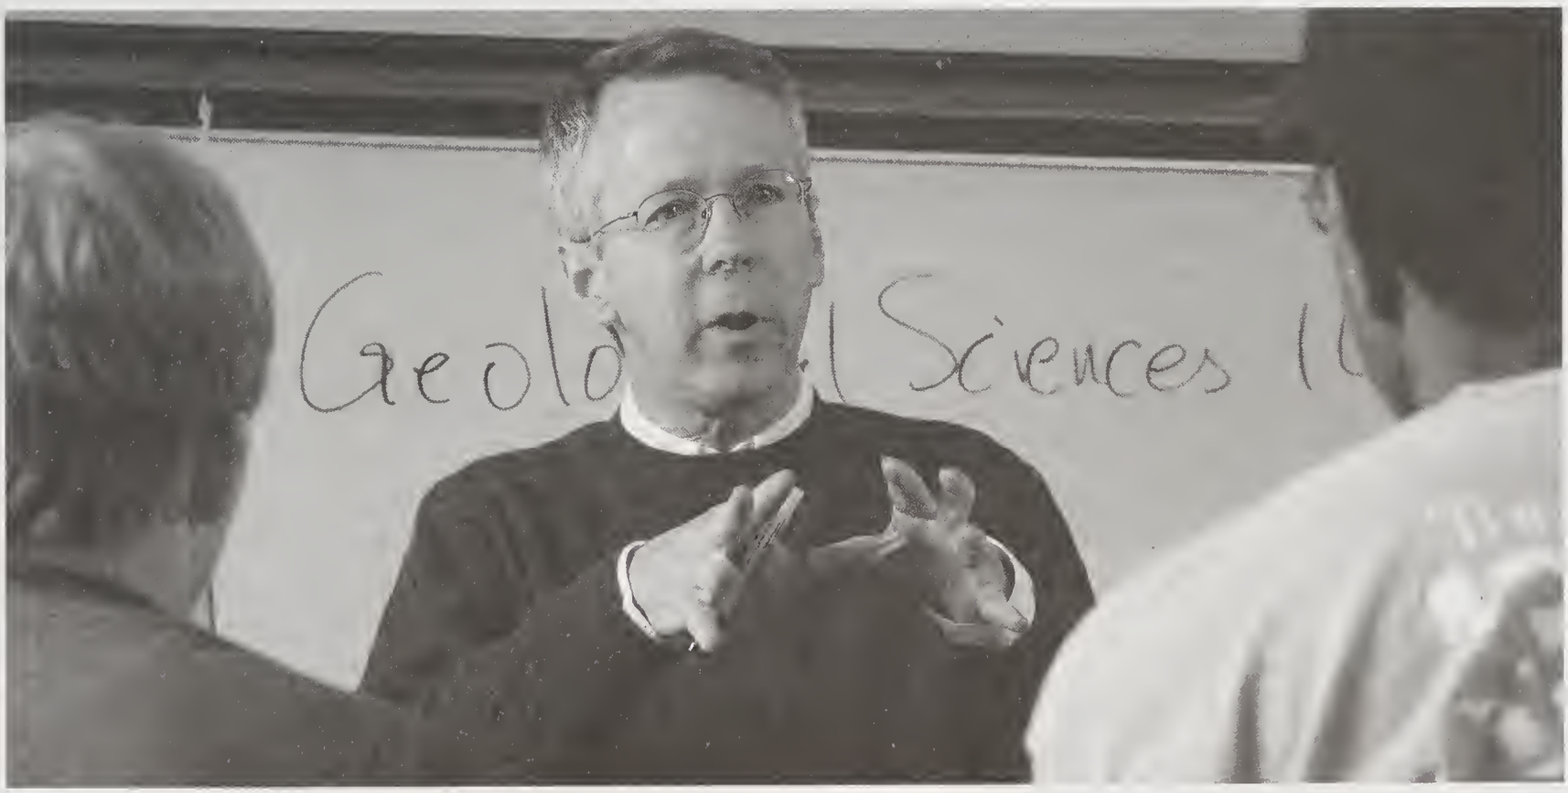
As Carolina students, you have been touched every day by private gifts to Carolina that maintain and enhance the University's tradition of excellence. Annual gifts improve the lives of students, faculty and staff. From scholarships to new research buildings and equipment, to access to incredible performances at Memorial Hall, to more than 6 million volumes in the libraries across campus, private gifts have impacted every aspect of campus life.

You're invited to support UNC–Chapel Hill through the Senior Campaign. You can make a gift to any part of the University that is meaningful to you — your major, a professorship, a student organization, scholarships and student aid, or campuswide programs. Or, to make an immediate difference where it is needed the most, consider supporting the Chancellor's Unrestricted Fund.

All gifts are included in the Senior Campaign and Annual Fund. Thank you to those who have already made your gift. Give online at annualfund.unc.edu/gift or by mail to P.O. Box 309, Chapel Hill, N.C. 27514-0309. For more information about the 2011 Senior Campaign, visit annualfund.unc.edu/students.

WELCOME YOUNG ALUMNI!

As you transition from students to alumni, we encourage you to keep up with young alumni events and Carolina news through the Carolina Annual Fund young alumni Facebook page (facebook.com/UNCYoungAlumni) and Twitter page (@UNCYoungAlumni). Through our social media efforts you can connect with fellow recent Carolina graduates in your area, participate in local events and social activities, and help Carolina stay strong by advocating philanthropy and support for the University among your peers. For more information about young alumni programs, visit youngalumni.unc.edu.



HOLDEN THORP
Chancellor

At Carolina, Holden Thorp has been an undergraduate student, a chemistry professor, a planetarium director, an inventor and entrepreneur, as well as a dean. He graduated with honors, won teaching awards, chaired a powerhouse chemistry department, developed technology for electronic DNA chips, founded spin-off companies, and succeeded as an administrator.

As the 10th chancellor, Thorp draws from those experiences in leading Carolina, one of the world's great research universities.

A North Carolina native, Thorp grew up in Fayetteville in a family steeped in UNC traditions dating to the 1800s. When he graduated from Terry Sanford High School, only one college was on his application list — Carolina, where he earned a bachelor of science degree with honors in 1986.

Attending a world-class research university — where research and teaching are done by the same people — allowed Thorp to work in chemistry labs with top faculty and inspired him to become a professor. He pursued that dream at the California Institute of Technology, where he earned a doctorate in chemistry in 1989, and at Yale University for postgraduate work. After teaching a year at NC State, he returned in 1993 to UNC, where he was dean of the College of Arts and Sciences and chair of the chemistry department before becoming chancellor in 2008.

Because he has lived it from both sides of the classroom, Thorp is passionate about the undergraduate experience. "Carolina is perfectly suited to leverage our students' interests in the great problems facing our world to enhance their academic success," he says.

The University's future depends on aspiring to global academic excellence and serving the needs of North Carolina's students and people. "We're the university of both-and: Both academic prominence and a commitment to our state," Thorp says.

Under Thorp, Carolina seeks to raise $125 million in private gifts to implement "Innovate@Carolina: Important Ideas for a Better World," a roadmap developed by alumni and friends experienced in leading innovation in science, business, medicine, nonprofits and academia. One result is UNC's role in a consortium created by a $3.6 million gift from the Blackstone Charitable Foundation to help the Research Triangle develop a network of entrepreneurial assistance similar to those in Silicon Valley and the Boston Corridor. Partners include Duke, NC State, NC Central and the Center for Entrepreneurial Development. The network has the potential over a decade to create jobs, attract seed, startup and expansion capital, and generate revenue.

Thorp is a member of President Obama's National Advisory Council on Innovation and Entrepreneurship. As a result, the University hosted the council's first national forum in Chapel Hill. Thorp co-authored "Engines of Innovation — The Entrepreneurial University in the 21st Century," a UNC Press book that makes the case for the pivotal role of research universities as agents of societal change. Royalties support innovation at UNC.

Thorp serves on the U.S. Manufacturing Competitiveness Initiative for the Council on Competitiveness. He has published 130 scholarly articles on the electronic properties of DNA and RNA and co-founded Viamet Pharmaceutials in Morrisville, which is developing drugs for fungal infections and prostate cancer.

The chancellor also is a member of a national Commission on Higher Education Attainment, which was created by the six presidentially based higher education associations to chart a course for greatly improving college retention and attainment and, in turn, restore the nation's higher education preeminence.

An accomplished musician who plays jazz bass and keyboard, Thorp is married to Patti Worden Thorp, a Hope Mills native and UNC Greensboro graduate. Their children are John and Emma.

BARBARA FREDRICKSON
Commencement Speaker

Barbara Fredrickson is an internationally acclaimed psychology professor who studies positive emotions and human wellbeing. As Kenan Distinguished Professor of Psychology at UNC–Chapel Hill and director of UNC's positive emotions and psychophysiology lab, she studies how positive emotions affect people's thinking patterns, social behavior and physiological reactions. Her goal is to understand how positive emotions might accumulate and compound to transform people's lives for the better.

Fredrickson received her Ph.D. from Stanford University in 1990. Her research and teaching have been recognized with honors that include the 2000 American Psychological Association's Templeton Prize in Positive Psychology. The National Institute of Mental Health has consistently funded her research. She also directs the social psychology doctoral program and is an adjunct management professor at UNC's Kenan–Flagler Business School.

Her 2009 book, "Positivity," cites tools for creating a healthier, more vibrant and flourishing life. "I hope to convey to our graduates that beyond all the direct knowledge they gained here at Carolina – the math, the social and natural sciences, the arts and humanities, the professional skills – they'll also carry forward with them many indirect lessons," she said.

While at Carolina, Fredrickson said, students grow through the curiosity and enthusiasm shared in classrooms, the pride shared in arts venues and sports arenas, and the comfort they give each other during trying times. The experiences make them more resilient, resourceful, caring and compassionate, she said.

"Continuing to develop these skills – for truly connecting with others, with the warmth of good cheer and goodwill – is vital for continued health, happiness and success in the exciting and challenging decades to come."

DEGREES AND CERTIFICATES

UNDERGRADUATE CERTIFICATES

Certificate in Community Preparedness and Disaster Management
Certificate in Cytotechnology
Certificate in Dental Hygiene
Certificate in Radiography
Certificate in Sports Communication

UNDERGRADUATE DEGREES

Bachelor of Arts with a major in:
African and Afro-American Studies; American Studies; Anthropology; Archaeology; Art History; Asian Studies; Biology; Chemistry; Classics; Communication Studies; Comparative Literature; Contemporary European Studies; Dramatic Art; Economics; English; Environmental Studies; Exercise and Sport Science; Geography; Geological Sciences; German; Germanic and Slavic Languages and Literatures; Global Studies; History; Interdisciplinary Studies; Latin American Studies; Linguistics; Management and Society; Mathematics; Music; Peace, War and Defense; Philosophy; Physics; Political Science; Psychology; Public Policy; Religious Studies; Romance Languages; Sociology; Studio Art; Women's Studies

Bachelor of Arts in Education with a major in:
Child Development and Family Studies; Elementary Education; Middle Grades Education

Bachelor of Arts in Journalism and Mass Communication
Bachelor of Fine Arts
Bachelor of Music

Applied Science; Biology; Chemistry; Clinical Laboratory Science; Computer Science; Dental Hygiene; Environmental Sciences; Geological Sciences; Human Biology; Mathematical Decision Sciences; Mathematics; Physics; Psychology; Radiologic Science

Bachelor of Science in Business Administration
Bachelor of Science in Information Science
Bachelor of Science in Nursing
Bachelor of Science in Pharmaceutical Sciences

Bachelor of Science in Public Health with a major in:
Biostatistics; Environmental Health Sciences; Health Policy and Management; Nutrition

POSTBACCALAUREATE AND POST-MASTER'S CERTIFICATES

Postbaccalaureate Certificate in Business Journalism
Postbaccalaureate Certificate in Core Public Health Concepts
Postbaccalaureate Certificate in Field Epidemiology
Postbaccalaureate Certificate in Global Health
Postbaccalaureate Certificate in Maternal and Child Health Leadership
Postbaccalaureate Certificate in Occupational Health Nursing Specialty
Postbaccalaureate Certificate in Radiologist Assistant
Postbaccalaureate Certificate in Technology and Communication
Post-Master's Certificate in Information and Library Science
Post-Master's Certificate in Public Health Leadership

GRADUATE DEGREES

Master of Accounting
Master of Arts in the discipline of:
Anthropology; Art History; Biology; Chemistry; Classics; Communication Studies; Comparative Literature; Ecology; Education; English; Exercise and Sport Science; Folklore; Geography; Geological Sciences; Germanic Languages; German Studies; History; Linguistics; Mass Communication; Mathematics; Musicology; Philosophy; Political Science; Psychology; Religious Studies; Romance Languages and Literatures; Russian and East European Studies; School Psychology; Slavic Languages and Literatures; Sociology; Technology and Communication
Master of Arts in Teaching
Master of Business Administration
Master of City and Regional Planning
Master of Education in the discipline of:
Education; School Counseling; School Psychology
Master of Fine Arts in the discipline of:
Dramatic Art; Studio Art
Master of Healthcare Administration
Master of Molecular Diagnostic Science
Master of Physical Therapy
Master of Public Administration
Master of Public Health in the discipline of:
Biostatistics; Environmental Sciences and Engineering; Epidemiology; Health Behavior and Health Education; Health Policy and Management; Maternal and Child Health; Nutrition; Public Health Leadership
Master of Radiologic Science
Master of School Administration
Master of Science in the discipline of:
Biochemistry and Biophysics; Biology; Biomedical Engineering; Biostatistics; Cell and Developmental Biology; Cell and Molecular Physiology; Chemistry; Computer Science; Dental Hygiene Education; Ecology; Economics; Endodontics; Environmental Sciences and Engineering; Genetics and Molecular Biology; Geological Sciences; Human Movement Science; Marine Sciences; Materials Science; Mathematics; Microbiology and Immunology; Neurobiology; Nutrition; Occupational Therapy; Operative Dentistry; Oral and Maxillofacial Pathology; Oral and Maxillofacial Radiology; Oral and Maxillofacial Surgery; Oral Biology; Orthodontics; Pathology; Pediatric Dentistry; Periodontology; Pharmaceutical Sciences; Pharmacology; Physics; Prosthodontics; Public Health Nursing; Rehabilitation Counseling and Psychology; Speech and Hearing Sciences; Statistics and Operations Research; Toxicology
Master of Science in Clinical Research
Master of Science in Disaster Management
Master of Science in Environmental Sciences and Engineering
Master of Science in Information Science
Master of Science in Library Science
Master of Science in Nursing
Master of Science in Public Health in the discipline of:
Biostatistics; Environmental Sciences and Engineering; Epidemiology; Health Behavior and Health Education; Health Policy and Management; Maternal and Child Health
Master of Science in Recreation Administration
Master of Social Work
Doctor of Philosophy in the discipline of:
Anthropology; Art History; Biochemistry and Biophysics; Bioinformatics and Computational Biology; Biology; Biomedical Engineering; Biostatistics; Business Administration; Cell and Developmental Biology; Cell and Molecular Physiology; Chemistry; City and Regional Planning; Classics; Communication Studies; Comparative Literature; Computer Science; Ecology; Economics; Education; English; Environmental Sciences and Engineering; Epidemiology; Genetics and Molecular Biology; Geography; Geological Sciences; Germanic Languages; German Studies; Health Behavior and Health Education; Health Policy and Management; History; Human Movement Science; Information and Library Science; Marine Sciences; Mass Communication; Materials Science; Maternal and Child Health; Mathematics; Microbiology and Immunology; Musicology; Neurobiology; Nursing; Nutrition; Occupational Science; Oral Biology; Pathology; Pharmaceutical Sciences; Pharmacology; Philosophy; Physics; Political Science; Psychology; Public Policy; Religious Studies; Romance Languages and Literatures; School Psychology; Social Work; Sociology; Speech and Hearing Sciences; Statistics and Operations Research; Toxicology
Doctor of Public Health in the discipline of:
Biostatistics; Health Behavior and Health Education; Health Policy and Management; Maternal and Child Health; Nutrition

PROFESSIONAL DEGREES

Doctor of Audiology
Doctor of Dental Surgery
Doctor of Education in the discipline of:
Curriculum and Instruction; Educational Leadership
Doctor of Medicine
Doctor of Pharmacy
Doctor of Physical Therapy
Juris Doctor

CANDIDATES FOR GRADUATE DEGREES
December 2011

Degree candidates' names are followed by their area of major study, dissertation or project title and the name of their doctoral advisor.

The Graduate School
ESTABLISHED 1903
Dean Steven W. Matson

DOCTOR OF PHILOSOPHY

Mustafa Aykut Attar, Economics, Entrepreneurship, Knowledge and the Industrial Revolution. Professor Lutz Hendricks.

Brad Barlow, Physics and Astronomy, Time-Domain Studies of Hot Subdwarf Stars. Professor J. Christopher Clemens.

Gregory Ronald Boyce, Chemistry, Vinylogous Michael Cascade Reactions Employing Silyl Glyoxylates and Silyl Glyoximides. Professors Jeffrey S. Johnson and Marcey L. Waters.

Grant David Bollmer, Communication Studies, Disconnection Notices: Networks and Power at the Intersection of Technology, Biology and Finance. Professor Sarah Sharma.

Bjorn Bernhard Brandenburg, Computer Science, Scheduling and Locking in Multiprocessor Real-Time Operating Systems. Professor James H. Anderson.

Cheryl Allen Brewer, Nursing, Factors That Influence Health-Related Quality of Life in Adolescents With Sickle Cell Disease. Professor Marcia Van Riper.

Laura Brewington, Geography, The Politics of Invasion: Defining and Defending the Natural, Native and Legal in the Galapagos Islands of Ecuador. Professor Stephen J. Walsh.

David Lawrence Buehler, Economics, Enlargement of Preferential Trade Areas: Essays on Trade Displacement. Professor Alfred Field.

John Michael Cesaratto, Physics and Astronomy, Resonant Proton Capture on 23Na and Elemental Variations in Globular Cluster Stars. Professor Arthur E. Champagne.

Anish Chandak, Computer Science, Efficient Geometric Sound Propagation Using Visibility Culling. Professor Dinesh Manocha.

Kwangbom Choi, Computer Science, Weighted Graph Matching Approaches to Structure Comparison and Alignment and Their Application to Biological Problems. Professors Shawn Gomez and Jan Prins.

Hilary V. Clegg, Genetics and Molecular Biology, Identification and Characterization of Two Potential Novel Regulators of Apoptosis, MAGE-D2 and SUMI-1. Professor Yanping Zhang.

Adam Scott Cockrell, Genetics and Molecular Biology, Insights Into the Mechanisms of HIV-1 CIS Elements and Trans Factors Required for RNA Encapsidation and Transduction. Professor Tal Kafri.

Amelia A. Cohen, Physics and Astronomy, A Computational Model to Investigate the Influence of V1 Cell Properties and Topographic Organization on V2 Response to Illusory Contours, With Applications in the Study of Cortical Injuries in the Primary Visual Cortex. Professor Paul Tiesinga.

William C. Comb, Genetics and Molecular Biology, Examining Novel Roles for IkappaB Kinase in Coordinating the Cellular Response to Metabolic Stress. Professor Albert S. Baldwin.

Jonathan Daw, Sociology, Social Inequalities in the Kidney Transplantation System. Professor Ted Mouw.

Janette Dill, Sociology, Jobs or Careers? Mobility Among Low-Wage Workers in Healthcare Organizations. Professors Victor Marshall and Phillip Cohen.

John Charles Duffy, Religious Studies, Conservative Pluralists: The Cultural Politics of Mormon-Evangelical Dialogue in the United States at the Turn of the 21st Century. Professor Laurie F. Maffly-Kipp.

THE FIRST CAROLINA DIPLOMA

In September 1796 Carolina student Davie Gillespie began working with a group of men to determine the Southern boundary of the United States. His instructors gave Gillespie a document to carry as proof that he had been a student at the University of North Carolina. The document, now in the Library of Congress, was signed by his professors and ended with the statement, "We thought it proper to give him this certificate."

The University's first graduating class in 1798 included Hinton James, the first student to enroll. Seven men received the first documents that by today's standards can be called UNC–Chapel Hill diplomas. One of the original diplomas is in the Southern Historical Collection in Wilson Library.

During the University's early years, commencement at Carolina was a time for examinations and promotions to higher classes. There was a commencement, but no degrees awarded and no graduation.

Gregory P. Dusek, Marine Sciences, Daily to Yearly Variations in Rip Current Activity Over Kilometer Scales. Professor Harvey Seim.

Laura Farnan, Biostatistics, Estimation and Testing of Parameters Under Constraints for Correlated Data. Professors Shyamal D. Peddada and Anastasia Ivanova.

Joao Ferreira, Oral Biology, Engineering Hydroxyapatite-Gelatin Nanocomposites with MAPC Cells for Calvarium Bone Regeneration. Professor Ching-Chang Ko.

Jennifer P. Flaherty, Comparative Literature, Chronicles of Our Time: Feminism and Postcolonialism in Appropriations of Shakespeare's Plays. Professor Jessica Wolfe.

Octavia Lynne Flanagan, Nursing, Cardiovascular Disease Prevention in Women Prisoners: The Stay Fit and Healthy Intervention. Professor Catherine I. Fogel.

Stephanie M. Freer, Genetics and Molecular Biology, Regulation and Function of Drosophila Single-Minded in the Postembryonic Brain. Professor Stephen Crews.

Christopher Fuhrmann, Geography, A Trajectory Approach to Analyzing the Ingredients Associated with Heavy Winter Storms in Central North Carolina. Professor Charles E. Konrad II.

Margaret Clinard Gillis, Education, Birth–Kindergarten Licensure Graduates' Perceptions of Their Current Practices and Pre-Service Preparation Relative to Individualization Strategies for Young Children. Professors Harriet Able and Sharon Palsha.

Paul Giresi, Biology, Chromatin Profiles of Human Cells in Healthy and Human Disease. Professor Jason D. Lieb.

Adam Payne Goode, Epidemiology, Lumbar Spine Individual Radiographic Features and Osteoarthritis Biomarkers. Professor Stephen Marshall.

THE CHANCELLOR'S MEDAL

The chancellor's medal, an emblem of the office of chancellor, is worn during the University's ceremonial occasions. The sterling silver disk, which is three inches in diameter and seven ounces Troy weight, was given to the University by John Sanders, professor emeritus and former director of the UNC Institute of Government, and his wife, Ann Beal Sanders. Modeled by sculptor Pete Hinton and bearing the University seal, it was first worn by Chancellor Paul Hardin during the 1994 University Day convocation.

Sean Gregory, Microbiology and Immunology, Characterization of the Relationship Between KSHV and the Host Immune Response. Professor Blossom Damania.

Jennifer Beth Griffin, Epidemiology, The Effects of Malaria in Pregnancy on Utero- and Fetoplacental Blood Flow and Fetal Growth: A Longitudinal Doppler Ultrasound Study From Kinshasa, Democratic Republic of Congo. Professor Steven Meshnick.

Virginia Thompson Guidry, Epidemiology, Acute Respiratory Health in Students Attending Middle Schools Near Concentrated Animal Feeding Operations. Professor Steve Wing.

Anne Marie Hakenewerth, Epidemiology, Joint Effects of Alcohol Consumption and Polymorphisms in Alcohol and Oxidative Stress Metabolism Genes on Risk and Survival From Head and Neck Cancer. Professor Andrew F. Olshan.

Samantha Hammond, Physics and Astronomy, Dipole Response of 238U to Polarized Photons Below the Neutron-Separation Energy. Professor Hugon Karwowski.

Woodrow Neal Hartzog, Journalism and Mass Communication, Taken in Context: An Examination of Judicial Determinations Regarding Implied Obligations of Confidentiality. Professor Cathy Packer.

Bo He, Pharmaceutical Sciences, Gene Delivery of Mg53 for Muscle Membrane Repair Attenuates Congestive Heart Failure and Muscular Dystrophy. Professors Xiao Xiao and Leaf Huang.

Barron Halton Henderson, Environmental Sciences and Engineering, Biased Ozone Precursors in the Upper Troposphere: Evaluation, Recommendations and Implications. Professor William Vizuete.

Pamela Rose Hesker, Genetics and Molecular Biology, Defining the Function of Pyrin, the Familial Mediterranean Fever-Associated Protein, in Inflammation. Professor Beverly H. Koller.

Caroline Mesrobian Hickman, Art (Art History), Clare Leighton's Wood Engravings of English Country Life Between the Wars. Professor Arthur Marks.

Dominique Hoffman, Slavic Languages and Literatures, Without Nostalgia: Nina Berberova's Short Fiction of the 1930s. Professor Madeline G. Levine.

Seth H. Hopper, Physics and Astronomy, The Gravitational Field Produced By Extreme-Mass-Ratio Orbits on Schwarzschild Spacetime. Professor Charles Evans.

Zhaowei Hua, Biostatistics, Bayesian Analysis of Varying Coefficient Models and Applications. Professors Hongtu Zhu and David B. Dunson.

Hanwen Huang, Statistics and Operations Research, Some Contributions to High Dimensional Statistical Learning. Professors J.S. Marron and Yufeng Liu.

Michael Kenneth Huner, History, Sacred Cause, Divine Republic: A History of Nationhood, Religion and War in 19th-Century Paraguay, 1850–1870. Professor John Charles Chasteen.

Sarah C. Jackson, Biochemistry and Biophysics, Genetic Analysis of VprBP in Mice. Professor Yue Xiong.

Brian C. Jenkins, Economics, The Bank Lending Channel of Monetary Policy Transmission When Banks Are Risk Averse. Professor Michael K. Salemi.

Amy Rose Johnson, Nutrition, Determining the Role of Choline Dehydrogenase in Sperm Function. Professor Steven H. Zeisel.

Lance Allen Johnson, Pathology, Apolipoprotein E in Diabetic Dyslipidemia and Atherosclerosis. Professor Nobuyo Maeda.

Michael D. L. Johnson, Biochemistry and Biophysics, The Effect of Calcium Binding on Adhesion and Pilus Biogenesis in the PilC Family of Proteins. Professor Matthew Redinbo.

Tamara Margaret Johnson, Geography, Emotive Creation and Embodied Negotiations of Territory, Belonging and the Right to the City in Cape Town, South Africa. Professor Altha Cravey.

Mahita Kadmiel, Cell and Molecular Physiology, Role of Receptor Activity Modifying Protein-2 (RAMP2) in Endocrine Physiology of Female Mice. Professor Kathleen M. Caron.

Michelle Kanther, Genetics and Molecular Biology, Innate Immune Responses to the Commensal Microbiota in Zebrafish. Professor John F. Rawls.

Young Un Kim, Business Administration, Speed of CEO Dismissal: An Attribution-Based Model of When Boards of Directors Fire CEOs in Response to Performance Downturn. Professor Hugh O'Neill.

Noel Kulik, Health Behavior and Health Education, Social Support and Weight Loss Among Adolescent Females. Professor Deborah F. Tate.

Heather Lasseter, Psychology, Involvement of a Mesocorticolimbic Subcircuit in the Reinstatement of Drug Context-Induced Cocaine Seeking in Rats. Professor Rita A. Fuchs.

Anthony Brian Law, Biochemistry and Biophysics, Modulation of PDZ Domain Binding by ps-ns Side-Chain Dynamics. Professor Andrew Lee.

Jin Hyup Lee, Biochemistry and Biophysics, Circadian Clock Disruption Improves the Efficacy of Chemotherapy Through P73-Mediated Apoptosis. Professor Aziz Sancar.

Emily Geyer Lowery-Gionta, Psychology, The Role of Corticotropin-Releasing Factor in Binge-Like Ethanol Consumption. Professor Todd Thiele.

Jennifer Leigh Lund, Epidemiology, The Validity of Administrative Data and Patterns of Chemotherapy Use Among Elderly Colorectal Cancer Patients. Professor Til Sturmer.

Vidya Mani, Cell and Developmental Biology, Detection and Characterization of an Embryonic Stem Cell Specific MicroRNA. Professor Scott M. Hammond.

Matthew Thomas Martin, Environmental Sciences and Engineering, Using High Throughput Screening for Predictive Modeling of Reproductive Toxicity. Professors David J. Dix and Ivan Rusyn.

Rebecca A. Matteo, Sociology, The Economic Consequences of Post-Traumatic Stress Disorder in Clients of Veterans Affairs Canada. Professor Victor W. Marshall.

Jeanine M. Matuszewski, Biostatistics, Properties of an R2 Statistic for Fixed Effects in the Linear Mixed Model for Longitudinal Data. Professor Lloyd J. Edwards.

Allison Beth McMullen, Pharmacology, Cellular, Histological and Behavioral Changes in the Pathogenesis of Hydrocephalus in the Ro1 Mouse Model. Professor Ken D. McCarthy.

Brian Peter Mehl, Chemistry, Investigation of Optical Cavity Modes and Ultrafast Carrier Dynamics in ZnO Rods Using Second-Harmonic Generation and Transient Absorption Pump-Probe Microscopy. Professor John M. Papanikolas.

Jane Messina, Geography, Disease Ecology in the Democratic Republic of the Congo: Integration of Spatial Analysis and Population Surveillance. Professor Michael Emch.

Daniel W. Moore, Classics, Earthen Architecture and Technological Change at Poggio Civitate. Professor G. Kenneth Sams.

Brittany Lynne Mortensen, Microbiology and Immunology, Mechanisms of Francisella Tularensis Virulence as Revealed by RipA and IcIR. Professor Thomas Kawula.

Michael J. Mulvey, History, Sheltering French Families: Parisian Suburbia and the Politics of Housing, 1939–1975. Professors Donald Reid and Lloyd Kramer.

Grant Sterling Murphy, Chemistry, Exploring Protein Backbone Designability: The Computational Redesign and De Novo Design of Helix Bundle Proteins. Professor Brian Kuhlman.

Ijlal H. Naqvi, Sociology, Access to Power: Governance and Development in the Pakistani Electrical Power Sector. Professor Charles Kurzman.

Rahul Narain, Computer Science, Visual Simulation of Multiscale Phenomena. Professor Ming C. Lin.

Scott Ernest Nelson, Romance Languages, Delusional Thought in Luigi Pirandello's Sei Personaggi in Cerca D'Autore. Professor Federico Luisetti.

Nathan Christopher Nickel, Maternal and Child Health, Breastfeeding Friendly Healthcare: A Mixed Methods Evaluation of the Implementation and Outcomes of Maternity Practices to Support Breastfeeding. Professor Miriam H. Labbok.

Emily Leonard Parks, Psychology, Isolating Involuntary Attentional Hold: A Study of Distraction. Professor Joseph B. Hopfinger.

Sheetal Janak Patel, Journalism and Mass Communication, To Help or Not to Help: The Effects of Affective Expectancies on Reactions to Prosocial Persuasive Messages. Professor Sriram Kalyanaraman.

Carol L. Perryman, Information and Library Science, The Sense-Making Practices of Hospital Librarians. Professor Joanne Gard Marshall.

Benjamin Joseph Privett, Chemistry, Sol-Gel-Derived Materials for Antimicrobial Coatings and Electrochemical Nitric Oxide Analysis. Professor Robert M. Wightman.

Nathan Freeman Putman, Biology, Oceanographic and Geomagnetic Influences on Sea Turtle Migrations. Professor Kenneth J. Lohmann.

TAR HEELS

The University uses the nickname "Tar Heels," and the entire state does as well. One version of the nickname's origin has the name first being applied to North Carolinians during the Civil War. One record talks of a battle in Virginia, where their supporting column retreated, but North Carolina troops stood alone to fight successfully. The victorious troops were asked in a condescending tone by some Virginians, who had retreated, "Any more tar down in the Old North State, boys?" The response came quickly: "No, not a bit; old Jeff's bought it all up." The Virginians asked: "Is that so? What is he going to do with it?" The reply: "He is going to put it on you'ns heels to make you stick better in the next fight."

Kathleen Evelyn Rands, Education, Affirming Difference, Generating Problems and Becoming Democratic in Mathematics Education. Professor Lynda Stone.

Deepti Rao, Cell and Molecular Physiology, Neuromodulation of Intrinsic and Synaptic Plasticity in Auditory Cortex. Professor Paul B. Manis.

Daniel A. Riccio, Chemistry, S-Nitrosothiol-Derived Nitric Oxide Delivery Vehicles: Synthesis and Detection. Professors Mark H. Schoenfisch and James W. Jorgenson.

Jessica E. Rodriguez, Pathology, Muscle Ring Finger-1 (MuRF1) Inhibits PPAR-Alpha Activity to Modulate Cardiac Metabolism. Professor Monte S. Willis.

Rajarshi Saha, Physics and Astronomy, The Role of Sea Ice in Thermohaline Oscillations. Professors Christopher Jones and John Bane.

Rupninder Sandhu, Pathology, Hypermethylator Phenotype in Human Breast Cancer: Therapeutic Target and Mechanism of DNMT3B Regulation. Professor William B. Coleman.

Keith Schneider, Mathematics, On The Combinatorics of Minimal Non-Gatherable Triples in Classical Affine Weyl Groups. Professor Ivan Cherednik.

Hee Young Seok, Cell and Developmental Biology, Regulation of Cardiac Development by RNA Helicase and MicroRNAs. Professor Da-Zhi Wang.

Autumn Starr Shafer, Journalism and Mass Communication, Sixteen and Pregnant: Examining the Role of Transportation and Persuasive Intent in the Effects of an Entertainment-Education Narrative. Professor Jane D. Brown.

Christopher B. Stringer, Physics and Astronomy, Chemical Tagging of Solar Neighborhood Kinematic Streams. Professor Bruce W. Carney.

Jeffrey Alan Summerlin-Long, Public Policy, The Response of Legal Aid Communities to Dynamic Political and Policy Environments. Professor Daniel P. Gitterman.

Samantha L. Szczur, Communication Studies, Office Space: Governmentality, the Corporate Campus and Subject Position. Professor Steven K. May.

Ya-Wen Teng, Nutrition, The Metabolic Consequences of Mouse Betaine Homocysteine S-Methyltransferase Deficiency. Professor Steven H. Zeisel.

Russell E. Triplett, Economics, Protection for Sale With Natural Barriers to Trade. Professor Patrick Conway.

Sarah Fehr Vierra, History, At Home in Almanya: Turkish-German Spaces of Belonging in the Federal Republic of Germany, 1961–1990. Professor Konrad H. Jarausch.

Ting Wang, Geological Sciences, Paleoclimate Reconstruction in Northwest Scotland and Southwest Florida During the Late Holocene. Professor Donna M. Surge.

Nora Baker Warshawsky, Nursing, The Influence of Interpersonal Relationships on Nurse Managers' Work Engagement and Proactive Work Behavior. Professor Donna S. Havens.

Emily Hoch Weaver, Health Policy and Management, Contraceptive Practice in Indonesia: Did the Village Midwife Program Make a Difference? Professors Bruce J. Fried and Elizabeth Frankenberg.

THE BICENTENNIAL STAFF

The faculty marshal carries the bicentennial staff while leading the faculty processional on ceremonial occasions such as Commencement and University Day. The staff, commissioned for the University's 1993 bicentennial celebration by John Sanders, professor emeritus and former director of the UNC Institute of Government, and his wife, Ann Beal Sanders, was modeled by sculptor Pete Hinton. It consists of a sterling silver three-inch-high replica of the Old Well mounted on a turned and tapered oak shaft. The shaft was made from timber salvaged from the 1822 section of Old West residence hall during its 1991–1993 renovation.

Tracy Dearth Wesley, Nutrition, Comparison of Dietary and Physical Activity Behaviors and Their Associations With Body Mass Index in Chinese Mothers and Children. Professor Barry Popkin.

Anja Wieden, Germanic Languages, Female Experiences of Rape and Hunger in Postwar German Literature, 1945–1960. Professor Richard Langston.

Traci Wike, Social Work, The Effectiveness of a Social Skills Intervention for Preventing Agression in Children: An Evaluation of the Making Choices Intervention. Professor Mark W. Fraser.

David Wiley, Biology, BMP Signaling Functions as a Distinct Pro-Angiogenic Cue. Professors Victoria L. Bautch and Suk-Won Jin.

Dale J. Wilger, Chemistry, Position-Dependent Energy Transfer Between Ruthenium(II) and Osmium(II) Modified Coiled-Coil Alpha-Helical Peptides and Oligoproline Recognition by a Beta-Hairpin Peptide. Professor Marcey L. Waters.

Baowei Xu, Statistics and Operations Research, Option Pricing in Random Field Models With Stochastic Volatility for the Term Structure of Interest Rates. Professor Chuanshu Ji.

Liying Zhang, Pharmaceutical Sciences, Development and Application of Cheminformatics Approaches to Facilitate Drug Discovery and Environmental Toxicity Assessment. Professor Alexander Tropsha.

Ruiwen Zhang, Statistics and Operations Research, A Statistical Approach to Functional Connectivity Involving Multichannel Neural Spike Trains. Professors Young Truong and Haipeng Shen.

Guiyu Zhao, Pharmaceutical Sciences, The QSARome of the Receptorome: Quantitative Structure-Activity Relationship Modeling of Multiple Ligand Sets Acting at Multiple Receptors. Professors Alexander Tropsha and Qisheng Zhang.

Meng Zhao, Nursing, Cultural Beliefs and Attitudes Toward Health and Health Care Among Chinese-Born Immigrant Women: A Focused Ethnographic Approach. Professor Noreen Esposito.

Yihui Zhou, Biostatistics, Model-Based Approaches to Multiple Hypothesis Testing for RNA-seq and Other Genomic Platforms. Professor Fred A. Wright.

Imola G. Zigoneanu, Chemistry, Alpha-Synuclein Interaction With Membranes. Professor Gary J. Pielak.

DOCTOR OF PUBLIC HEALTH

Marcus Evan Berzofsky, Biostatistics, Methods and Approaches for Evaluating the Validity of Latent Class Models With Applications. Professors William Kalskeek and Paul Biemer.

Kimon Divaris, Epidemiology, The Genetic Basis of Chronic Periodontitis: A Genome-Wide Approach. Professor Andrew F. Olshan.

Cecilia Stover Fabrizio, Public Health Leadership, Physicians' Perceptions of the Hong Kong Cervical Screening Programme: Implications for Improving Cervical Health. Professor Christopher Shea.

Mary Mulhern Kincaid, Health Policy and Management, Gender Integration Case Study: A Policy Implementation Analysis of USAID Heath Sector Programming. Professor Suzanne Havala-Hobbs.

Nancy Mari McGee, Health Policy and Management, Health Technology Assessment Evidence Criteria: What Types of Evidence Should Be Presented for Products Used to Screen for Disease in the United States? Professor John Paul.

Cicely Elane Mitchell, Biostatistics, Semi-Markov Multi-State Modeling of Human Papillomavirus. Professor Michael Hudgens.

THE OLD WELL

At the heart of the campus stands the visual symbol of the University of North Carolina at Chapel Hill. For many years the Old Well served as the sole water supply for Old East and Old West dormitories. In 1897, the well was given its present decorative form at the direction of President Edwin A. Alderman, who described his beautification project as largely derived from the Temple of Love in the Garden of Versailles. In 1954, the well was given added beauty with brick walks, plantings and benches. Legend holds that students can bring good luck with a drink from the Old Well on the first day of classes.

A MESSAGE TO CAROLINA'S NEWEST ALUMNI

Congratulations! You are now graduates of the University of North Carolina at Chapel Hill. Let your General Alumni Association help you make a seamless transition from students to alumni — no matter where you find yourselves after graduation. Visit alumni.unc.edu/youngalumni.

GETTING STARTED

Don't miss out on special invitations and services. Call (877) 377-7125 or visit alumni.unc.edu/update to keep your official University record updated. Jump start your network with Carolina alumni — join the GAA's groups on Facebook and LinkedIn.

ALUMNI CAREER SERVICES

Networking is the most effective approach to finding a job. The GAA can connect you with more than 7,000 alumni volunteers in our Alumni Advisor Network who can help you explore career options.

GAA members from the Class of 2011 have full access (phone, email or in person) to the GAA's certified career coach for one year following graduation. If you're thinking about grad school, GAA members also receive discounts on Kaplan prep courses.

FINDING OTHER TAR HEELS IN YOUR AREA

- Local Carolina Clubs can be found in nearly 100 cities around the globe. Socialize, network, cheer on the Heels and continue that spirit of Tar Heel service within your community.
- The GAA's Online Alumni Directory can help you develop a network like no other. The directory includes nearly 270,000 former Carolina students.

TRUSTED INFORMATION SOURCE

The "Carolina Alumni Review," the "Out of the Blue" e-newsletter, the GAA's Twitter feed and alumni.unc.edu can keep you updated on the University's achievements and challenges as well as what's going on in Chapel Hill.

Congratulations again. We hope you'll choose to join the nearly 70,000 GAA members who remain connected and help serve Carolina and our students — past, present and future. The GAA offers new grads a one-year membership for only $20 — half off the annual dues rate of $40. Or save $50 on life membership — only $28.25/month for 24 months.

For more information on how the Association serves new graduates, please call Mike Dempsey '11 or Diana Koonce '02 at (800) 962-0742 or email membership@unc.edu. Visit us on the Web at alumni.unc.edu.

THE UNIVERSITY SEAL

The University seal typically appears on diplomas and graduation materials, grade transcripts and documents that indicate accomplishment in or on behalf of the University. The first seal of the University of North Carolina, designed in 1790, showed the face of Apollo and his emblem, the rising sun, used to symbolize the dawn of higher education in the state. The words "sigul universitat carol septent" (Seal of the University of North Carolina) surrounded the drawing. A modification in 1895 added lighted torches of learning beside Apollo's profile. Two years later another alteration replaced Apollo's head with a shield on which the words Lux (light) and Libertas (liberty), separated by a white band running from the upper right to the lower left of the shield, appeared. In the 1940s, some observers mistakenly claimed the white stripe on the shield was a bend sinister, a heraldic code that was demeaning. In truth, the stripe was a bar sinister and merely denoted a second or later son. Still, the direction of the stripe was reversed, removing any question of stigma. Today's seal is the same as the 1897 version, except the stripe runs from the upper left to the lower right.

UNIVERSITY COLORS

As symbols of unity among Carolina students, alumni and fans, the school colors of light blue and white were first used around 1800 to distinguish between members of the Dialectic and Philanthropic Literary Societies. Throughout the 19th century, students were required to be members of either the Di or the Phi. The Di's color was light blue, and the Phi's was white. At University commencements, balls and other social events, the student officials, managers and marshals wore the color of their society, blue or white. Because the chief marshal or chief ball manager represented the whole student body, not just his society, he wore both colors. When the University fielded its first intercollegiate athletic teams in 1888, the question of what colors to wear had already been answered. Light blue and white had come to symbolize membership in the University, not in a single society.

DEGREES WITH DISTINCTION

To graduate with distinction or with highest distinction, undergraduate students must have completed at least 45 academic hours at UNC–Chapel Hill and have an overall grade point average of at least 3.5 or 3.8, respectively.

UNDERGRADUATE HONORS PROGRAM

The Honors Program offers exceptionally well-qualified first-year students, sophomores and juniors an opportunity to take part of their general education curriculum in special honors seminars and honors sections. Honors seminars are special topics courses, limited in enrollment to 15 students and taught by outstanding members of the University faculty. Honors sections of regular departmental course offerings are also limited in enrollment and are taught by permanent members of the University faculty. Honors seminars and sections emphasize critical reading, class discussion and expository writing.

Senior departmental honors programs are provided for students who have demonstrated a very high level of scholastic ability and achievement and who desire to pursue an intensive, individualized program of study in their major discipline. Honors studies ordinarily consist of one or more of the following: the preparation of an honors thesis or essay, an independent research or reading program, an artistic performance or exhibition, or the completion of advanced course work in the major not normally required of students in that major. It is on the basis of participation in senior honors that a student may be graduated from the University "with Honors" or "with Highest Honors."

 Indicates probable candidates for degrees with distinction or highest distinction based on GPA going into the final semester.*

+ Indicates Honors recipients.

COMMENCEMENT MUSIC

The University's beloved alma mater, "Hark the Sound," evokes the feelings of loyalty and friendship that students, alumni and true blue Tar Heels everywhere have for Carolina. The orchestral marches that accompany the commencement processional are equally memorable for their power and splendor. They are truly fitting musical celebrations of the talent and achievements of UNC-Chapel Hill's visiting dignitaries, faculty and graduates.

During today's commencement ceremony, members of the academic processional will be welcomed by the fanfare brass, woodwinds and drums of Nikolai Rimsky-Korsakov's "Procession of the Nobles" and Richard Strauss' "Konigsmarsch." Rimsky-Korsakov wrote his majestic march to open the second act of the opera-ballet "Mlada," which premiered in Saint Petersburg, Russia, in 1892. Strauss premiered the flourishing "Konigsmarsch" at a palace concert in Berlin in 1907.

The new graduates will exit the ceremony while hearing familiar Carolina melodies in "Tar Heel Rhapsody," a composition written specifically for the University that features its school songs.

THE BELL TOWER

The Morehead–Patterson Memorial Bell Tower was given to the University in 1931 by John Motley Morehead III and Rufus Lenoir Patterson. Its 14-bell carillon rings both manually and electronically to call students to class, provide twilight music and serenade the dispersing crowd after football games. Rising 172 feet, the tower is surrounded by a hedge and lawn designed by William C. Coker, botany professor and creator of the campus Arboretum.

ACADEMIC DRESS

The following information, based in part on An Academic Costume Code and Ceremony Guide (published by the American Council on Education), may be helpful in identifying academic attire worn during UNC's Commencement exercises.

DEGREE CANDIDATES' REGALIA. The University's bachelor's gown was redesigned this year by award-winning colorist and fashion designer Alexander Julian — a Chapel Hill native and UNC alumnus — to be both Carolina blue and truly green, as in sustainably made. The fabric for the new True Blue gown is made from 100 percent post-consumer recycled plastic bottles (23 bottles for each gown) and is manufactured at mills in the Carolinas. The information about the gown's sustainability is suitably printed directly on the cloth, without the use of an extra label. In addition to being dyed a custom Carolina blue color, the True Blue gowns also have a more streamlined fit, white piping along the yoke and two white panels in front. The new tassels are blue and white, topped with a silver-colored Old Well medallion. An optional accessory is an embroidered white stole that the graduate may give to a parent in gratitude after the Commencement ceremony.

The untrimmed, black master's gown has a hood and an oblong sleeve, open at the wrist, that hangs nearly to the ground; the back part of its oblong shape is square cut and the arc in the front is cut away. The hooded doctoral gown features three bars across each sleeve. In 1999, the Faculty Council authorized a special doctoral gown for Carolina graduates. It is Carolina blue, with facings and crossbars of dark blue outlined in white piping. The facings bear the shield of the University supported by the torches of learning.

The hoods of master's and doctoral degree candidates vary in color according to the field of study (see list below).

FACULTY REGALIA. Faculty wear the regalia of the institution that conferred their highest degree. The doctoral gowns are usually faced with black velvet, although the color of the velvet may vary according to the field of study. Hoods, which differ in length according to the level of the degree held, are lined with official colors of the university or college that conferred the degree, usually with one color forming a chevron pattern over the other. Some colors you will see on faculty and administrators' robes are, for example, the crimson of Harvard, the maroon of Chicago, the orange and black of Princeton, the dark blue of Yale, and the light blue and white of North Carolina.

Like the hoods of master's and doctoral degree candidates, faculty hoods are edged and bound with velvet in the color appropriate to the field of study. The colors in the hoods and gowns of faculty and administrators represent the following fields in which degrees were taken:

APRICOT: Nursing
BROWN: Fine Arts
CITRON: Social Work
CRIMSON: Journalism
DARK BLUE: Philosophy
GOLDEN YELLOW: Science
GREEN: Medicine
LEMON YELLOW: Library Science
LIGHT BLUE: Education
LILAC: Dentistry
OLIVE GREEN: Pharmacy
ORANGE: Engineering
PEACOCK BLUE: Public Administration
PINK: Music
PURPLE: Law
SAGE GREEN: Physical Education
SALMON PINK: Public Health
SCARLET: Theology
YELLOW BROWN: Commerce, Business, Accountancy
WHITE: Arts, Letters, Humanities

COMMENCEMENT

THE UNIVERSITY OF NORTH CAROLINA AT CHAPEL HILL

MESSAGE FROM THE CHANCELLOR

Dear Graduates and Families:

The University of North Carolina is the oldest public institution of higher education in the country. It embodies the hopes for a democratic nation and the promise that education could make that democracy and the world better for future generations. We still believe in that promise at Carolina, and that is why we celebrate your graduation today.

The world has changed a lot since you entered UNC, and it needs you. Thanks to your Carolina education, you are ready for it. You have learned how to propose new ideas and have gained a worldview to understand their implications. You know the importance of extending opportunities to everyone.

On behalf of our faculty and staff, thank you to all the family members and friends who helped you through your educational journey. We know that you could not have done it without their love and support.

Welcome to the ranks of Tar Heel alumni who have gone out into the world and made a difference. We know you will, too. Carolina and Chapel Hill will be here for you. No matter where you go, you can count on our love and support. We can't wait to hear from you.

Hark the Sound!

ALMA MATER

The words of "Hark the Sound," UNC–Chapel Hill's alma mater, were written in 1897 by William Starr Myers, a graduating senior. The Glee Club director asked Myers to put words to the tune "Amici," and the song was first performed on June 2, 1897, as part of the Glee Club's Commencement performance in Gerrard Hall.

Soon the song was almost forgotten. When a University quartet tried a few years later to remember the words, they could recollect only the first verse and the chorus of Myers' original version. Two members of the quartet, Charles S. Mangum and Charles T. Woollen, added two verses to the one they remembered. Mangum later became a professor in the School of Medicine, and Woollen worked as the University's business manager and comptroller.

HARK THE SOUND

Hark, the sound of Tar Heel voices
Ringing clear and true,
Singing Carolina's praises,
Shouting N.C.U.!

Hail to the brightest star of all!
Clear its radiance shine!
Carolina, priceless gem,
Receive all praises thine.

FOR YOUR INFORMATION

The Doctoral Hooding ceremony in the Dean Smith Center on Saturday and the main Commencement ceremony in Kenan Stadium on Sunday will be captioned on the video screens.

This Commencement program is printed prior to administering final examinations. Therefore, including degree candidates' names in this program does not represent certification that candidates have satisfactorily completed degree requirements. Diplomas for undergraduate, master of science and master of arts degrees will be printed after Commencement and mailed to graduates. Graduates with professional, doctoral and master's degrees that contain an area of study in the degree, such as Master of Accounting, may receive their diplomas in a special departmental or school ceremony. Or, they may pick up a diploma from the Office of the Registrar in the Student and Academic Services Building from 11:30 a.m. until 2 p.m. on Commencement Sunday. Remaining diplomas will be available in the Registrar's Office through May 31, after which time they will be mailed to each graduate's home address as listed in ConnectCarolina.

HOLDEN THORP
Chancellor

At Carolina, Holden Thorp has been an undergraduate student, a chemistry professor, a planetarium director, an inventor and entrepreneur, as well as a dean. He graduated with honors, won teaching awards, chaired a powerhouse chemistry department, developed technology for electronic DNA chips, founded spin-off companies and succeeded as an administrator.

As the 10th chancellor, Thorp draws from those experiences in leading Carolina, one of the world's great research universities.

A North Carolina native, Thorp grew up in Fayetteville in a family steeped in UNC traditions dating to the 1800s. When he graduated from Terry Sanford High School, only one college was on his application list — Carolina, where he earned a bachelor of science degree with honors in 1986.

Attending a world-class research university — where research and teaching are done by the same people — allowed Thorp to work in chemistry labs with top faculty and inspired him to become a professor. He pursued that dream at the California Institute of Technology, where he earned a doctorate in chemistry in 1989, and at Yale University for postgraduate work. After teaching a year at NC State, he returned in 1993 to UNC, where he was dean of the College of Arts and Sciences and chair of the chemistry department before becoming chancellor in 2008.

Because he has lived it from both sides of the classroom, Thorp is passionate about the undergraduate experience. "Carolina is perfectly suited to leverage our students' interests in the great problems facing our world to enhance their academic success," he says.

The University's future depends on aspiring to global academic excellence and serving the needs of North Carolina's students and people. "We're the university of both-and: Both academic prominence and a commitment to our state," Thorp says.

Under Thorp, Carolina seeks to raise $125 million in private gifts to implement "Innovate@Carolina: Important Ideas for a Better World," a roadmap developed by alumni and friends experienced in leading innovation in science, business, medicine, nonprofits and academia. One result is UNC's role in a consortium created by a $3.6 million gift from the Blackstone Charitable Foundation to help the Research Triangle develop a network of entrepreneurial assistance similar to those in Silicon Valley and the Boston Corridor. Partners include Duke, NC State, NC Central and the Center for Entrepreneurial Development. The network has the potential over a decade to create jobs, attract seed, startup and expansion capital, and generate revenue.

Thorp is a member of President Obama's National Advisory Council on Innovation and Entrepreneurship. As a result, the University hosted the council's first national forum in Chapel Hill. Thorp co-authored "Engines of Innovation — The Entrepreneurial University in the 21st Century," a UNC Press book that makes the case for the pivotal role of research universities as agents of societal change.

Royalties support innovation at UNC.

Thorp serves on the U.S. Manufacturing Competitiveness Initiative for the Council on Competitiveness. He has published 130 scholarly articles on the electronic properties of DNA and RNA and co-founded Viamet Pharmaceutials in Morrisville, which is developing drugs for fungal infections and prostate cancer.

The chancellor also is a member of a national Commission on Higher Education Attainment, which was created by the six presidentially based higher education associations to chart a course for greatly improving college retention and attainment and, in turn, restore the nation's higher education preeminence.

An accomplished musician who plays jazz bass and keyboard, Thorp is married to Patti Worden Thorp, a Hope Mills native and UNC Greensboro graduate. Their children are John and Emma.

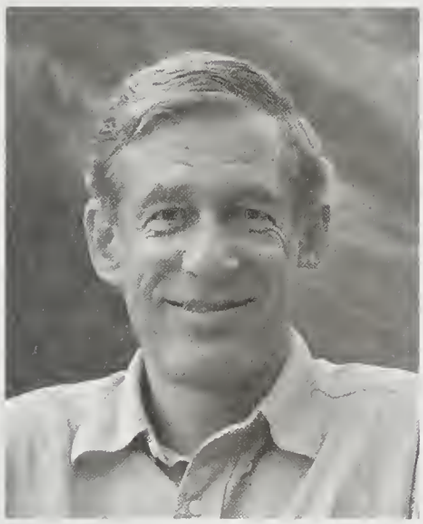
THE DOCTORAL HOODING SPEAKER

Marc Levoy



MARC LEVOY is the VMware Founders professor of computer science at Stanford University, with a joint appointment in Stanford's electrical engineering department. His career achievements include developing the cartoon animation system used in "The Flintstones" TV show and launching Google's Street View project. Levoy is currently on a two-year, part-time leave of absence to work on another project for Google.

Levoy, who is also known for helping to create the field of computational photography, received his doctoral degree in computer science from the University of North Carolina at Chapel Hill in 1989. He received his bachelor's and master's degrees in architecture from Cornell University. His master's thesis focused on computer-assisted cartoon animation — research he applied later as senior scientist and director of Hanna-Barbera Productions' computer animation department.

He began his UNC doctoral studies in computer science, in the College of Arts and Sciences, in 1984, focusing on a computer graphics technique called volume rendering. The technique provides three-dimensional depth when displaying computed tomography and magnetic resonance imaging data. After receiving his doctorate, Levoy spent a year as a research assistant professor in UNC's computer science department before joining the Stanford faculty in 1990.

His more recent research achievements have included co-designing the Google book scanner and launching Google's Street View project. Levoy's current interests include light fields, optical microscopy and the emerging field of computational photography.

Levoy's national research grants in computational photography date to a 2002 National Science Foundation project, "High-Performance Imaging Using an Array of Low-Cost Cameras." Today, Levoy and faculty colleagues share their ongoing research with other universities through a Stanford "Frankencamera" project.

For his research accomplishments, Levoy was named a 1991 National Science Foundation Presidential Young Investigator and won the Association for Computing Machinery SIGGRAPH Computer Graphics Achievement Award in 1996. The association also named him a fellow in 2007.

COMMENCEMENT SPEAKER AND HONORARY DEGREE RECIPIENT

Michael R. Bloomberg

DOCTOR OF LAWS

MICHAEL BLOOMBERG is the 108th mayor of the City of New York. He was first elected mayor in 2001, just two months after the terrorist attacks on the World Trade Center. At the time, many feared that crime would overtake New York, businesses would flee and the city would never recover. Instead, through hundreds of innovative new policies and initiatives, Bloomberg is credited with making New York City safer, stronger and greener than ever. He attended Johns Hopkins University, where he paid his tuition with student loans and income from working as a parking lot attendant. After college, he earned an MBA from Harvard Business School. Bloomberg began his career in an entry-level position with Salomon Brothers, a prominent Wall Street investment bank. He quickly rose through the ranks, eventually heading up the firm's information systems. When Salomon was acquired in 1981 and he was let go, he used his experience there to envision an information company that would use emerging technology to bring transparency and efficiency to buyers and sellers of financial securities. The result is Bloomberg LP, a company that has about 15,000 employees worldwide and more than 300,000 subscribers to its global financial news and information service. As his company grew, Bloomberg began to direct more of his attention to philanthropy, donating time and resources to many worthy causes, especially Johns Hopkins University, where he has helped build the Bloomberg School of Public Health into a leading institution of public health research and training. Bloomberg's extraordinary career in business, philanthropy and public service has few parallels in the opening decades of the 21st century. Mayor Bloomberg has delivered commencement or baccalaureate addresses for Tufts University, Bard College, the University of Pennsylvania and Princeton University, and has received honorary doctorates from Fordham University and George Washington University.

HONORARY DEGREE RECIPIENT

David S. Ferriero

DOCTOR OF LAWS

DAVID FERRIERO is the 10th archivist of the United States and the first professional librarian to hold that position. As archivist, he is charged with preserving the nation's official permanent records, now estimated at about 9 billion pages of text, not to mention many millions of maps, charts, drawings, photographs, digital data sets, films and videos. Ferriero has championed transparency and openness in government, leading the effort to review and declassify appropriate records more efficiently. He has also been a leader in responding to the challenges presented by fragile and easily mutable digital records. Before accepting the position of archivist in 2009, Ferriero served as the Andrew W. Mellon director of the New York Public Libraries, an institution he characterized as the "mother ship" of the library world. There, he integrated the four research libraries and 87 branch libraries into one seamless service for users, creating the largest public library system in the United States and one of the largest research libraries in the world. Ferriero began his career shelving books at the Massachusetts Institute of Technology Library, where he remained for 31 years, rising to the position of acting co-director of libraries. In 1996 he was recruited to Duke University by then-president Nannerl Keohane. As university librarian and vice provost for library affairs, he headed up Duke's instructional technology initiatives and raised more than $50 million to expand and renovate Perkins Library. While at Duke, Ferriero chaired the advisory board for North Carolina ECHO (Exploring Cultural Heritage Online), a project sponsored by the State Library of North Carolina. This initiative brings the treasures of the state's museums, libraries, archives and historic sites to the wider public using digital technologies. Ferriero holds bachelor's and master's degrees from Northeastern University and a master's degree from the Simmons College Graduate School of Library and Information Science, and served in the Navy during the Vietnam War. Although he now resides in Washington, D.C., Ferriero maintains close ties with North Carolina, returning home to Durham where his wife, Gail Zimmermann, is associate general manager of UNC-TV.

HONORARY DEGREE RECIPIENT

Thomas Willis Lambeth

DOCTOR OF LAWS

TOM LAMBETH is a senior fellow and retired executive director of the Z. Smith Reynolds foundation of Winston-Salem, N.C. A native Tar Heel whose North Carolina roots go back three centuries, Lambeth was educated in the public schools and received his B.A. degree in history from Carolina in 1957. His leadership qualities were recognized almost at once, as he was inducted into three of Carolina's student honorary societies — the Order of the Golden Fleece, the Order of the Grail and the Order of the Old Well. After a tour of active duty in the United States Army, he served as Governor Terry Sanford's chief administrative assistant, being at the time the youngest person in the nation to hold such a position. Later, he served as administrative assistant to U.S. Representative Richardson Preyer. Lambeth capped his career with 23 years of service as executive director of the Z. Smith Reynolds Foundation. During that time, his work took him to every county in North Carolina and entailed directing more than $260 million in grants to nonprofit organizations. He also found time to serve on Carolina's Board of Trustees, chairing it for two years, and an amazing host of other boards and commissions, such as the Ruth Z. Fleishman Foundation, the Council on Foundations, the National Center for Family Philanthropy, and the Commission on Colleges of the Southern Association of Colleges and Schools. Lambeth's many honors include Carolina's Distinguished Alumnus Award, the General Alumni Association's Distinguished Service Medal, the Board of Trustees' William Richardson Davie Award, the UNC Board of Governors' University Award, and honorary degrees from Wake Forest University and Pfeiffer University. The Thomas Willis Lambeth Distinguished Professorship and the Lambeth Lecture in Public Policy at Carolina were both established in his honor. In retirement, Lambeth continues to serve North Carolina as a member of the board of the North Carolina chapter of the Environmental Defense Fund, the Hunt Institute for Educational Leadership and Carolina's School of Social Work, as well as the board of advisors of the UNC Center for Civil Rights.

HONORARY DEGREE RECIPIENT

Branford Marsalis

DOCTOR OF MUSIC

BRANFORD MARSALIS is a world-renowned saxophonist whose musical curiosity leads him to actively explore jazz, classical, blues and funk. A native of New Orleans, Marsalis is a member of one of that city's most distinguished musical families, which includes his father Ellis and his siblings Wynton, Delfeayo and Jason. In 2011, the Marsalis family was honored with the National Endowment for the Arts Jazz Masters award. Known for his innovative spirit and broad musical scope, Marsalis is equally at home on the stages of the world's greatest clubs and concert halls. He has been a featured soloist performing works by Copland, Debussy, Glazunov, Ibert, Mahler, Mihaud, Rorem and Vaughan Williams with major symphony orchestras such as the New York Philharmonic, Chicago, Detroit, Düsseldorf, Australian and North Carolina symphonies. He also toured for several months with the Philharmonia Brasileira. Marsalis, a three-time Grammy recipient, is a keeper of the history of American jazz, having played with such greats as Art Blakey, Dizzy Gillespie, Miles Davis, Herbie Hancock and Sonny Rollins. He is also a keen scout for new musical talent and has his own label, Marsalis Music, where he continues to discover, develop and promote new artists. Marsalis has held faculty positions at Michigan State University, San Francisco State University and currently at North Carolina Central University, where the members of his quartet serve as artists-in-residence. In addition to this traditional role, Marsalis engages in innovative and wide-reaching educational efforts with Marsalis Jams. This program fosters interactive education between professional musicians and students by coordinating campus visits and "jam sessions" by leading jazz ensembles at universities and high schools across America. Marsalis is also a humanitarian. After Hurricane Katrina's destruction of New Orleans, he and Harry Connick Jr. conceived of the New Orleans Habitat Musicians' Village in the hard-hit Ninth Ward, built as a project of the New Orleans Area Habitat for Humanity. The centerpiece of this effort is the Ellis Marsalis Center for Music.

HONORARY DEGREE RECIPIENT

Katharine Lee Reid

DOCTOR OF FINE ARTS

KATHARINE LEE REID has had a 40-year career as an art museum curator, administrator and director. At a time when few women held leadership positions in large museums, Reid served as assistant and later deputy director of the Art Institute of Chicago (1982–1991), director of the Virginia Museum of Fine Arts (1991–2000) and director of the Cleveland Museum of Art (2000–2005). She transformed each of these institutions by balancing scholarly concerns with community and audience interests. Reid focused on eliminating barriers that people of all kinds felt about their experiences in art museums by means of well-written labels, meaningful gallery installations, guided and audio tours, computer access and major architectural revisions. She has been especially effective in reaching underserved audiences. The key to her success is her ability to understand how audiences respond to, enjoy and learn from works of art. Through her positions with the Association of Art Museum Directors, she has been a thoughtful leader in policy development, in promoting goals of diversity, and in responding to changing norms that influence and inform museum practice. She has guided the practices of museums with respect to the ethical collecting of archaeological materials, leading to a presidential appointment to the U.S. Department of State's Cultural Property Advisory Committee. Her goal in this work is to develop a more flexible attitude in the art museum world toward the cultural treasures of other countries by focusing on exhibition rather than possession. In her work with The Getty Trust Museum Leadership Institute, she participated in developing and mentoring hundreds of senior museum professionals, and as a member of the Accreditation Commission of the American Association of Museums, she has encouraged best practices in a full range of museum activities. Today, Reid continues to be a generous and wise mentor, serving on the national advisory board of the Ackland Art Museum, the visiting committee for the Frances Lehman Loeb Art Center at Vassar, and the board of advisors for the Nasher Art Museum at Duke University. Reid's honors include an honorary degree from Knox College and membership in the Ordre des Arts et des Lettres de la Republique Française.

A MESSAGE TO CAROLINA'S NEWEST ALUMNI

Congratulations! You are now graduates of the University of North Carolina at Chapel Hill. Let your General Alumni Association help you make a seamless transition from students to alumni — no matter where you find yourselves after graduation. Visit alumni.unc.edu/youngalumni.

GETTING STARTED

Don't miss out on special invitations and services. Call (877) 377-7125 or visit alumni.unc.edu/update to keep your official University record updated. Jump start your network with Carolina alumni — join the GAA's groups on Facebook and LinkedIn.

ALUMNI CAREER SERVICES

Networking is the most effective approach to finding a job. The GAA can connect you with more than 7,000 alumni volunteers in our Alumni Advisor Network who can help you explore career options.

GAA members from the Class of 2012 have full access (phone, email or in person) to the GAA's certified career coach for one year following graduation. If you're thinking about grad school, GAA members also receive discounts on Kaplan prep courses.

FINDING OTHER TAR HEELS IN YOUR AREA

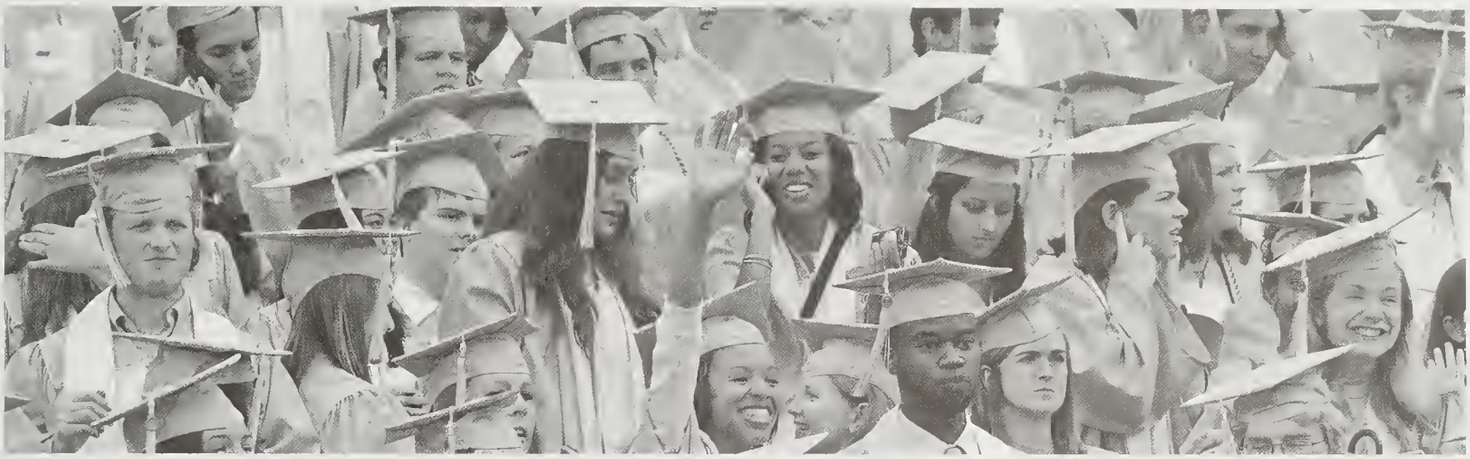
- Local Carolina Clubs can be found in nearly 100 cities around the globe. Socialize, network, cheer on the Heels and continue that spirit of Tar Heel service within your community.
- The GAA's Online Alumni Directory can help you develop a network like no other. The directory includes nearly 270,000 former Carolina students.

TRUSTED INFORMATION SOURCE

The "Carolina Alumni Review," the "Out of the Blue" e-newsletter, the GAA's Twitter feed and alumni.unc.edu can keep you updated on the University's achievements and challenges as well as what's going on in Chapel Hill.

Congratulations again. We hope you'll choose to join the nearly 70,000 GAA members who remain connected and help serve Carolina and our students — past, present and future. The GAA offers new grads a one-year membership for only $20 — half off the annual dues rate of $40. Or save $50 on life membership — only $28.25/month for 24 months.

For more information on how the Association serves new graduates, please call Mike Dempsey '11 or Diana Koonce '02 at (800) 962-0742 or email membership@unc.edu. Visit us on the Web at alumni.unc.edu.



CAROLINA ANNUAL FUND AND 2012 SENIOR CAMPAIGN

Congratulations, graduates! There is no doubt that your experience at Carolina has included unparalleled opportunities and that your degree will open many doors for you in the future.

As Carolina students, you have been touched every day by private gifts to Carolina that maintain and enhance the University's tradition of excellence. Annual gifts improve the lives of students, faculty and staff. From scholarships to new research buildings and equipment, to access to incredible performances at Memorial Hall, to more than 6 million volumes in the libraries across campus, private gifts have impacted every aspect of campus life.

You're invited to support UNC–Chapel Hill through the Senior Campaign. You can make a gift to any part of the University that is meaningful to you — your major, a professorship, a student organization, scholarships and student aid, or campuswide programs. Or, to make an immediate difference where it is needed the most, consider supporting the Chancellor's Unrestricted Fund.

All gifts are included in the Senior Campaign and Annual Fund. Thank you to those who have already made your gift. Give online at annualfund.unc.edu/gift or by mail to P.O. Box 309, Chapel Hill, N.C. 27514-0309. For more information about the 2012 Senior Campaign, visit annualfund.unc.edu/students.

WELCOME YOUNG ALUMNI!

As you transition from students to alumni, we encourage you to keep up with young alumni events and Carolina news through the Carolina Annual Fund young alumni Facebook page (facebook.com/UNCYoungAlumni) and Twitter page (@UNCYoungAlumni). Through our social media efforts you can connect with fellow recent Carolina graduates in your area, participate in local events and social activities, and help Carolina stay strong by advocating philanthropy and support for the University among your peers. For more information about young alumni programs, visit youngalumni.unc.edu.

CLASS OF 1962 CELEBRATES GOLDEN ANNIVERSARY

As part of their 50th class reunion, representatives from Carolina's Class of 1962 will join the academic processional at commencement and will precede the undergraduates. Watch for these most recent inductees into the General Alumni Association's Old Students Club, who will be adorned in Carolina blue gowns and wearing medallions commemorating their golden anniversary reunion.

COMMENCEMENT SYMBOLS AND TRADITIONS

THE CHANCELLOR'S MEDAL

The chancellor's medal, an emblem of the office of chancellor, is worn during the University's ceremonial occasions. The sterling silver disk, which is three inches in diameter and seven ounces Troy weight, was given to the University by John Sanders, professor emeritus and former director of the UNC Institute of Government, and his wife, Ann Beal Sanders. Modeled by sculptor Pete Hinton and bearing the University seal, it was first worn by Chancellor Paul Hardin during the 1994 University Day convocation.

THE BICENTENNIAL STAFF

The faculty marshal carries the bicentennial staff while leading the faculty processional on ceremonial occasions such as Commencement and University Day. The staff, commissioned for the University's 1993 bicentennial celebration by John Sanders, professor emeritus and former director of the UNC Institute of Government, and his wife, Ann Beal Sanders, was modeled by sculptor Pete Hinton. It consists of a sterling silver three-inch-high replica of the Old Well mounted on a turned and tapered oak shaft. The shaft was made from timber salvaged from the 1822 section of Old West residence hall during its 1991–1993 renovation.

THE UNIVERSITY SEAL

The University seal typically appears on diplomas and graduation materials, grade transcripts and documents that indicate accomplishment in or on behalf of the University.

The first seal of the University of North Carolina, designed in 1790, showed the face of Apollo and his emblem, the rising sun, used to symbolize the dawn of higher education in the state. The words "SIGUL UNIVERSITAT CAROL SEPTENT" (Seal of the University of North Carolina) surrounded the drawing.

A modification in 1895 added lighted torches of learning beside Apollo's profile. Two years later another alteration replaced Apollo's head with a shield on which the words Lux (light) and Libertas (liberty), separated by a white band running from the upper right to the lower left of the shield, appeared.

In the 1940s, some observers mistakenly claimed the white stripe on the shield was a bend sinister, a heraldic code that was demeaning. In truth, the stripe was a bar sinister and merely denoted a second or later son. Still, the direction of the stripe was reversed, removing any question of stigma.

Today's seal is the same as the 1897 version, except the stripe runs from the upper left to the lower right.

UNIVERSITY COLORS

As symbols of unity among Carolina students, alumni and fans, the school colors of light blue and white were first used around 1800 to distinguish between members of the Dialectic and Philanthropic Literary Societies. Throughout the 19th century, students were required to be members of either the Di or the Phi. The Di's color was light blue, and the Phi's was white.

At University commencements, balls and other social events, the student officials, managers and marshals wore the color of their society, blue or white. Because the chief marshal or chief ball manager represented the whole student body, not just his society, he wore both colors.

When the University fielded its first intercollegiate athletic teams in 1888, the question of what colors to wear had already been answered. Light blue and white had come to symbolize membership in the University, not in a single society.

ACADEMIC DRESS

The following information, based in part on An Academic Costume Code and Ceremony Guide (published by the American Council on Education), may be helpful in identifying academic attire worn during UNC's Commencement exercises.

DEGREE CANDIDATES' REGALIA. The University's bachelor's gown was redesigned in 2011 by award-winning colorist and fashion designer Alexander Julian — a Chapel Hill native and UNC alumnus — to be both Carolina blue and truly green, as in sustainably made. The fabric for the new True Blue gown is made from 100 percent post-consumer recycled plastic bottles (23 bottles for each gown) and is manufactured at mills in the Carolinas. The information about the gown's sustainability is suitably printed directly on the cloth, without the use of an extra label. In addition to being dyed a custom Carolina blue color, the True Blue gowns also have a more streamlined fit, white piping along the yoke and two white panels in front. The new tassels are blue and white, topped with a silver-colored Old Well medallion. An optional accessory is an embroidered white stole that the graduate may give to a parent in gratitude after the Commencement ceremony.

The untrimmed, black master's gown has a hood and an oblong sleeve, open at the wrist, that hangs nearly to the ground; the back part of its oblong shape is square cut and the arc in the front is cut away. The hooded doctoral gown features three bars across each sleeve. In 1999, the Faculty Council authorized a special doctoral gown for Carolina graduates. It is Carolina blue, with facings and crossbars of dark blue outlined in white piping. The facings bear the shield of the University supported by the torches of learning.

The hoods of master's and doctoral degree candidates vary in color according to the field of study (see list below).

This Commencement weekend, some students will be wearing special cords. Gold cords will be worn by Honors graduates, and blue and white cords will be worn by Public Service Scholars.

FACULTY REGALIA. Faculty wear the regalia of the institution that conferred their highest degree. The doctoral gowns are usually faced with black velvet, although the color of the velvet may vary according to the field of study. Hoods, which differ in length according to the level of the degree held, are lined with official colors of the university or college that conferred the degree, usually with one color forming a chevron pattern over the other. Some colors you will see on faculty and administrators' robes are, for example, the crimson of Harvard, the maroon of Chicago, the orange and black of Princeton, the dark blue of Yale, and the light blue and white of North Carolina.

Like the hoods of master's and doctoral degree candidates, faculty hoods are edged and bound with velvet in the color appropriate to the field of study. The colors in the hoods and gowns of faculty and administrators represent the following fields in which degrees were taken:

APRICOT: Nursing
BROWN: Fine Arts
CITRON: Social Work
CRIMSON: Journalism
DARK BLUE: Philosophy
GOLDEN YELLOW: Science
GREEN: Medicine
LEMON YELLOW: Library Science
LIGHT BLUE: Education
LILAC: Dentistry
OLIVE GREEN: Pharmacy
ORANGE: Engineering
PEACOCK BLUE: Public Administration
PINK: Music
PURPLE: Law
SAGE GREEN: Physical Education
SALMON PINK: Public Health
SCARLET: Theology
YELLOW BROWN: Commerce, Business, Accountancy
WHITE: Arts, Letters, Humanities

CONFERRING OF THE HOOD, TURNING OF THE TASSEL

At a certain point in a Commencement ceremony, a gesture or action symbolically indicates that the degree has been conferred. For doctoral degree candidates, that symbolic action is called the "hooding." During Saturday's Hooding ceremony, doctoral degree candidates will be conferred with a hood by the provost and either their advisor or dissertation committee chair. For undergraduates, the gesture is the turning of the tassel. At the beginning of the main Commencement ceremony on Sunday, undergraduate degree candidates will wear their tassels on the right side of the mortarboard (cap). Then, at the moment when their degrees are awarded, they will move them to the left side. Upon turning the tassel or being hooded, a student transitions from degree candidate to graduate.

MUSIC

Graduates, families and friends attending Commencement weekend will have several opportunities to hear the University's beloved "Hark the Sound" and James Taylor's classic "Carolina in My Mind." These songs evoke the feelings of loyalty and friendship that students, alumni and true blue Tar Heels everywhere have for the University. But the orchestral marches that accompany the commencement processionals are equally memorable for their power and splendor. They are truly fitting musical celebrations of the talent and achievements of UNC–Chapel Hill's visiting dignitaries, faculty and graduates.

During Saturday's Doctoral Hooding ceremony and Sunday's main Commencement ceremony, members of the academic processional will be welcomed by the fanfare brass, woodwinds and drums of Nikolai Rimsky-Korsakov's "Procession of the Nobles" and Richard Strauss' "Königsmarsch." Rimsky-Korsakov wrote his majestic march to open the second act of the opera-ballet "Mlada," which premiered in Saint Petersburg, Russia, in 1892. Strauss premiered the flourishing "Königsmarsch" at a palace concert in Berlin in 1907.

The new graduates will exit the ceremonies while hearing familiar Carolina melodies in "Tar Heel Rhapsody," a composition written specifically for the University that features its school songs.

DEGREES AND CERTIFICATES

UNDERGRADUATE CERTIFICATES

Certificate in Community Preparedness and Disaster Management
Certificate in Cytotechnology
Certificate in Dental Hygiene
Certificate in Radiography
Certificate in Sports Communication

UNDERGRADUATE DEGREES

Bachelor of Arts with a major in:
African and Afro-American Studies; American Studies; Anthropology; Archaeology; Art History; Asian Studies; Biology; Chemistry; Classics; Communication Studies; Comparative Literature; Computer Science; Contemporary European Studies; Dramatic Art; Economics; English; Environmental Studies; Exercise and Sport Science; Geography; Geological Sciences; German; Germanic and Slavic Languages and Literatures; Global Studies; History; Interdisciplinary Studies; Latin American Studies; Linguistics; Management and Society; Mathematics; Music; Peace, War and Defense; Philosophy; Physics; Political Science; Psychology; Public Policy; Religious Studies; Romance Languages; Sociology; Studio Art; Women's Studies
Bachelor of Arts in Education with a major in:
Child Development and Family Studies; Elementary Education; Middle Grades Education
Bachelor of Arts in Journalism and Mass Communication
Bachelor of Fine Arts
Bachelor of Music
Bachelor of Science with a major in:
Applied Science; Biology; Chemistry; Computer Science; Environmental Sciences; Geological Sciences; Human Biology; Mathematical Decision Sciences; Mathematics; Physics; Psychology
Bachelor of Science in Business Administration
Bachelor of Science in Clinical Laboratory Science
Bachelor of Science in Dental Hygiene
Bachelor of Science in Information Science
Bachelor of Science in Nursing
Bachelor of Science in Pharmaceutical Sciences
Bachelor of Science in Public Health with a major in:
Biostatistics; Environmental Health Sciences; Health Policy and Management; Nutrition
Bachelor of Science in Radiologic Science

POSTBACCALAUREATE AND POST-MASTER'S CERTIFICATES

Postbaccalaureate Certificate in Auditory Learning in Young Children
Postbaccalaureate Certificate in Business Journalism
Postbaccalaureate Certificate in Core Public Health Concepts
Postbaccalaureate Certificate in Field Epidemiology
Postbaccalaureate Certificate in Global Health
Postbaccalaureate Certificate in Maternal and Child Health Leadership
Postbaccalaureate Certificate in Occupational Health Nursing Specialty
Postbaccalaureate Certificate in Radiologist Assistant
Postbaccalaureate Certificate in Technology and Communication
Post-Master's Certificate in Information and Library Science
Post-Master's Certificate in Public Health Leadership

GRADUATE DEGREES

Master of Accounting
Master of Arts in the discipline of:
Anthropology; Art History; Biology; Chemistry; Classics; Communication Studies; Comparative Literature; Ecology; Education; English; Exercise and Sport Science; Folklore; Geography; Geological Sciences; Germanic Languages; German Studies; History; Linguistics; Mass Communication; Mathematics; Musicology; Philosophy; Political Science; Psychology; Religious Studies; Romance Languages and Literatures; Russian and East European Studies; School Psychology; Slavic Languages and Literatures; Sociology; Technology and Communication
Master of Arts in Teaching
Master of Business Administration
Master of City and Regional Planning
Master of Education in the discipline of:
Education; School Counseling; School Psychology
Master of Fine Arts in the discipline of:
Dramatic Art; Studio Art
Master of Healthcare Administration
Master of Laws
Master of Molecular Diagnostic Science
Master of Physical Therapy
Master of Public Administration
Master of Public Health in the discipline of:
Biostatistics; Environmental Sciences and Engineering; Epidemiology; Health Behavior and Health Education; Health Policy and Management; Maternal and Child Health; Nutrition; Public Health Leadership
Master of Radiologic Science
Master of School Administration
Master of Science in the discipline of:
Biochemistry and Biophysics; Biology; Biomedical Engineering; Biostatistics; Cell and Developmental Biology; Cell and Molecular Physiology; Chemistry; Computer Science; Dental Hygiene Education; Ecology; Economics; Endodontics; Environmental Sciences and Engineering; Genetics and Molecular Biology; Geological Sciences; Human Movement Science; Marine Sciences;

Materials Science; Mathematics; Microbiology and Immunology; Neurobiology; Nutrition; Occupational Therapy; Operative Dentistry; Oral and Maxillofacial Pathology; Oral and Maxillofacial Radiology; Oral and Maxillofacial Surgery; Oral Biology; Orthodontics; Pathology; Pediatric Dentistry; Periodontology; Pharmaceutical Sciences; Pharmacology; Physics; Prosthodontics; Public Health Nursing; Rehabilitation Counseling and Psychology; Speech and Hearing Sciences; Statistics and Operations Research; Toxicology

Master of Science in Clinical Research

Master of Science in Disaster Management

Master of Science in Environmental Engineering

Master of Science in Information Science

Master of Science in Library Science

Master of Science in Nursing

Master of Science in Public Health in the discipline of:
Biostatistics; Environmental Sciences and Engineering; Epidemiology; Health Behavior and Health Education; Health Policy and Management; Maternal and Child Health

Master of Science in Recreation Administration

Master of Social Work

Anthropology; Art History; Biochemistry and Biophysics; Bioinformatics and Computational Biology; Biology; Biomedical Engineering; Biostatistics; Business Administration; Cell and Developmental Biology; Cell and Molecular Physiology; Chemistry; City and Regional Planning; Classics; Communication Studies; Comparative Literature; Computer Science; Ecology; Economics; Education; English; Environmental Sciences and Engineering; Epidemiology; Genetics and Molecular Biology; Geography; Geological Sciences; Germanic Languages; German Studies; Health Behavior and Health Education; Health Policy and Management; History; Human Movement Science; Information and Library Science; Marine Sciences; Mass Communication; Materials Science; Maternal and Child Health; Mathematics; Microbiology and Immunology; Musicology; Neurobiology; Nursing; Nutrition; Occupational Science; Oral Biology; Pathology; Pharmaceutical Sciences; Pharmacology; Philosophy; Physics; Political Science; Psychology; Public Policy; Religious Studies; Romance Languages and Literatures; School Psychology; Social Work; Sociology; Speech and Hearing Sciences; Statistics and Operations Research; Toxicology

Doctor of Public Health in the discipline of:
Biostatistics; Health Behavior and Health Education; Health Policy and Management; Maternal and Child Health; Nutrition

CANDIDATES FOR DOCTORAL DEGREES

May 2012

Degree candidates' names are followed by their area of major study, dissertation or project title and the name of their doctoral advisor.

The Graduate School

ESTABLISHED 1903

Dean Steven W. Matson

DOCTOR OF PHILOSOPHY

Mikaela Morgane Adams, History, Who Belongs? Becoming Tribal Members in the South. Professor Theda Perdue.

Amanda Huff Adkins, Education, Predicting Expressive Language Outcomes at 35 Months: The Influence of Home and Child Care Quality on Rural, Low Income Children. Professor Lynne Vernon-Feagans.

Robert Stephen Andrews, Chemistry, Mild Methods of Glycosyl Radical Generation for C-Glycoside Synthesis. Professor Michel R. Gagne.

Janelle Armstrong-Brown, Health Behavior and Health Education, The Association of Racial Residential Segregation of Physical Activity and Diet Among Older African American Church Members in the Urban South: A Mixed Methods Study. Professor Eugenia Eng.

Timothy David Baird, Geography, Conservation as Disturbance: Development, Diversification and Social Networks Near Tarangire National Park, Northern Tanzania. Professor Martin W. Doyle.

Bahby Talesa Gaines Banks, Health Behavior and Health Education, Process Evaluation of a Multilevel Intervention to Increase Rural African American Participation in HIV/AIDS Clinical Trials. Professor Eugenia Eng.

Shawn Bauldry, Sociology, An Examination of Potential Variation in the Benefits of Higher Education for Health and Well-Being. Professor Kenneth A. Bollen.

Daniel Walker Belsky, Health Policy and Management, Informing Public Health Approaches to Obesity and Smoking Using Genome-Wide Association Studies. Professor Joseph P. Morrissey.

Miri Besken, Psychology, The Assessment of Verbal and Imaginal Encoding Processes in the Bizarreness Effect. Professor Neil W. Mulligan.

Melissa D. Birkhofer, Comparative Literature, Bordering Borders: Gender Politics and Contemporary Latina Literature. Professor Maria DeGuzman.

Hayden Thompson Black, Chemistry, Expanding the Scope of Thiophene-Based Semiconductors: Perfluoroalkylated Materials and Fused Thienoacenes. Professor Valerie Sheares Ashby.

Jesse Alan Blocher, Business Administration, Contagious Capital: A Network Analysis of Interconnected Intermediaries. Professor Adam Reed.

Juan Ariel Bogliaccini, Political Science, Small Latecomers into the Global Market. Power Conflict and Institutional Change in Chile and Uruguay. Professor Evelyne Huber.

Elaine Brooks Bohorquez, Microbiology and Immunology, Role of the pfmdr1 Gene in Plasmodium Falciparum Resistance to Antimalarial Treatment. Professor Steven R. Meshnick.

Heather Ann Bower, Education, It's All About the Kids: School Culture, Identity and Figured Worlds. Professor Eileen R. Carlton Parsons.

Emily Laura Braley, Mathematics, Eigencone Problems for Odd and Even Orthogonal Groups. Professor Prakash Belkale.

Erin Lee Branch, English, Transforming Tastes: M.F.K. Fisher, Julia Child, Alice Waters and the Revision of American Food Rhetorics. Professor Jordynn M. Jack.

Mary Elizabeth Bratsch-Hines, Education, Child Care Changes, Child Care Quality and the Social Adjustment of African American Children in Prekindergarten. Professor Lynne Vernon-Feagans.

Elizabeth Dunham Buttermore, Neurobiology, Organization and Maintenance of Molecular Domains in Myelinated Axons. Professor Manzoor Bhat.

Christopher Robert Cabanski, Statistics and Operations Research, Statistical Methods for Analysis of Genetic Data. Professors J.S. Marron and D. Neil Hayes.

Liheng Cai, Materials Science, Structure and Function of Airway Surface Layer of the Human Lungs and Mobility of Probe Particles in Complex Fluids. Professor Michael Rubinstein.

Angela Calcaterra, English, American Indians and the Grounds of American Literary History. Professor Eliza Richards.

Stephen M. Campbell, Epidemiology, Predicting Risk of Recurrent Stroke Based on Changes in Risk Factors: The VISP Study. Professor Gerardo Heiss.

Katherine Leigh Carlson, English, Artful Artlessness: Authorship, Appropriation and the Creative Child: 1858–1920. Professor Laurie Langbauer.

Wenjie Chen, Statistics and Operations Research, Hemodynamic Response Function Modeling. Professors Haipeng Shen and Young Truong.

Wan-yun Cheng, Environmental Sciences and Engineering, An Integrated Imaging Approach to the Study of the Oxidant Effects of Air Pollutions on Human Lung Cells. Professor James M. Samet.

Hyunkyung Choi, Nursing, Sibling Adaptation in Korean Families of Children With Down Syndrome. Professor Marcia Van Riper.

Joo Yeon Chon, Education, Coping as a Mediator of the Relation Between Teacher-Perceived Stress and Teacher-Student Relationships. Professor Rune J. Simeonsson.

Jessica Cisewski, Statistics and Operations Research, Generalized Fiducial Inference for Mixed Linear Models. Professor Jan Hannig.

Elena Pedigo Clark, Slavic Languages and Literatures, Sharp Rays of Thought: Psychological Conflict in the Poetry of E. A. Baratynsky. Professor Radislav Lapushin.

Hillary Clegg, Genetics and Molecular Biology, Identification and Characterization of Two Potential Novel Regulators of Apoptosis, MAGE-D2 and SUMI-1. Professor Yanping Zhang.

Amanda Renee Clincy, Psychology, Spanking Among Rural African American Mothers and Pathways to Child Behavior. Professor Martha Cox.

Catherine A. Conner, History, Building Moderate Progress: Citizenship, Race and Power in Downtown Birmingham, 1940–1992. Professors W. Fitzhugh Brundage and Jerma A. Jackson.

J. Nancy Costigliola, Cell and Developmental Biology, Dynamic Cortical Mechanotransduction Drives Rounded Cell Protrusions. Professor Kenneth Jacobson.

Rachel Julia Cote', Genetics and Molecular Biology, The Contribution of Prostanoids to Allergy and Lung Inflammation. Professor Beverly Koller.

Jaeda Coutinho-Budd, Neurobiology, Membrane Deformation and Lipid Signaling: Functions of srGAP Family Proteins and PI(4,5)P2. Professors Mark Zylka and Franck Polleux.

Elizabeth T. Cox, Neurobiology, Prenatal Cocaine: Effects of Neonatal Vocalizations, Cue-Induced Maternal Response and Brain Development, Professor Josephine M. Johns.

Richard Henry Crooks, Physics and Astronomy, Analysis of the XY Spin ½ Model in Staggered Field and Networks of D-Wave Josephson Junctions. Professor Dmitri V. Khevshchenko.

Amber Lee Cushing, Information and Library Science, Possessions and Self Extension in Digital Environments: Implications for Maintaining Personal Information. Professor Diane Kelly.

Jennifer Cochran Dalton, Speech and Hearing Sciences, Examination of Joint Attention and Oromotor Imitation in Young Children. Professor Elizabeth R. Crais.

Nena Therese Davis, Philosophy, The Valuing Theory of Personal Identity Over Time: Philosophical Analysis and Practical Applications. Professor Susan Wolf.

Kathryn E. deKrafft, Chemistry, Nanoscale Coordination Polymers for Biomedical Applications and Hybrid Materials for Solar Fuel Catalysis. Professor Wenbin Lin.

Joseph Della Rocca, Chemistry, Hybrid Nanoparticles for Anticancer Drug Delivery. Professor Wenbin Lin.

David A. Detwiler, Pathology, Isolation of Primary Canine Satellite Cells. Professor Joe N. Kornegay.

Jeffrey Childress Diebold, Public Policy, Financial and Health Security in Old Age: Three Essays. Professor John Scott.

Christopher Robert Dittmeier, Political Science, On the Capacity of Great Powers to Influence Nuclear Proliferation. Professor Mark J.C. Crescenzi.

Seth Morrill Ebersviller, Environmental Sciences and Engineering, PM Biological Effect Modification by Gases in Urban Air. Professor Harvey Jeffries.

Jonathan Seaver Edwards, Biochemistry and Biophysics, Structure and Function of the NES Relaxase and C-terminal Domains Required for Vancomycin Resistance Transfer. Professor Matthew Redinbo.

Virginia Beth Ellington, Information and Library Science, Defining the eHealth Information Niche in the Family Physician/Patient Examination and Knowledge Transfer Process. Professor Claudia Gollop.

Katrina Jeanine Elliott, Philosophy, On the Nature of Objective Chance. Professor Marc Lange.

Robert Erhardt, Statistics and Operations Research, Approximate Bayesian Computing for Spatial Extremes. Professor Richard L. Smith.

Julie Elaine Fann, English, Stories of God and Gall: Presbyterian Polemic During the Conformity Wars of Mid-17th-Century England and Scotland. Professor Megan Matchinske.

Lan Feng, Pharmaceutical Sciences, Oil-Filled Lipid Nanoparticles Containing Docetaxel Conjugates for Controlled Drug Release. Professor Russell Mumper.

Robert Hunt Ferguson, History, Race and the Remaking of the Rural South: Delta Cooperative Farm and Providence Farm in Jim Crow-Era Mississippi. Professor W. Fitzhugh Brundage.

Briana Lee Fiser, Physics and Astronomy, The Design Fabrication and Magnetic Actuation of a Microactuator to Accomplish Propulsion and Large Deflection in Viscous and Elastic Environments. Professor Richard Superfine.

Riley C. Flowers, Environmental Sciences and Engineering, Anion Exchange Resins as Sources of Nitrosamines and Nitrosamine Precursors. Professor Philip C. Singer.

Jaclyn Hennessey Ford, Psychology, Autobiographical Memory Retrieval to Musical Cues in Healthy Older Adults. Professor Kelly Giovanello.

Bryan Eric Frauhiger, Chemistry, Exploring Pt(II)/Pt(IV) Conversions Using Pyrazolyl- and Triazolyl-based Scorpionate Ligands. Professor Joseph L. Templeton.

Monica Lassiter Frazier, Biochemistry and Biophysics, The Yersinia Pestis Autotransporter YapG Contains a Fast Folding -helix Domain. Professor Matthew R. Redinbo.

Amanda French, Mathematics, Scattering for Nonlinear Waves on Hyperbolic Space. Professor Michael Taylor.

Alaina Leigh Garland, Microbiology and Immunology, Immunotherapy and T Cell Receptor Analysis in Recurrent Type 1 Diabetes. Professor Roland Tisch.

Ellen Gasparovic, Mathematics, The Blum Medial Linking Structure for Multi-Region Analysis. Professor James Damon.

Theodore Harry McMillan Gellar-Goad, Classics, Lucretius' De Rerum Natura and Satire. Professor James J. O'Hara.

Jennifer Nicolette Gibson, Psychology, The Development and Influence of Visual Hierarchical Processing Styles. Professor J. Steven Reznick.

Christopher Gillette, Pharmaceutical Sciences, The Effect of Risk, Side Effect and Benefit Communication in Pediatric Asthma Visits on Asthma Control Medication Adherence, Caregiver- and Child-Reported Problems/Concerns About Side Effects. Professor Betsy Sleath.

Rebecca Marsh Glawtschew, Economics, Essays on Statistical Discrimination in a Dynamic Framework. Professor Peter Norman.

Latoya Meschelle Griffin, Pharmaceutical Sciences, Interactions of Antiretroviral Protease Inhibitors With Hepatic Transport Proteins: Mechanisms of Drug-Induced Liver Injury. Professor Kim L.R. Brouwer.

Jacob Keith Grohman, Biochemistry and Biophysics, Structural Dynamics of Retroviral Genomes. Professor Kevin M. Weeks.

Daniel Guberman, Music, Composing Freedom: Elliott Carter's 'Self-Reinvention' and the Early Cold War. Professor Brigid Cohen.

John Broscoff Hansen, Computer Science, A Behavioral Design Flow for Synthesis and Optimization of Asynchronous Systems. Professor Montek Singh.

Yijian He, Biology, Genetic Analysis of Innate Immune Receptor Accumulation and Function in Plants. Professor Jeff Dangl.

John Albert Helms, Mathematics, The Sharp Lifespan for Quasilinear Wave Equations in Exterior Domains With Polynomial Local Energy Decay. Professor Jason L. Metcalfe.

Justin Joseph Hopkins, Business Administration, Does Shareholder Litigation Matter? Professor Jana S. Raedy.

Annie Green Howard, Biostatistics, Missing Data in Non-Parametric Tests of Correlated Data. Professor Shrikant Bangdiwala.

Songcui Hu, Business Administration, A Behavioral Perspective on Attention Allocation Among Multiple Goals: An Exploratory Examination of the Automotive Industry. Professor Richard A. Bettis.

Tanee Marie Hudgens, Psychology, Child and Parent Correlates of Racial Socialization in African American Families. Professor Beth Kurtz-Costes.

Hsin-Yi Hung, Pharmaceutical Sciences, DDB and Betulinic Acid-Derivatives as Potent Chemosensitizing, Chemopreventive and Anti-HIV Agents. Professor Kuo-Hsiung Lee.

Michelle Sumako Itano, Cell and Developmental Biology, Composition, Structure, Dynamics and Function of C-Type Lectin Receptor Domains. Professor Ken Jacobson.

Amanda Louise Jacob, Neurobiology, The Organization of Proteins Involved in Synaptic Plasticity. Professor Richard Weinberg.

Soyoung Jeon, Statistics and Operations Research, Max-Stable Processes for Threshold Exceedances in Spatial Extremes. Professor Richard L. Smith.

Meng Jin, Biochemistry and Biophysics, Spatiotemporal Dynamics of Gradient Sensing and Polarization in Yeast. Professor Timothy Elston.

Ilknur Kaynar Kabul, Computer Science, Patient-Specific Anatomical Illustration Via Model-Guided Texture Synthesis. Professor Stephen M. Pizer.

Courtney McCole Wicher Keeler, Health Policy and Management, Substance Use, Risky Sexual Behavior and Employment Among Young People. Professor Marisa Domino.

Caleb Kent, Chemistry, Photo-Active and Redox-Active Metal-Organic Frameworks for Solar Energy Utilization. Professor Wenbin Lin.

Patrick Alan Kent, History, The Roman Army's Emergence From Its Italian Origins. Professor Richard Talbert.

Tae Eun Kim, Pharmaceutical Sciences, The Impact of Pharmacodynamic Parameters on Prediction of Clinical Outcome in HIV-1 Infected Patients and HCV Patients With HIV Co-Infection. Professor Joseph Y. Kim.

Susan Kingsley, Education, Preschool Teachers' Perceptions of Factors Influencing their Referral Decisions for Young Children With Severe Behavior Problems. Professor Harriet Able.

Justin Kirkland, Political Science, The Relational Nature of Legislating. Professor Thomas Carsey.

Pradeep Kota, Biochemistry and Biophysics, Structural Basis for the Function and Regulation of the Epithelial Sodium Channel. Professor Nikolay V. Dokholyan.

Laura Kuhn, Education, The Influence of Gesture and Early Language on the Emergence of Executive Function During Childhood. Professor Lynne Vernon-Feagans.

Gerald F. Lackey, Sociology, The Power of Family Ties in Immigrants' Lives. Professor Barbara Entwisle.

Cale James LaSalata, Romance Languages, String of Decaying Ruins: A Transnational Italian American Experience. Professor Ennio Rao.

Ricky W. Law, History, Knowledge is Power: The Interwar German and Japanese Mass Media in the Making of the Axis. Professors Christopher Browning and W. Miles Fletcher.

James Bradley Layton, Epidemiology, Acute Kidney Injury in Statin Initiators: Patterns of Initiation in Observational Drug Safety Research. Professor M. Alan Brookhart.

Duy Minh Le, Chemistry, Advances in the Synthesis and Application of Polycaprolactone Shape Memory Polymer Biomaterials. Professor Valerie Sheares Ashby.

Sun Young Lee, Journalism and Mass Communication, Unveiling the Agenda-Building Process for Corporate Social Responsibility and the Impacts of Corporate Communications on the Process. Professor Daniel Riffe.

James M. Leslie, History, For Ye Know Not When the Master of the House Cometh: Privacy and Power in the Development of North Carolina's Religious Culture. Professor John Wood Sweet.

Courtney Amber Lewis, Anthropology, The Business of Being Cherokee: An Examination of the Transformative Power and Vision of Small Businesses on the Qualla Boundary of the Eastern Band of Cherokee Indians. Professor Valerie Lambert.

Gaoyang Liang, Biochemistry and Biophysics, Improve Induced Pluripotent Stem Cell Generation by Manipulating Epigenetic Statuses. Professor Yi Zhang.

Lauren M. Little, Occupational Science, Home and Community Activities: Dimensions and Associations With Patterns of Sensory Response Among Children With Autism Spectrum Disorders. Professor Grace T. Baranek.

Joseph Nicholas LoBuglio, Environmental Sciences and Engineering, Probability-based Approaches for Incorporating Uncertainty into Water Resource Models. Professor Gregory Characklis.

Eric F. Lock, Statistics and Operations Research, Vertical Integration of Multiple High-Dimensional Datasets. Professors Andrew B. Nobel and J.S. Marron.

Amy Elizabeth Lucas, Sociology, Exploring Relationships During the Transition to Adulthood: How the Past Influences the Present. Professor Kathleen Mullan Harris.

Oana Izabela Lungu, Biochemistry and Biophysics, Sensing the Light: Design of Photoactivatable Protein-Protein Interactions Using the LOV2 Domain. Professors Brian Kuhlman and Klaus Hahn.

Robert Daniel Lupton, English, Letters and Laws: How Literary Genre Shaped 18th-Century Clubs. Professor Thomas Reinert.

Mark Gibson Maffett, Business Administration, Financial Reporting Opacity and Informed Trading by International Institutional Investors. Professor Mark Lang.

Lamar Odell Mair, Materials Science, Fabrication and Manipulation of Micro- and Nanoscale Magnetic Particles: Application to Magnetofection, Nanopositioning and Drug Delivery. Professor Richard Superfine.

Suddhartha Mandal, Biostatistics, Functional Data Analytic Inference for Systems Governed by Differential Equations With Applications. Professors Pranab K. Sen and Shyamal D. Peddada.

Heather Marlow, Maternal and Child Health, Unwanted Fertility Experience, HIV Status and Postpartum Contraceptive Use in a PMTCT Population in Durban, South Africa. Professor Sian Curtis.

Ryan Christopher May, Biostatistics, Estimation Methods for Data Subject to Detection Limits. Professor Joseph Ibrahim.

Katie E. McDermott, Business Administration, Financial Reporting Quality and Investment in Corporate Social Responsibility. Professor Robert M. Bushman.

Katherine McFarland, Sociology, Cultural Contestation and Community Building at LGBT Pride Parades. Professor Andrew J. Perrin.

Kelly Marie McGowan, Chemistry, Targeted PRINTR Nanoparticles for Effective Cancer Therapy. Professor Joseph DeSimone.

Christopher Anthony McPherson, Toxicology, Characterization of the Neurogenic Microenvironment in the Mouse Hippocampus Following Chemical-Induced Neuronal Injury. Professor G. Jean Harry.

Dwight Steven Mears, History, Interned or Imprisoned: The Successes and Failures of International Law in the Treatment of American Internees in Switzerland, 1943–1945. Professor Wayne Lee.

Molly A. Medakovich, Art (Art History), Between Friends: Representations of Female Sociability in French Genre Painting and Portraiture, 1770–1830. Professor Mary D. Sheriff.

THE FIRST CAROLINA DIPLOMA

In September 1796 Carolina student Davie Gillespie began working with a group of men to determine the Southern boundary of the United States. His instructors gave Gillespie a document to carry as proof that he had been a student at the University of North Carolina. The document, now in the Library of Congress, was signed by his professors and ended with the statement, "We thought it proper to give him this certificate."

The University's first graduating class in 1798 included Hinton James, the first student to enroll. Seven men received the first documents that by today's standards can be called UNC–Chapel Hill diplomas. One of the original diplomas is in the Southern Historical Collection in Wilson Library.

During the University's early years, commencement at Carolina was a time for examinations and promotions to higher classes. There was a commencement, but no degrees awarded and no graduation.

THE BELL TOWER

The Morehead–Patterson Memorial Bell Tower was given to the University in 1931 by John Motley Morehead III and Rufus Lenoir Patterson. Its 14-bell carillon rings both manually and electronically to call students to class, provide twilight music and serenade the dispersing crowd after football games. Rising 172 feet, the tower is surrounded by a hedge and lawn designed by William C. Coker, botany professor and creator of the campus Arboretum.

THE OLD WELL

At the heart of the campus stands the visual symbol of the University of North Carolina at Chapel Hill. For many years the Old Well served as the sole water supply for Old East and Old West dormitories. In 1897, the well was given its present decorative form at the direction of President Edwin A. Alderman, who described his beautification project as largely derived from the Temple of Love in the Garden of Versailles. In 1954, the well was given added beauty with brick walks, plantings and benches. Students can bring good luck with a drink from the Old Well on the first day of classes.

DEGREES WITH DISTINCTION

To graduate with distinction or with highest distinction, undergraduate students must have completed at least 45 academic hours at UNC–Chapel Hill and have an overall grade point average of at least 3.5 or 3.8, respectively.

UNDERGRADUATE HONORS PROGRAM

The Honors Program offers exceptionally well-qualified first-year students, sophomores and juniors an opportunity to take part of their general education curriculum in special honors seminars and honors sections. Honors seminars are special topics courses, limited in enrollment to 15 students and taught by outstanding members of the University faculty. Honors sections of regular departmental course offerings are also limited in enrollment and are taught by permanent members of the University faculty. Honors seminars and sections emphasize critical reading, class discussion and expository writing.

Senior departmental honors programs are provided for students who have demonstrated a very high level of scholastic ability and achievement and who desire to pursue an intensive, individualized program of study in their major discipline. Honors studies ordinarily consist of one or more of the following: the preparation of an honors thesis or essay, an independent research or reading program, an artistic performance or exhibition, or the completion of advanced course work in the major not normally required of students in that major. It is on the basis of participation in senior honors that a student may be graduated from the University "with Honors" or "with Highest Honors."

MESSAGE from the CHANCELLOR

Dear Graduates and Families:

The University of North Carolina is the oldest public institution of higher education in the country. It embodies the hopes for a democratic nation and the promise that education could make that democracy and the world better for future generations. We still believe in that promise at Carolina, and that is why we celebrate your graduation today.

The world has changed a lot since you entered UNC, and it needs you. Thanks to your Carolina education, you are ready for it. You have learned how to propose new ideas and have gained a worldview to understand their implications. You know the importance of extending opportunities to everyone.

On behalf of our faculty and staff, thank you to all the family members and friends who helped you through your educational journey. We know that you could not have done it without their love and support.

Welcome to the ranks of Tar Heel alumni who have gone out into the world and made a difference. We know you will, too. Carolina and Chapel Hill will be here for you. No matter where you go, you can count on our love and support. We can't wait to hear from you.

Hark the Sound!

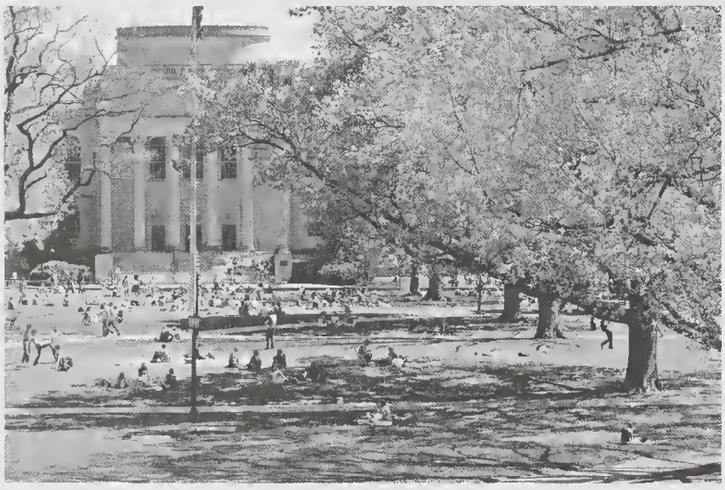
ALMA MATER

The words of "Hark the Sound," UNC–Chapel Hill's alma mater, were written in 1897 by William Starr Myers, a graduating senior. The Glee Club director asked Myers to put words to the tune "Amici," and the song was first performed on June 2, 1897, as part of the Glee Club's Commencement performance in Gerrard Hall.

Soon the song was almost forgotten. When a University quartet tried a few years later to remember the words, they could recollect only the first verse and the chorus of Myers' original version. Two members of the quartet, Charles S. Mangum and Charles T. Woollen, added two verses to the one they remembered. Mangum later became a professor in the School of Medicine, and Woollen worked as the University's business manager and comptroller.



HARK THE SOUND

Hark, the sound of Tar Heel voices
Ringing clear and true,
Singing Carolina's praises,
Shouting N.C.U.!

Hail to the brightest star of all!
Clear its radiance shine!
Carolina, priceless gem,
Receive all praises thine.

For Your Information

If you have any questions regarding Commencement activities, or in the event of an emergency, please contact an usher.

Open captioning of the ceremony will be available on the video screens in the Dean Smith Center.

This Commencement program is printed prior to administering final examinations. Therefore, including degree candidates' names in this program does not represent certification that candidates have satisfactorily completed degree requirements.

All diplomas are printed after graduation and are mailed to graduates. Every effort has been made to ensure the accuracy of this program's content. Any omissions or errors are unintentional.

HOLDEN THORP

Chancellor

Holden Thorp took office as Carolina's 10th chancellor on July 1, 2008. He has invested three decades of his life at the University, starting as an undergraduate student who earned a bachelor of science degree with honors in 1986. Through his research, Thorp developed technology for electronic DNA chips and founded spin-off companies. He raised money for a science complex that has helped boost faculty research productivity, served as director of the Morehead Planetarium and Science Center, and was dean of the College of Arts and Sciences.

Thorp announced in September 2012 that he planned to step down, effective June 30, 2013. A Kenan Professor, he will resume his research and teaching in the chemistry department.

A North Carolina native, Thorp grew up in a Fayetteville family steeped in UNC traditions dating to the 1800s. When he graduated from Terry Sanford High School, the only college on his application list was Carolina. Attending a world-class research university — where the same people conduct research and teach — allowed Thorp to work in chemistry labs with top faculty and inspired him to become a professor. He pursued that dream at the California Institute of Technology, where he earned a doctorate in chemistry in 1989, and at Yale University for postgraduate work.

As chancellor, Thorp has been driven to ensure that UNC students today have the same life-changing opportunities that he did. He has pushed relentlessly to create an atmosphere in which students could be inspired to tackle the world's great problems. He launched "Innovate@Carolina: Important Ideas for a Better World," a roadmap for innovation in science, business, medicine, nonprofits and academia. The chancellor has pushed the campus to leverage scientific and medical research for society's good, and to advance work in the humanities that leads to greater understanding of the challenges the world faces.

Thorp serves on the National Advisory Council on Innovation and Entrepreneurship, which held its first national forum on campus in 2011. He co-authored "Engines of Innovation — The Entrepreneurial University in the 21st Century," a UNC Press book that makes the case for the pivotal role of research universities as agents of societal change. Royalties support innovation at UNC.

Thorp's priorities include protecting Carolina's legendary commitment to providing a high-quality education at an affordable price—core values that have kept the University and the chancellor in the spotlight as leaders during a national debate about the future of U.S. higher education. He was among a dozen higher education leaders invited to the White House to discuss with the president how campuses can become more affordable while producing more graduates. Thorp also serves on the national Commission on Higher Education Attainment, which is charting a course for improving college retention and attainment and, in turn, restoring the nation's higher education preeminence.

The University's recent successes under Thorp's leadership include enrolling a 2012 first-year class of nearly 4,000 outstanding students drawn from a record 29,000 applicants, up 24 percent over last year. Faculty research brought in $767 million during fiscal 2012 despite a challenging federal budget picture. The University rose to ninth from 16th among all research universities for federal funding ($545.99 million) devoted to research and development in fiscal 2010. That was the first time UNC–Chapel Hill had cracked the top 10. Alumni and friends stepped up their private giving in fiscal 2012 for the University's second best fundraising year ever, with $287 million in gifts — up 4 percent — at a time when the economy was still struggling. New commitments jumped by 8 percent to $331.4 million, and the number of donors rose to 78,000, 1,000 more than in 2011.

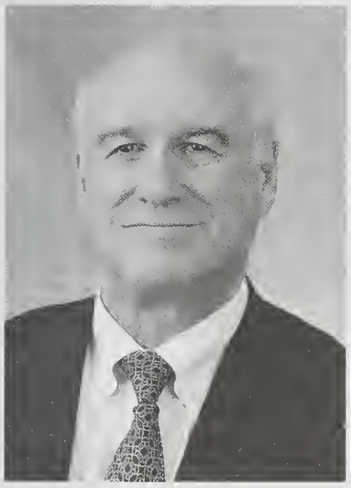
During Thorp's tenure, the University has successfully managed state budget cuts exceeding $238 million. A privately funded Bain & Company study has made operations more efficient and saved nearly $50 million annually in permanent state dollars. UNC–Chapel Hill also increased its percentage of successful faculty retentions to pre-2008 economic downturn levels as part of a proactive, aggressive strategy to keep Carolina's very best faculty in Chapel Hill.

Thorp's research expertise includes the electronic properties of DNA and RNA, and he co-founded Viamet Pharmaceuticals, which is developing drugs for prostate cancer and fungal infections.

An accomplished musician who plays jazz bass and keyboard, Thorp is married to Patti Worden Thorp, a Hope Mills native and UNC Greensboro graduate. Their children are John and Emma.

MYRON S. COHEN

The Commencement Speaker



Myron S. Cohen, the J. Herbert Bate Distinguished Professor of Medicine, Microbiology and Immunology and Public Health at UNC–Chapel Hill, is an acclaimed physician and researcher who has spent the last three decades studying the transmission and prevention of transmission of HIV/AIDS.

Cohen joined the UNC faculty in 1980 – the same year that AIDS was first identified – and was one of the first to recognize that any attempt to stem the AIDS epidemic would require an international program targeting improved care, treatment and research in resource-poor countries such as Malawi, China, the Democratic Republic of Congo, South Africa and Russia, as well as the United States.

Cohen's team of researchers at Carolina provided the scientific foundation for the Center for Disease Control's 2005 strategic plan for HIV prevention and led the National Institutes of Health to tap Carolina to help develop a safe and effective vaccine against HIV/AIDS.

As the architect and principal investigator of the multinational National Institutes of Health HIV Prevention Trials Network, Cohen was instrumental in showing that antiretroviral treatment prevents the sexual transmission of HIV-1. This work was recognized by Science Magazine as the "Breakthrough of the Year" in 2011.

In 2012, he was elected to the Institute of Medicine, one of the nation's highest honors for those in the fields of health and medicine.

Cohen has been a University faculty member for more than 30 years. His titles include associate vice chancellor for global health and director of the Institute for Global Health and Infectious Diseases. He earned his undergraduate degree from the University of Illinois, Urbana-Champaign, and his M.D. degree from Rush Medical College in Chicago.

CAROLINA ANNUAL FUND and 2012 SENIOR CAMPAIGN

Congratulations, graduates! There is no doubt that your experience at Carolina has included unparalleled opportunities and that your degree will open many doors for you in the future.

As Carolina students, you have been touched every day by private gifts to Carolina that maintain and enhance the University's tradition of excellence. Annual gifts improve the lives of students, faculty and staff. From scholarships to new research buildings and equipment, to access to incredible performances at Memorial Hall, to more than 6 million volumes in the libraries across campus, private gifts have impacted every aspect of campus life.

You're invited to support UNC–Chapel Hill through the Senior Campaign. You can make a gift to any part of the University that is meaningful to you — your major, a professorship, a student organization, scholarships and student aid, or campuswide programs. Or, to make an immediate difference where it is needed the most, consider supporting the Chancellor's Unrestricted Fund.

All gifts are included in the Senior Campaign and Annual Fund. Thank you to those who have already made your gift. Give online at annualfund.unc.edu/gift or by mail to P.O. Box 309, Chapel Hill, N.C. 27514-0309. For more information about the 2012 Senior Campaign, visit annualfund.unc.edu/students.

WELCOME YOUNG ALUMNI!

As you transition from students to alumni, we encourage you to keep up with young alumni events and Carolina news through the Carolina Annual Fund young alumni Facebook page (facebook.com/UNCYoungAlumni) and Twitter page (@UNCYoungAlumni). Through our social media efforts you can connect with fellow recent Carolina graduates in your area, participate in local events and social activities, and help Carolina stay strong by advocating philanthropy and support for the University among your peers. For more information about young alumni programs, visit youngalumni.unc.edu.

DEGREES and CERTIFICATES

UNDERGRADUATE CERTIFICATES

Certificate in Community Preparedness and Disaster Management
Certificate in Cytotechnology
Certificate in Dental Hygiene
Certificate in Radiography
Certificate in Sports Communication

UNDERGRADUATE DEGREES

Bachelor of Arts with a major in:
African and Afro-American Studies; American Studies; Anthropology; Archaeology; Art History; Asian Studies; Biology; Chemistry; Classics; Communication Studies; Comparative Literature; Computer Science; Contemporary European Studies; Dramatic Art; Economics; English; Environmental Studies; Exercise and Sport Science; Geography; Geological Sciences; German; Germanic and Slavic Languages and Literatures; Global Studies; History; Interdisciplinary Studies; Latin American Studies; Linguistics; Management and Society; Mathematics; Music; Peace, War and Defense; Philosophy; Physics; Political Science; Psychology; Public Policy; Religious Studies; Romance Languages; Sociology; Studio Art; Women's and Gender Studies
Bachelor of Arts in Business Journalism
Bachelor of Arts in Education with a major in:
Child Development and Family Studies; Elementary Education; Middle Grades Education
Bachelor of Arts in Journalism and Mass Communication
Bachelor of Fine Arts
Bachelor of Music
Bachelor of Science with a major in:
Applied Science; Biology; Chemistry; Computer Science; Environmental Sciences; Geological Sciences; Human Biology; Mathematical Decision Sciences; Mathematics; Physics; Psychology
Bachelor of Science in Business Administration
Bachelor of Science in Clinical Laboratory Science
Bachelor of Science in Dental Hygiene
Bachelor of Science in Information Science
Bachelor of Science in Nursing
Bachelor of Science in Pharmaceutical Sciences
Bachelor of Science in Public Health with a major in:
Biostatistics; Environmental Health Sciences; Health Policy and Management; Nutrition
Bachelor of Science in Radiologic Science

POSTBACCALAUREATE AND POST-MASTER'S CERTIFICATES

Postbaccalaureate Certificate in Auditory Learning in Young Children
Postbaccalaureate Certificate in Business Journalism
Postbaccalaureate Certificate in Core Public Health Concepts
Postbaccalaureate Certificate in Field Epidemiology
Postbaccalaureate Certificate in Global Health
Postbaccalaureate Certificate in Maternal and Child Health Leadership
Postbaccalaureate Certificate in Occupational Health Nursing Specialty
Postbaccalaureate Certificate in Radiologist Assistant
Postbaccalaureate Certificate in Technology and Communication
Post-Master's Certificate in Information and Library Science
Post-Master's Certificate in Public Health Leadership

GRADUATE DEGREES

Master of Accounting
Master of Arts in the discipline of:
American Studies; Anthropology; Art History; Biology; Chemistry; Classics; Communication Studies; Comparative Literature; Ecology; Education; English; Exercise and Sport Science; Folklore; Geography; Geological Sciences; Germanic Languages; German Studies; History; Linguistics; Mass Communication; Mathematics; Musicology; Philosophy; Political Science; Psychology; Public Policy; Religious Studies; Romance Languages and Literatures; Russian and East European Studies; School Psychology; Slavic Languages and Literatures; Sociology
Master of Arts in Teaching
Master of Arts in Technology and Communication
Master of Business Administration
Master of Clinical Laboratory Science
Master of City and Regional Planning
Master of Education in the discipline of:
Education; School Counseling; School Psychology
Master of Fine Arts in the discipline of:
Dramatic Art; Studio Art
Master of Healthcare Administration
Master of Laws
Master of Physical Therapy
Master of Public Administration
Master of Public Health in the discipline of:
Biostatistics; Environmental Sciences and Engineering; Epidemiology; Health Behavior and Health Education; Health Policy and Management; Maternal and Child Health; Nutrition; Public Health Leadership
Master of Radiologic Science
Master of School Administration
Master of Science in the discipline of:
Biochemistry and Biophysics; Biology; Biomedical Engineering; Biostatistics; Cell and Developmental Biology; Cell and Molecular Physiology; Chemistry; Computer Science; Dental Hygiene Education; Ecology; Economics; Endodontics; Environmental Sciences and Engineering; Genetics and Molecular Biology;

Geological Sciences; Human Movement Science; Marine Sciences; Materials Science; Mathematics; Microbiology and Immunology; Neurobiology; Nutrition; Occupational Therapy; Operative Dentistry; Oral and Maxillofacial Pathology; Oral and Maxillofacial Radiology; Oral and Maxillofacial Surgery; Oral Biology; Orthodontics; Pathology; Pediatric Dentistry; Periodontology; Pharmaceutical Sciences; Pharmacology; Physics; Prosthodontics; Public Health Nursing; Rehabilitation Counseling and Psychology; Speech and Hearing Sciences; Statistics and Operations Research; Toxicology

Master of Science in Clinical Research
Master of Science in Disaster Management
Master of Science in Environmental Engineering
Master of Science in Information Science
Master of Science in Library Science
Master of Science in Management
Master of Science in Nursing
Master of Science in Public Health in the discipline of:
Biostatistics; Environmental Sciences and Engineering; Epidemiology; Health Behavior and Health Education; Health Policy and Management; Maternal and Child Health
Master of Science in Recreation Administration
Master of Social Work
Doctor of Philosophy in the discipline of:
American Studies; Anthropology; Art History; Biochemistry and Biophysics; Bioinformatics and Computational Biology; Biology; Biomedical Engineering; Biostatistics; Business Administration; Cell and Developmental Biology; Cell and Molecular Physiology; Chemistry; City and Regional Planning; Classics; Communication Studies; Comparative Literature; Computer Science; Ecology; Economics; Education; English; Environmental Sciences and Engineering; Epidemiology; Genetics and Molecular Biology; Geography; Geological Sciences; Germanic Languages; German Studies; Health Behavior and Health Education; Health Policy and Management; History; Human Movement Science; Information and Library Science; Marine Sciences; Mass Communication; Materials Science; Maternal and Child Health; Mathematics; Microbiology and Immunology; Musicology; Neurobiology; Nursing; Nutrition; Occupational Science; Oral Biology; Pathology; Pharmaceutical Sciences; Pharmacology; Philosophy; Physics; Political Science; Psychology; Public Policy; Religious Studies; Romance Languages and Literatures; School Psychology; Social Work; Sociology; Speech and Hearing Sciences; Statistics and Operations Research; Toxicology
Doctor of Public Health in the discipline of:

PROFESSIONAL DEGREES

Doctor of Audiology
Doctor of Dental Surgery
Doctor of Education in the discipline of:
Curriculum and Instruction; Educational Leadership
Doctor of Medicine
Doctor of Pharmacy
Doctor of Physical Therapy

THE BELL TOWER

The Morehead–Patterson Memorial Bell Tower was given to the University in 1931 by John Motley Morehead III and Rufus Lenoir Patterson. Its 14-bell carillon rings both manually and electronically to call students to class, provide twilight music and serenade the dispersing crowd after football games. Rising 172 feet, the tower is surrounded by a hedge and lawn designed by William C. Coker, botany professor and creator of the campus Arboretum.

CANDIDATES for GRADUATE DEGREES

The Graduate School

ESTABLISHED 1903

Dean Steven W. Matson

DOCTOR OF PHILOSOPHY

Laurie Ann Abler, Health Behavior and Health Education, Developing a Measure of Hope for Exploring HIV-Related Risks among Young South African Women in a High Prevalence Setting. Professor Suzanne Maman.

Delia Nichole Acevedo, Political Science, Using the Five Factor Model of Personality Structure to Identify the Antecedents of Political Ambivalence. Professor Pamela J. Conover.

Cynthia Thornton Bacon, Nursing, Exploring Organizational Influences on Patient Symptom Management in Hospitals. Professor Barbara A. Mark.

Kevin Richard Blauth, Neurobiology, Fractalkine Induces the Expression of Intercellular Adhesion Molecule-1 on CD4+ T-Lymphocytes: Implications for the Immunopathogenesis of Multiple Sclerosis. Professor Silva Markovic-Plese.

Emily Wenink Bratton, Epidemiology, Clinical Management and Outcomes of Patients in the Duke Cryptococcosis Clinical Cohort, 1996–2009. Professor Charles Poole.

Sarah Mae Brosnan, Chemistry, The Development of Novel Polyesters as Unique Biomaterials. Professors Valerie S. Ashby and Joseph M. DeSimone.

Jarrett Grayson Camp, Genetics and Molecular Biology, The Impact of the Microbiota on Transcriptional Regulation in the Vertebrate Intestine. Professor John F. Rawls.

Alex Perrow Carll, Environmental Sciences and Engineering, The Influence of Autonomic Imbalance on Diesel Exhaust-Induced Cardiac Dysfunction in Heart Failure-Prone Rats. Professors Aimen K. Farraj and Avram Gold.

Alexis Wells Carpenter, Chemistry, Synthesis of Hybrid Inorganic/Organic Nitric Oxide-Releasing Silica Nanoparticles for Biomedical Applications. Professor Mark H. Schoenfisch.

Isaac Saibun Chan, Genetics and Molecular Biology, Hedgehog Signaling in Hepatocellular Carcinoma. Professors Anna Mae Diehl and Albert Baldwin.

Yu-Chi Chen, Genetics and Molecular Biology, Drosophila Neuroligin 2 Coordinates Pre- and Post-Synaptic Development, Differentiation and Neurotransmission. Professors Manzoor A. Bhat and Stephen T. Crews.

Zaozao Chen, Cell and Developmental Biology, Inhibition of Abl Family Kinases Produces a Profound Change in Cell Shape and Migration. Professor Ken Jacobson.

Catheryne Grayce Clouse, Epidemiology, Patient Retention at Key Milestones after HIV Diagnosis at a Primary Healthcare Clinic Offering Early Antiretroviral Therapy Initiation in Johannesburg, South Africa. Professor Audrey E. Pettifor.

Kimberly A. Coggan, Microbiology and Immunology, Characterization of a Type IV Pilus Biogenesis Operon in Pseudomonas Aeruginosa. Professor Matthew C. Wolfgang.

Siobhan Eileen Colgan, Education, The Role of Maternal Depression in Accessing Early Intervention Services for Children with Developmental Delay. Professors Julie L. Daniels and Rune J. Simeonsson.

Christopher John Currie, Art History, Art, Illusion and Social Mobility in 18th-Century France: Hyacinthe Rigaud and the Making of the Marquis de Gueidan. Professor Mary D. Sheriff.

Kelly Kent Davis, Journalism and Mass Communication, Public Faces: A Content Analysis of Gender, Ethnic and Racial Diversity on PBS. Professor Debashis Aikat.

Claire de la Varre, Education, An Exploration of Student and Teacher Social Presence in Asynchronous Discussion in an Online Advanced Placement Course for Rural High School Students. Professor Jill V. Hamm.

Chao Deng, Statistics and Operations Research, Optimal Design and Control of Finite-Population Queueing Systems. Professors Nilay Tanik Argon and Vidyadhar G. Kulkarni.

Vanessa Carolyn DeRocco, Chemistry, Biochemical and Single-Molecule Fluorescence Characterization of MUTS and MUTS Homolog Protein-DNA Interactions. Professor Dorothy A. Erie.

Crystal Heath Dodson, Nursing, Diffusion of Innovation: Knowledge and Attitudes of Oncology Nurses Regarding Pharmacogenomic Testing. Professor Marcia Van Riper.

Janet Michelle Doolittle, Bioinformatics and Computational Biology, Prediction of Host-Virus Interaction Networks. Professor Shawn Gomez.

Jeffrey D. Edwards, Social Work, Juvenile Psychopathy and Traumatic Events among Incarcerated Adolescents. Professor Matthew O. Howard.

Jon K. Edwards, Biomedical Engineering, Robotic Endoscope. Professor Robert Q. Dennis.

Carolyn Martindale Edy, Journalism and Mass Communication, Conditions of Acceptance: The United States Military, The Press and the "Woman War Correspondent," 1846–1945. Professor Jean Folkerts.

Murat Es, Geography, Turkish-Dutch Mosques and the Construction of Transnational Spaces in Europe. Professor Banu Gokariksel.

Alessandra Lynn Ferzoco, Chemistry, Understanding MS Approaches to Peptide Characterization. Professor Gary L. Glish.

Gina Kim Flakes, Political Science, Integration and Exchange Rate Theory: Empirically Evaluating the Predictability of Individual Preferences. Professor Thomas H. Oatley.

Kathleen Foody, Religious Studies, Thinking Islam: Islamic Scholars, Tradition and the State in the Islamic Republic of Iran. Professor Omid Safi.

Edward Gordon Franklin, Chemistry, Utilization of Long Columns Packed with Sub-2 um Particles Operated at High Pressures and Elevated Temperatures for High-Efficiency One-Dimensional Liquid Chromatographic Separations. Professor James W. Jorgenson.

Philip Charles Gach, Chemistry, Capturing, Analyzing and Collecting Adherent Cells Using Microarray Technologies. Professors Nancy L. Allbritton and Royce W. Murray.

Melita Marie Garza, Journalism and Mass Communication, They Came to Toil: News Frames of Wanted and Unwanted Mexicans in the Great Depression. Professor Barbara Friedman.

Deepak Gopalakrishna, Genetics and Molecular Biology, DiGeorge Syndrome Phenotypes Reflect Disrupted Interaction between Inductive Signals and 22q11 Genes. Professor Anthony Lamantia.

Melanie Louise Bain Gratton, Statistics and Operations Research, Algorithms for Trust-Region Subproblems with Linear Inequality Constraints. Professor Jon W. Tolle.

William Burton Grider, Economics, Gateway Theory in a Dynamic Context: The Effect of Past Substance Use on Current Demand. Professor Donna Gilleskie.

Jeanne Gunther, Education, Illuminating Teacher Change in the Context of a Technologically Mediated Professional Development Program and Early Reading Intervention: A Case Study. Professors Lynne Vernon-Feagans and Marnie Ginsberg.

Tracy Hadden-Loh, City and Regional Planning, Understanding Urban Development and Water Quality through Scenarios. Professor Yan Song.

Jeffrey J. Harden, Political Science, Multidimensional Democracy: The Supply and Demand of Political Representation. Professor Thomas M. Carsey.

Nathan Jay Harris, Biology, The Role of Rap1 in Drosophila Morphogenesis. Professor Mark Peifer.

Susan Wallace Haws, Health Behavior and Health Education, A Multilevel Study of Schools' Influences on Adolescent Substance Use. Professor Susan T. Ennett.

Abby Hoffman, Education, Teacher Attunement: Supporting Students' Peer Experiences in Early Elementary Classrooms. Professor Jill V. Hamm.

John R. Houser, Physics and Astronomy, A Systems Level Analysis of Transcriptional Regulation in the Yeast Mating Response. Professors Richard Superfine and Timothy Elston.

Rolien Hoyng, Communication Studies, Istanbul of Networks: Space, Technology and Governance. Professor Lawrence Grossberg.

Chia-Wen Hsu, Pharmaceutical Sciences, Development of Multiplexable Biosensors to Quantify Spatiotemporal Dynamics of Multiple Rho GTPases and Protein Kinases in the Same Living Cell. Professor Klaus M. Hahn.

Jing Hu, Environmental Sciences and Engineering, Effects of Bioremediation on Bioavailability and Genotoxicity of Contaminants in PAH-Contaminated Soil. Professor Michael D. Aitken.

Joel Wayne Hudley, Geological Sciences, Reconstructing Modern and Pliocene (c. 5.4–2.4 Ma) Decadal Climate Variations in the Paleoenvironments of the Middle Atlantic Bight Using Isotope and Increment Sclerochronology. Professor Donna M. Surge.

Laili Irani, Maternal and Child Health, Family Planning in Urban Kenya: An Examination of the Factors Affecting Contraceptive Use. Professor Ilene S. Speizer.

Robert Brandon Irvin, Psychology, Emotional and Contextual Influences in an Altruistic Decision-Making Task. Professor Joseph Lowman.

Cassandra Baheeya Jabara, Biology, Using Deep Sequencing with a Primer ID to Resolve the Structure of Viral Populations and Reveal Pre-Existing Drug Resistance Mutations in the HIV and HCV Protease Genes. Professors Corbin D. Jones and Ronald Swanstrom.

Karen Elizabeth Jakub, Nursing, Long-Term Adjustment and Reimplantation Surgery in Patients with Implantable Cardioverter Defibrillators. Professor Margarete Sandelowski.

Shannon Zenia Jones, Toxicology, The Identification of Novel Mechanisms to Regulate B Cell Responses during Adaptive Immunity. Professor Barbara J. Vilen.

Ja Hyun Kang, Nursing, Prevention of Healthcare-Associated Infections in U.S. Hospital Settings. Professor Barbara Mark.

Dio Kavalieratos, Health Policy and Management, Exploring the Role of Palliative Care in Heart Failure: Referral Barriers, Care Gaps, and Quality of Care. Professor Morris Weinberger.

Yeuseung Kim, Journalism and Mass Communication, Effects of Source of Customized Recommendations, Type of Product, and Amount of Choice on Consumers' Attitudes. Professor Sriram Kalyanaraman.

Yuri Kim, Geography, Water Balance Change Under Climate and Landuse/Landcover Variability in the North Carolina Piedmont. Professor Lawrence E. Band.

Carlye Yates Kincaid, Psychology, Risk and Resilience among Single Mother Families: A Closer Look at Parenting and Adolescent Outcomes. Professor Deborah J. Jones.

Jessica Klusek, Speech and Hearing Sciences, Pragmatic Language in Autism and Fragile X Syndrome: Links with Physiological Arousal and Anxiety. Professor Molly Losh.

Bethany Ellen Kok, Psychology, Testing a Socio-Autonomic Spiral Model of Social Connection. Professor Barbara L. Fredrickson.

Huai-Ping Lee, Computer Science, Simulation-Based Joint Estimation of Body Deformation and Elasticity Parameters for Medical Image Analysis. Professor Ming C. Lin.

Kim Maureen Lichtveld, Environmental Sciences and Engineering, Using in Vitro Cultured Lung Cell Exposure Systems to Compare the Toxicity of Fresh and Aged Diesel Exhaust Utilizing an Outdoor Smog Chamber. Professors Harvey Jeffries and Kenneth G. Sexton.

Yang Liu, Pharmaceutical Sciences, Pharmacokinetics and Biodistribution of LCP Nanoparticles. Professor Leaf Huang.

Justin Thomas Low, Biochemistry and Biophysics, Structural and Therapeutic Insights from the HIV-1 RNA Genome. Professor Kevin M. Weeks.

Jianzhe Luo, Statistics and Operations Research, Queueing Approaches to Appointment System Design. Professors Vidyadhar G. Kulkarni and Serhan Ziya.

Lindsey Ward Lyles, City and Regional Planning, Stakeholder Network Influences on Local-Level Hazard Mitigation Planning Outputs. Professor Philip R. Berke.

Jennifer Marie Lynn, History, Contested Femininities: Representations of Modern Women in the German Illustrated Press, 1020–1045. Professor Karen Hagemann.

Bonnie Anne Lyon, Environmental Sciences and Engineering, Impact of UV Treatment on Disinfection Byproduct Precursors and Subsequent Byproduct Formation from Chlorine and Chloramine. Professor Howard S. Weinberg.

Laura Haak Marcial, Information and Library Science, Moving beyond the Desktop: Searching for Information with Limited Display Size. Professor Bradley M. Hemminger.

Helen Camp Matthews, Romance Languages, Sugar Turns to Cotton: French Retellings of the Haitian Revolutions and the American Civil War. Professor Dominique Fisher.

Margaret Elizabeth McCormick, Cell and Molecular Physiology, The Adhesion Molecule PECAM-1 Directs Endothelial Nitric Oxide Synthase Activity and Cardiac Function to Regulate Cardiovascular Homeostasis. Professor Carol Otey.

Robert McKeever, Journalism and Mass Communication, Vicarious Experience: The Effects of Message-Induced Empathy on Attitudes toward Individuals with Severe Depression. Professor Daniel Riffe.

Jessica Tsesha Meed, Health Policy and Management, Home Front — Exploring Associations between Household Structure, Coping Strategies and Behavioral Health Visits within the Military. Professor James V. Porto.

Lucia Ingrid Mendez, Speech and Hearing Sciences, A Culturally and Linguistically Responsive Vocabulary Approach for Young Latino Dual Language Learners. Professors Elizabeth Crais and Dina C. Castro.

Alicia Ann Midland, Bioinformatics and Computational Biology, Characterization of the Breast Cancer Kinome. Professors Shawn M. Gomez and Gary L. Johnson.

Stephen Milder, History, "Today the Fish, Tomorrow Us": Anti-Nuclear Activism in the Rhine Valley and Beyond, 1970–1979. Professor Konrad H. Jarausch.

David L. Millman, Computer Science, Degree-Driven Design of Geometric Algorithms for Point Location, Proximity and Volume Calculation. Professor Jack Snoeyink.

Alex Fuller Mills, Statistics and Operations Research, Patient Prioritization and Resource Allocation in Mass Casualty Incidents. Professor Nilay Tanik Argon and Serhan Ziya.

Shalini Minocha, Pharmaceutical Sciences, Investigations into the Mechanisms of Cell Death: The Common Link Between Anticancer Nanotherapeutics and Nanotoxicology. Professor Russell J. Mumper.

Ashley Isaac Naimi, Epidemiology, Causal Inference in Occupational Epidemiology: Asbestos, Lung Cancer Mortality and the Healthy Worker Survivor Effect. Professor Stephen R. Cole.

Scott Philip Nichols, Chemistry, Tissue Integration and Antibacterial Effects of Surface-Derived Nitric-Oxide Release. Professor Mark H. Schoenfisch.

Christopher Robert Noel, Microbiology and Immunology, The FhaB Prodomain of Bordetella Affects the Biogenesis of Filamentous Hemagglutinin, Influencing Bordetella Virulence. Professor Peggy A. Cotter.

Joel Pereira, Mathematics, On the Cohen-Macaulay Property of Quotients of Conical Algebras by Monomial Ideals. Professor James N. Damon.

Elizabeth Grace Pollom, Biochemistry and Biophysics, Structure and Function of Lentiviral Genomic and Messenger RNA. Professor Ronald Swanstrom.

Fernanda Costa de Queirós, Maternal and Child Health, The Effects of Early Life Disabilities on Human Capital Accumulation in Young Adulthood. Professors Carolyn T. Halpern and Anita M. Farel.

Alexander Nathan Raines, Neurobiology, Myosin-X in Neuronal Development. Professor Richard E. Cheney.

William Charles Rice, Physics and Astronomy, Magnetotransport Studies of Metal-Organic Molecule-Metal Structures: Electronic Transport Through Molecular Films of Alkanedithiols and Valence Tautomers. Professor Frank Tsui.

THE CHANCELLOR'S MEDAL

The chancellor's medal, an emblem of the office of chancellor, is worn during the University's ceremonial occasions. The sterling silver disk, which is three inches in diameter and seven ounces Troy weight, was given to the University by John Sanders, professor emeritus and former director of the UNC Institute of Government, and his wife, Ann Beal Sanders. Modeled by sculptor Pete Hinton and bearing the University seal, it was first worn by Chancellor Paul Hardin during the 1994 University Day convocation.

THE FIRST CAROLINA DIPLOMA

In September 1796 Carolina student Davie Gillespie began working with a group of men to determine the Southern boundary of the United States. His instructors gave Gillespie a document to carry as proof that he had been a student at the University of North Carolina. The document, now in the Library of Congress, was signed by his professors and ended with the statement, "We thought it proper to give him this certificate."

The University's first graduating class in 1798 included Hinton James, the first student to enroll. Seven men received the first documents that by today's standards can be called UNC–Chapel Hill diplomas. One of the original diplomas is in the Southern Historical Collection in Wilson Library.

During the University's early years, commencement at Carolina was a time for examinations and promotions to higher classes. There was a commencement, but no degrees awarded and no graduation.

Thorfinn Riday, Neurobiology, Altered Visual Cortical Plasticity and Nigral-Limbic Dopamine Release in Angelman Syndrome Mice. Professor Benjamin Philpot.

Erin MacKenzie Romes, Biochemistry and Biophysics, Structural and Biochemical Analysis of Dynein Light Chain-Mediated Homodimerization of Cytoskeletal and Nuclear Pore Proteins. Professor Kevin C. Slep.

Nora E. Rosenberg, Epidemiology, Assessing the Prevention Impact of HIV Counseling and Testing in the South African Context. Professor Audrey E. Pettifor.

Allison Elizabeth Rovny, Political Science, New Social Risks, Social Policies and Dualization in the Contemporary Welfare State. Professor John D. Stephens.

Marta Sánchez, Education, Por Imaginacion y Amor – El Permanecer del Padre Mexicano a Distancia. For Imagination and Love – The Permanence of the Mexican Father Who Fathers at a Distance. Professor George W. Noblit.

Leah Hope Schinasi, Epidemiology, Environmental, Occupational and Medical Exposures Associated with Methicillin-Resistant Staphylococcus Aureus Nasal Carriage in Patients Admitted to an Eastern North Carolina Hospital. Professor Steve Wing.

Ashley Land Schoenfisch, Epidemiology, The Injury Experience of Union Drywall Carpenters in Washington State, 1989–2008. Professor Steve Marshall.

Naman Kirit Shah, Epidemiology, Reducing Malaria Transmission: The Epidemiology and Treatment of Plasmodium Falciparum Gametocytemia. Professor Steven R. Meshnick.

Junko Shimazoe, Sociology, The Power of Forgotten Opinions: Why an Organization Chooses Inaction over the Public's Safety. Professor Howard E. Aldrich.

Michael Brady Smith, History, Restoring Our Commercial Rights: Silk, Nationalism, Commercial Policy and the Direct Trade Movement in Meiji Japan, 1868–1890. Professor W. Miles Fletcher.

Jamie Robert Snape, Computer Science, Smooth and Collision-Free Navigation for Multiple Mobile Robots and Video Game Characters. Professor Dinesh Manocha.

Sarah Jeanne Stein, Biology, The Role of NF-kB in BCR-ABL-Driven Oncogenic Transformation and in Hematopoiesis. Professor Albert S. Baldwin.

Dori M. Steinberg, Nutrition, Effect of Daily Self-Weighing on Weight Loss in Adults. Professor Deborah F. Tate.

Jordan Thomas Stobaugh, Chemistry, Strategies for Differential Proteomic Analysis by Liquid Chromatography-Mass Spectrometry. Professor James W. Jorgenson.

Daniel Timothy Sweet, Genetics and Molecular Biology, The Adaptor Protein SHC is a Critical Regulator of Angiogenic and Shear Stress Signaling in Endothelial Cells. Professor Eleni Tzima.

Ghadeer Thalji, Dentistry, Oral Biology; Genome-Wide Assessment of Early Osseointegration in Implant-Adherent Cells. Professor Lyndon F. Cooper.

Jeromy Tompkins, Physics and Astronomy, Polarized Photofission Fragment Angular Distributions of 232Th and 238U. Professor Hugon J. Karwowski.

Rachana Rao Umashankar, Anthropology, Defending Sufism, Defining Islam: Asserting Islamic Identity in India. Professors James L. Peacock and Lauren G. Leve.

Rachel Dyane Upton, Psychology, Examining Characteristics, Motivations and Career Goals of Black Students Who Attend Historically Black Colleges and Law Schools. Professor Abagail T. Panter.

Carmina G. Valle, Nutrition, Examining the Use of Online Social Networking to Improve Physical Activity Behaviors among Young Adult Cancer Survivors. Professors Deborah F. Tate and Marci K. Campbell.

Nicole Marie Vincent Jordan, Pharmacology, Epigenetic Regulation of Epithelial-Mesenchymal Transition in Epithelial Stem Cells and Triple Negative Breast Cancer. Professor Gary L. Johnson.

Ashley Rae Ward, Geography, Echoes in a Changing Urban Landscape: Memories and Place Identity in Durham, North Carolina. Professor Stephen Birdsall.

Heather Wasser, Nutrition, Non-Maternal Involvement in Feeding and the Development of Obesogenic Diets among Infants and Toddlers. Professor Margaret E. Bentley.

Stephanie Elaine Watkins, Epidemiology, Interventional Physical and Occupational Therapy Services and Motor Coordination Among Low Birth Weight Infants. Professor Julie Daniels.

Buddy Allan Whitman, Neurobiology, Neuroimmune Consequences of Chronic Alcohol Exposure: Relationship to Stress. Professor George R. Breese.

David Christopher Williard, History, "What a Fall Was There — My Country Ruined!": Confederate Soldiers and Southern Society, 1861–1880. Professor William L. Barney.

Leah Anne Wingard, Chemistry, Accessing Intermediate and High Oxidation States with Tungsten and Iridium Pincer Complexes. Professor Joseph L. Templeton.

Todd D. Woodruff, Business Administration, Goal Influence in Organizational Identification and Post-Choice Behavior. Professor Jan Benedict Steenkamp.

Holly Worthen, Geography, The Presence of Absence: Indigenous Migration, a Ghost Town and the Remaking of Gendered Communal Systems in Oaxaca, Mexico. Professor Wendy W. Wolford.

DOCTOR OF PUBLIC HEALTH

Emily Anne Colby, Biostatistics, Methods for Population Pharmacokinetics and Pharmacodynamics. Professors Eric Bair and Gary Koch.

Sarthak Das, Health Policy and Management, Retention of Patients on Antiretroviral Therapy in the Highlands of Papua New Guinea. Professor Sandra Greene.

Nnekae Ijoma Emenyonu, Health Policy and Management, Barriers to HIV Care in Rural Uganda. Professor Sandra Greene.

Gina Suzanne Ogilvie, Health Policy and Management, Intention of Women to Receive Cervical Cancer Screening in the Era of Human Papillomarvirus Testing. Professor Suzanne Hobbs.

Jennifer Platt, Health Policy and Management, Institutionalizing Sanitation: A Mixed Methods Assessment of the Role of the Health Ministry in Developing Countries. Professor Sandra Greene.

John Michael Wiesman, Health Policy and Management, Succession Planning and Management Practice in Washington State Local Public Health Agencies: The Current Situation and Recommendations for Better Practice. Professor Edward L. Baker Jr.

Yue Zhao, Biostatistics, Sensitivity Analyses of Time-to-Event Data with Possibly Informative Censoring for Confirmatory Clinical Trials. Professors Gary G. Koch and Amy H. Herring.

The School of Education

ESTABLISHED 1885

Dean G. Williamson McDiarmid

DOCTOR OF EDUCATION

Marguerita Best, Educational Leadership, Assistant Principals and Reform: A Socialization Paradox? Professor Catherine Marshall.

Pamela Renee Hill-Cunningham, Curriculum and Instruction, Testing Technology: Administering Mathematics Assessments in Kindergarten and First Grade. Professors Susan Friel and Barbara D. Day.

Derrick Jordan, Educational Leadership, Looking Beyond School Walls: Examining the Impact of Superintendent Longevity on Teachers' Perceptions of their Working Conditions. Professor Fenwick English.

Jacqueline Jordan, Educational Leadership, Why Can't We Have It All? The Conflict between the Principalship and Motherhood. Professor Catherine Marshall

Mia Murphy, Educational Leadership, The Self-Perception of Leadership Efficacy of Alternative School Principals and Its Relationship to Student Achievement in the Era of Reform and Accountability. Professor Fenwick English.

Eva Phillips, Curriculum and Instruction, An Examination of the Relationship between Kindergarten Children's Access to Developmentally Appropriate Practices and Their Success on Measures of Literacy. Professor Sharon Ritchie.

Matthew Proto, Educational Leadership, The Effect of Structural Adaptation on School Turnaround. Professor Kathleen Brown.

TAR HEELS

The University uses the nickname "Tar Heels," and the entire state does as well. One version of the nickname's origin has the name first being applied to North Carolinians during the Civil War. One record talks of a battle in Virginia, where their supporting column retreated, but North Carolina troops stood alone to fight successfully. The victorious troops were asked in a condescending tone by some Virginians, who had retreated, "Any more tar down in the Old North State, boys?" The response came quickly: "No, not a bit; old Jeff's bought it all up." The Virginians asked: "Is that so? What is he going to do with it?" The reply: "He is going to put it on you'ns heels to make you stick better in the next fight."

THE OLD WELL

At the heart of the campus stands the visual symbol of the University of North Carolina at Chapel Hill. For many years the Old Well served as the sole water supply for Old East and Old West dormitories. In 1897, the well was given its present decorative form at the direction of President Edwin A. Alderman, who described his beautification project as largely derived from the Temple of Love in the Garden of Versailles. In 1954, the well was given added beauty with brick walks, plantings and benches. Legend holds that students can bring good luck with a drink from the Old Well on the first day of classes.

A MESSAGE to CAROLINA'S NEWEST ALUMNI

Congratulations! You are now graduates of the University of North Carolina at Chapel Hill. Let your General Alumni Association help you make a seamless transition from students to alumni — no matter where you find yourselves after graduation. Visit alumni.unc.edu/youngalumni.

GETTING STARTED

Don't miss out on special invitations and services. Call (877) 377-7125 or visit alumni.unc.edu/update to keep your official University record updated. Jump start your network with Carolina alumni — join the GAA's groups on Facebook and LinkedIn.

ALUMNI CAREER SERVICES

Networking is the most effective approach to finding a job. The GAA can connect you with more than 7,000 alumni volunteers in our Alumni Advisor Network who can help you explore career options.

GAA members from the Class of 2012 have full access (phone, email or in person) to the GAA's certified career coach for one year following graduation. If you're thinking about grad school, GAA members also receive discounts on Kaplan prep courses.

FINDING OTHER TAR HEELS IN YOUR AREA

- Local Carolina Clubs can be found in nearly 100 cities around the globe. Socialize, network, cheer on the Heels and continue that spirit of Tar Heel service within your community.
- The GAA's Online Alumni Directory can help you develop a network like no other. The directory includes nearly 270,000 former Carolina students.

TRUSTED INFORMATION SOURCE

The "Carolina Alumni Review," the "Out of the Blue" e-newsletter, the GAA's Twitter feed and alumni.unc.edu can keep you updated on the University's achievements and challenges as well as what's going on in Chapel Hill.

Congratulations again. We hope you'll choose to join the nearly 70,000 GAA members who remain connected and help serve Carolina and our students — past, present and future. The GAA offers new grads a one-year membership for only $25 — a $20 savings off our annual dues rate. Or save $50 on life membership — only $28.25/month for 24 months.

For more information on how the Association serves new graduates, please call Brandon Copeland '12 or Diana Koonce '02 at (800) 962-0742 or email membership@unc.edu. Visit us on the Web at alumni.unc.edu.

COMMENCEMENT MUSIC

The University's beloved alma mater, "Hark the Sound," evokes the feelings of loyalty and friendship that students, alumni and true blue Tar Heels everywhere have for Carolina. The orchestral marches that accompany the commencement processional are equally memorable for their power and splendor. They are truly fitting musical celebrations of the talent and achievements of UNC-Chapel Hill's visiting dignitaries, faculty and graduates.

During today's commencement ceremony, members of the academic processional will be welcomed by the fanfare brass, woodwinds and drums of Nikolai Rimsky-Korsakov's "Procession of the Nobles" and Richard Strauss' "Konigsmarsch." Rimsky-Korsakov wrote his majestic march to open the second act of the opera-ballet "Mlada," which premiered in Saint Petersburg, Russia, in 1892. Strauss premiered the flourishing "Konigsmarsch" at a palace concert in Berlin in 1907.

The new graduates will exit the ceremony while hearing familiar Carolina melodies in "Tar Heel Rhapsody," a composition written specifically for the University that features its school songs.

THE BICENTENNIAL STAFF

The faculty marshal carries the bicentennial staff while leading the faculty processional on ceremonial occasions such as Commencement and University Day. The staff, commissioned for the University's 1993 bicentennial celebration by John Sanders, professor emeritus and former director of the UNC Institute of Government, and his wife, Ann Beal Sanders, was modeled by sculptor Pete Hinton. It consists of a sterling silver three-inch-high replica of the Old Well mounted on a turned and tapered oak shaft. The shaft was made from timber salvaged from the 1822 section of Old West residence hall during its 1991–1993 renovation.

DEGREES WITH DISTINCTION

To graduate with distinction or with highest distinction, undergraduate students must have completed at least 45 academic hours at UNC–Chapel Hill and have an overall grade point average of at least 3.5 or 3.8, respectively.

UNDERGRADUATE HONORS PROGRAM

The Honors Program offers exceptionally well-qualified first-year students, sophomores and juniors an opportunity to take part of their general education curriculum in special honors seminars and honors sections. Honors seminars are special topics courses, limited in enrollment to 15 students and taught by outstanding members of the University faculty. Honors sections of regular departmental course offerings are also limited in enrollment and are taught by permanent members of the University faculty. Honors seminars and sections emphasize critical reading, class discussion and expository writing.

Senior departmental honors programs are provided for students who have demonstrated a very high level of scholastic ability and achievement and who desire to pursue an intensive, individualized program of study in their major discipline. Honors studies ordinarily consist of one or more of the following: the preparation of an honors thesis or essay, an independent research or reading program, an artistic performance or exhibition, or the completion of advanced course work in the major not normally required of students in that major. It is on the basis of participation in senior honors that a student may be graduated from the University "with Honors" or "with Highest Honors."

GRADUATE DEGREES

The Graduate School

ESTABLISHED 1903

Dean Steven W. Matson

DOCTOR OF PHILOSOPHY

Lee M. Adcock III, Education, Re-Casting the Hollywood Indian: Technology Integration at Sequoyah Schools. Professor Cheryl Mason Bolick.

Caroline Bliss Adelman, Psychology, Examination of Concurrent and Longitudinal Associations among Emotional Reactivity to Stress, Interpersonal Problem-Solving and Adolescent Nonsuicidal Self-Injury. Professor Mitchel J. Prinstein.

Robert Erle Barham, English, Rhetorical Failure in English Renaissance Literature. Professor Jessica Wolfe.

James Berry, Business, Do We Have Creative Differences? How We Construe Creativity Influences: The Salience of Novelty and Usefulness. Professor David A. Hofmann.

Rebecca H. Best, Political Science, Negotiation in the Shadow of an Extremist Threat: Insurgencies and the Internal Commitment Problem. Professor Navin Bapat.

Allison Margaret Bigelow, English, Mining Empire, Planting Empire: The Colonial Scientific Literatures of the Americas. Professor Timothy Marr.

Laura E. Blue, Chemistry, Synthesis, Physical Characterization, and Chromatographic Performance of 1.7 μm and 1.1 μm Superficially Porous Particles Packed in Capillary Columns for Liquid Chromatography. Professor James W. Jorgenson.

Angela Yarnell Bonino, Speech and Hearing Sciences, The Effect of Signal-Temporal Uncertainty during Childhood. Professor Lori J. Leibold.

Heather Lee Branstetter, English, An Alfa-Omega Approach to Rhetorical Invention: Queer Revolutionary Pragmatism and Political Education. Professors Jordynn Jack and Jane Danielewicz.

Anna Brigevich, Political Science, Territorial Identity Configurations in the European Union: The Impact of Regional Identity on Attachment to Europe and Support for Integration. Professor Liesbet Hooghe.

Emily Suzanne Brouwer, Epidemiology, Myocardial Infarction among HIV-Infected Patients Enrolled in the North Carolina Medicaid Program. Professor Til Sturmer.

Randy M. Browne, History, Surviving Slavery: Politics, Power and Authority in the British Caribbean, 1807–1834. Professor John Wood Sweet.

Jessica Caroline Cardenas, Pathology, The Role of P16 ^{Ink4A} Expression in the Age-Related Risk of Venous Thromboembolism. Professor Frank C. Church.

David Cavallo, Nutrition, Using Online Social Network Technology to Increase Social Support for Physical Activity: The Internet Support for Healthy Associations Promoting Exercise (INSHAPE) Study. Professor Alice S. Ammerman.

Fernando Chague, Economics, Conditional Betas: Asymmetric Responses to Good and Bad News. Professor Eric Ghysels.

Roseanne Marie Cheng, Physics and Astronomy, Tidal Disruption of a Star by a Massive Black Hole Computed in Fermi Normal Coordinates. Professor Charles R. Evans.

Karen Ann Cherkis, Genetics and Molecular Biology, Structural Analyses of AvrRpm1 and HopBA1: Two TTSS Effectors from the Plant Phytopathogen Pseudomonas Syringae. Professors Jeffery L. Dangl and John E. Sondek.

Alexandros Christodoulou, Psychology, Variation in Word Duration and Planning. Professor Jennifer E. Arnold.

Damien Croteau-Chonka, Genetics and Molecular Biology, Genetic Contributions to Obesity and Related Complex Traits in the Cebu Longitudinal Health and Nutrition Survey. Professor Karen L. Mohlke.

Boyi Dai, Human Movement Science, The Relationships between Performance and ACL Loading during Athletic Tasks. Professor Bing Yu.

Carrie Duncan, Religious Studies, The Rhetoric of Participation: Gender and Representation in Ancient Synagogues. Professor Jodi Magness.

Margaret Elizabeth Duncan, Pharmacology, Characterization of Mechanisms of Antibiotic Resistance in Neisseria Gonorrhoeae. Professor Robert A. Nicholas.

Alan R. Ellis, Social Work, Effortful Control, Social Information Processing and the Prevention of Aggression in Elementary Schools. Professor Mark W. Fraser.

Sherine El-Toukhy, Journalism and Mass Communication, Priming Optimism: The Automaticity of Health Risk Perceptions. Professor Jane D. Brown.

Matthew Barker Fariss, Anthropology, Gallinazo Phase Migration in the Moche Valley, Peru. Professor Brian R. Billman.

Megan Freeman, Psychology, Gene-Environment Interaction in Early Onset Bipolar Disorder. Professor Eric A. Youngstrom.

Nathan Geraldi, Marine Sciences, Oyster Reef Ecology and Restoration: Findings from Field and Mesocosm Studies. Professor Charles H. Peterson.

Rudresh Ghosh, Physics and Astronomy, Metal Oxide Thin Film Growth by Laser Ablation and Its Applications in High Surface Area Photoanodes. Professor Rene Lopez.

Arthur Gibb, Political Science, Implementing U.S. Security Strategy in the 21st Century: A Three-Part Examination of the Evolving Role of the Military in American Foreign and Security Policy. Professor Mark J. C. Crescenzi.

Clare Marks Gibson, Psychology, An Investigation of the Effects of Oxytocin on Social Cognition and Social Functioning in Schizophrenia. Professor David L. Penn.

Cary Gillenwater, Education, Graphic Novels in Advanced English/ Language Arts Classrooms: A Phenomenological Case Study. Professor Madeleine Grumet.

Benjamin McMillen Goerger, Human Movement Science, The Effect of Anterior Cruciate Ligament Injury and Reconstruction on Lower Extremity Biomechanics, Coordination and Variability. Professor Darin A. Padua.

Jason Rosenbaum Goldsmith, Pharmacology, Mechanisms of Mu Opioid Receptor Mediated Protection from Multiple Models of Acute Injury. Professor Christian Jobin.

Inmaculada Gomez Soler, Linguistics, Acquiring Spanish at the Interfaces: An Integrative Approach to the L2 Acquisition of Psych-Verbs. Professor Misha Becker.

Susanne Gomoluch, Germanic Languages, Redeeming the Imagination: The Case Study, Literature and Medical Discourse around 1800. Professor Jonathan Hess.

Donald Lee Goss, Human Movement Science, A Comparison of Lower Extremity Joint Work and Initial Loading Rates among Four Different Running Styles. Professor Michael T. Gross.

Joshua Michael Gray, Geography, Understanding Regional Water Resource Dynamics Due to Land-Cover/Land-Use and Climate Changes in the North Carolina Piedmont. Professor Conghe Song.

John D. Guerry, Psychology, Towards a Biopsychosocial Model of Adolescent Self-Injurious Thoughts and Behaviors. Professor Mitchell J. Prinstein.

Mustafa Haluk Guler, Economics, Housing Wealth Effects Mechanism and the Monetary Policy Transmission in Turkey. Professor Richard T. Froyen.

Stephen J. Guy, Computer Science, Geometric Collision Avoidance for Heterogeneous Crowd Simulation. Professors Ming C. Lin and Dinesh Manocha.

Shawnya L. Harris, Art History, Conceptualizing African American Art: The Market, Academic Discourse and Public Reception. Professor Lyneise E. Williams.

Hannah Reed Harwood, School Psychology, The Relationship between Attention Problems, Internalizing Symptons and Quality of Life in Youth Receiving Outpatient Services. Professors Eric A. Youngstrom and Barbara H. Wasik.

Qianchuan He, Biostatistics, Variable Selection, Sparse Meta-Analysis and Genetic Risk Prediction for Genome-Wide Association Studies. Professor Danyu Lin and Hao Zhang.

Pamela Rose Hesker, Genetics and Molecular Biology, Defining the Function of Pyrin, the Familial Mediterranean Fever-Associated Protein, in Inflammation. Professor Beverly H. Koller.

Jeremy Dale Hilburn, Education, High School Teachers' Perceptions of Teaching Civics to Immigrant Students in a New Gateway State. Professor Xue L. Rong.

Christen Feldmann Holly, Public Policy, The Discretion-Capacity Framework: A Conceptual Approach to Analyzing the Dynamics of Federalism and Social Policy. Professor Daniel Gitterman.

Jasmine Ti Hudepohl, Psychology, Generalized Restriction: Understanding Anorexia Nervosa in an Interpersonal Context. Professor Donald H. Baucom.

Colin Hughes, Chemistry, Total Synthesis of the Proposed Structure of Aldingenin B. Professor Michael T. Crimmins.

Dwight W. Irvin, Education, Factors Affecting Adult Talk in the Inclusive Classroom and the Socially Competent Behavior of Preschoolers with Autism Spectrum Disorder. Professors Brian A. Boyd and Harriet Able.

Ning Jin, Computer Science, Discriminative Subgraph Pattern Mining and Its Applications. Professor Wei Wang.

Hoa Van Le, Epidemiology, Evaluation of the Performance of the High-Dimensional Propensity Score Algorithm to Adjust for Confounding of Treatment Effects Estimated in Healthcare Claims Data. Professor Til Stürmer.

Brandyn Gregory Rogers Lee, Mathematics, A Comparison of Eigencones under Certain Diagram Automorphism. Professor Shrawan Kumar.

Steven Leigh, Human Movement Science, The Influence of Technique on Throwing Performance and Injury Risk in Javelin Throwers. Professor Bing Yu.

Steven Morgan Lewis, Biochemistry and Biophysics, Computational Protein Interface Design and Prediction with Experimental Constraints. Professor Brian Kuhlman.

Colin Lickwar, Genetics and Molecular Biology, The Role of Set2, Transcription Factor Residence and Nucleosome Spacing in the Dynamic Access of Genomic Information. Professor Jason Lieb.

Cathay Liu, Philosophy, Unification in Descartes' Philosophy of Mathematics. Professor Alan J. Nelson.

Katy Liu, Cell and Molecular Physiology, Functions of Myosin-X in Polarized Epithelial Cells. Professor Richard E. Cheney.

Dendy D. Lofton, Environmental Sciences and Engineering, Factors Regulating Methane Production and Oxidation in Two Shallow Arctic Alaskan Lakes. Professor Stephen C. Whalen.

Diane Losardo, Psychology, An Examination of Initial Condition Specification in the Structural Equations Modeling Framework. Professor Sy-Miin Chow.

David S. Lowry, Anthropology, For the Healing of the Nations: Lumbee Indian Community, Christian Missions and the Transformative Power of Intervention. Professor James Peacock.

Matthew Lubin, History, Aftermath of War: Cypriot Christians and Mediterranean Geopolitics, 1571–1625. Professor Melissa M. Bullard.

Winnie Kavulani Luseno, Maternal and Child Health, Effect of the Mchinji Social Cash Transfer Pilot Scheme on Children's Schooling, Work and Health Outcomes: A Multilevel Study Using Experimental Data. Professor Kavita Singh Ongechi.

Ping Ma, Pharmaceutical Sciences, Drug-Loaded Lipid Nanoparticles for Improved Cancer Treatment: Engineering, In-Vitro and In-Vivo Evaluation. Professor Russell J. Mumper.

Leah Jill Sirkus McGrath, Epidemiology, Influenza Vaccine Effectiveness among Patients on Hemodialysis: Methods to Control the Healthy-User Bias. Professor M. Alan Brookhart.

Jessica Tsesha Meed, Health Policy and Management, Home Front — Exploring Associations between Household Structure, Coping Strategies and Behavorial Health Visits within the Military. Professor James V. Porto.

William J. Meyer Jr., Anthropology, Home of the Living, Land of the Dead: Dwelling with the Bronze and Iron Age Tombs of Southern Burgundy. Professor Carole L. Crumley.

Stephen Andrew Miller, Chemistry, Ultrafast Dynamics in Nanomaterials: From Gold Clusters to Dye-Sensitized Semiconductors. Professor Andrew M. Moran.

Maria Minakova, Chemistry, Advanced Computer Simulations of Nanomaterials and Stochastic Biological Processes. Professors Garegin A. Papoian and John M. Papanikolas.

Hayley Mitchell, School Psychology, A Longitudinal Examination of Father Involvement and Its Effects on the Social, Emotional and Economic Outcomes of Adult Offspring. Professor Barbara H. Wasik.

Ilyse R. Morgenstein Fuerst, Religious Studies, Religions of Empire: Islamicate Texts, Imperial Taxonomies and South Asian Definitions of Religion. Professor Carl W. Ernst.

Zsolt Nagy, History, Grand Delusions: Interwar Hungarian Cultural Diplomacy, 1918–1941. Professor Chad Bryant.

Britton White Newman, Romance Languages, The Narrative of Censorship in Cuban Novels of the 1990s. Professor Rosa Perelmuter.

Ijeoma J. Nwabuzor, Social Work, Examining the Risk of Out-of-Home Placement among Child Welfare Involved Families Victimized by Domestic Violence. Professor Mark F. Testa.

Emily Anna Oblath, Chemistry, Microfluidic Devices for Performing Multiplexed Immunoassays and Nucleic Acid Tests. Professor J. Michael Ramsey.

Stephen Lecler Olivier, Computer Science, Locality Awareness for Task Parallel Computation. Professor Jan F. Prins.

Timothy Gerald Otten, Environmental Sciences and Engineering, Ecophysiology and Toxigenicity of Cyanobacterial Assemblages: Molecular Insights into Toxin Production — With Emphasis on Microcystins. Professor Hans W. Paerl.

Sakiko Oyama, Human Movement Science, Effects of Trunk Movement on Pitching Biomechanics and Performance in High School Baseball Pitchers. Professor Joseph B. Myers.

Jessica Hyui-Su Park, Chemistry, Design of Beta-Haiprins and Beta-Sheets for Molecular Recognition. Professor Marcey L. Waters.

Sarah Elizabeth Parker, Comparative Literature, Contrary Signs: Categorizing Illness in Early Modern Literature. Professor Jessica L. Wolfe.

Sharon Denise Parker, Social Work, Incarcerated Women: Exploring the Interrelatedness of Intimate Partner Violence, Drug Use and HIV Risk Behaviors. Professor Catherine Fogel.

Michael Vincent Paulauskas, History, Moscow on the Potomac: The Soviet Embassy and Detente, 1969–1979. Professor Donald J. Raleigh.

Jolynn Pek, Psychology, Fungible Parameter Contours and Confidence Regions in Structural Equation Models. Professor Robert C. MacCallum.

David Phillips, English, Black Blood/Red Ink: Fact, Fiction, and Authorial Self-Representation in Vladimir Nabokov's Look at the Harlequins!, Marguerite Duras' L'Amant De La Chine Du Nord, and Philip Roth's Operation Shylock: A Confession. Professor John McGowan.

Felix Portnoy, Information Science, Avoiding Ad Avoidance: Factors Affecting the Perception of Online Banner Ads. Professor Gary Marchionini.

Martha Priedeman Skiles, Maternal and Child Health, An Equity Analysis of Performance-Based Financing in Rwanda. Professor Sian Curtis.

Angela Proctor, Chemistry, Development of Peptidase-Resistant Peptide Substrates for Measurement of Protein Kinase B and Bcr-Abl Kinase Activity. Professor Nancy L. Allbritton.

Diana Marie Rancourt, Psychology, Potential Mechanism of Peer Influence on Adolescent Girls' Disordered Eating Behavior: An Experimental Design. Professor Mitchell J. Prinstein.

Billye N. Rhodes, Education, "We Can Speak for Ourselves": Parent Involvement and Ideologies of Black Mothers in an Urban Community. Professor George W. Noblit.

Vanesa Ribas, Sociology, On the Line: The Working Lives of Latinos and African Americans in the New South. Professor Jacqueline M. Hagan.

Jennifer Elise Ringberg, Anthropology, Daily Life at Cerro León, an Early Intermediate Period Highland Settlement in the Moche Valley, Peru. Professor Brian R. Billman.

Melinda Margaret Roberts, Biology, Genetic Regulation of Cell Death and Disease Resistance in Arabidopsis. Professor Jeffery L. Dangl.

Jason Michael Rochette, Chemistry, Versatile Routes to Photo-Responsive Polyesters for Dual and Triple Shape Memory Biomaterials. Professor Valerie S. Ashby.

Derek Alan Rodriguez, Information and Library Science, Developing the "Understanding Library Impacts Protocol": A Method for Detecting and Communicating Academic Library Impact on Student Learning. Professor Helen R. Tibbo.

Hongyu Ru, Statistics, Statistical Analysis of Financial Time Series and Risk Management. Professors Eric Ghysels and Chuanshu Ji.

Megan Arlene Rúa, Ecology, The Role of Mutualists in Plant Response to Pathogen Infection. Professor Charles E. Mitchell.

Brandon Sams, Education, Reading Acts: An Inquiry into Reading and Teaching. Professor Madeleine Grumet.

Magdalena Traico Sandor, Physics and Astronomy, NMR Study of Local Magnetism, Anelastic Deformation and Liquid Behavior of Bulk Metallic Glasses. Professor Yue Wu.

Ozge Savascin, Economics, Endogenously Clustered Factor Approach to Macroeconomics. Professor Neville R. Francis.

Sarah Shair-Rosenfield, Political Science, Electoral Reform, Party System Evolution and Democracy in Contemporary Indonesia. Professor Jonathan Hartlyn.

Dan Shen, Statistics, Sparse PCA Asymptotics and Analysis of Tree Data. Professors Steve Marron and Haipeng Shen.

Aram Shepherd, English, The Contours of America: Latin America and the Borders of Modernist Literature in the United States. Professor María DeGuzmán.

Jennifer Gentry Shields, Environmental Sciences and Engineering, Utilization of Microbial Source-Tracking Markers to Inform Targeted Remediation and Predict Potential Pathogens in High Priority Surface Waters. Professor Jill Stewart.

Cheryl Ann Smith-Miller, Nursing, Type 2 Diabetes Self-Management: Influences on Nutritional Practices and Physical Activity among Spanish-Speaking Limited-English Hispanics. Professor Diane C. Berry.

Jesica Speed, Communication Studies, Working Artists. Professors Madeleine R. Grumet and Steve K. May.

Kimberly Michelle Steward, Chemistry, Strategies for the Synthesis and Use of β-Stereogenic α-Keto Esters. Professor Jeffrey S. Johnson.

Andrew Stuart, Chemistry, Optimization and Characterization of New Materials to Enhance Performance of Polymer Solar Cells. Professor Wei You.

Wei Sun, Pharmaceutical Sciences, Develop Small Molecule Regulators of GTPase-Activating Proteins of ADP-Ribosylation Factors (ARFGAPs). Professor Qisheng Zhang.

Elizabeth Thill, Classics, Cultural Constructions: Depictions of Architecture in Roman State Reliefs. Professor Monika Truemper.

David Biaozhi Wei, Pharmaceutical Sciences, Economic Evaluation of Biological Therapy Use among Patients with Crohn's Disease. Professor Joel F. Farley.

Erich Alan Werner, English, Rants, Reactions and Other Rhetorics: Genres of the YouTube Vlog. Professor Jordynn Jack and Daniel Anderson.

Sarah Taves Whitley, Neurobiology, Investigating the Glial Contribution to Persistent Neuropathic Pain. Professor Ken McCarthy.

Elizabeth Marie Widen, Nutrition, Applying a Mother-Infant Dyad Perspective to Examine the Nutritional Interrelationships of HIV-Infected Malawian Mothers and Their Exclusively Breastfed Infants. Professor Linda Adair.

David C. Anderson Wiltshire, Classics, "Hopeful Joy": A Study of Laetus in Vergil's Aeneid. Professor James J. O'Hara.

Amy C. Wollish, Microbiology and Immunology, Contributions of the Host Immune Response to Control and Protection upon Infection with a Neurovirulent Alphavirus. Professor Mark T. Heise.

Jordan Womick, Chemistry, Nonlinear Optical Studies of Natural and Artificial Light Harvesting Antennae. Professor Andrew Moran.

Tong-Yng Wu, Biomedical Engineering, Novel Cheminformatics Methods for Modeling Biomolecular Data in High Dimension Low Sample Size (HDLSS) Chemistry Space. Professors David Lalush and Alexander Tropsha.

Hao Xu, Computer Science, How to Efficiently Implement an OSHL-Based Automatic Theorem Prover. Professor David Plaisted.

Weichen Xu, Pharmaceutical Sciences, Peptide-Based Biosensors and Light-Activatable Proteins: Tools for Studying Cell Signaling and Developing Cancer Diagnosis. Professor David Lawrence.

Liqiang Yang, Materials Science, Design Strategies for Polymer Solar Cells of High Efficiency and Low Cost: Materials, Interface and Device Structures. Professors Wei You and Edward Samulski.

Susan Elaine Young, Nursing, A Qualitative Analysis of Aftercare Service Provision for Survivors of Sex Trafficking in North Carolina. Professor Diane Kjervik.

DOCTOR OF PUBLIC HEALTH

Thomas Price Britton, Health Policy and Management, Mandated Treatment, 12-Step Support Groups, and Criminal Recidivism Policy Implications and Perspective. Professor Peggy Leatt.

Kristine E. Shields, Health Policy and Management, The Participation of Pregnant Women in Clinical Research: Implications for Practice within the U.S. Pharmaceutical Industry. Professors John E. Paul and Suzanne H. Hobbs.

The School of Education

ESTABLISHED 1885

Dean G. Williamson McDiarmid

Sharon Bond, Curriculum and Instruction, Secondary Science and Mathematics Teachers' Perceptions of Support and Induction. Professor Rita O'Sullivan.

John Wheeler, Educational Leadership, N.C. Superintendent Turnover. Professor Fenwick English.

ACADEMIC DRESS

The following information, based in part on An Academic Costume Code and Ceremony Guide (published by the American Council on Education), may be helpful in identifying academic attire worn during UNC's Commencement exercises.

DEGREE CANDIDATES' REGALIA. The University's bachelor's gown was redesigned last year by award-winning colorist and fashion designer Alexander Julian — a Chapel Hill native and UNC alumnus — to be both Carolina blue and truly green, as in sustainably made. The fabric for the new True Blue gown is made from 100 percent post-consumer recycled plastic bottles (23 bottles for each gown) and is manufactured at mills in the Carolinas. The information about the gown's sustainability is suitably printed directly on the cloth, without the use of an extra label. In addition to being dyed a custom Carolina blue color, the True Blue gowns also have a more streamlined fit, white piping along the yoke and two white panels in front. The new tassels are blue and white, topped with a silver-colored Old Well medallion. An optional accessory is an embroidered white stole that the graduate may give to a parent in gratitude after the Commencement ceremony.

The untrimmed, black master's gown has a hood and an oblong sleeve, open at the wrist, that hangs nearly to the ground; the back part of its oblong shape is square cut and the arc in the front is cut away. The hooded doctoral gown features three bars across each sleeve. In 1999, the Faculty Council authorized a special doctoral gown for Carolina graduates. It is Carolina blue, with facings and crossbars of dark blue outlined in white piping. The facings bear the shield of the University supported by the torches of learning.

The hoods of master's and doctoral degree candidates vary in color according to the field of study (see list below).

FACULTY REGALIA. Faculty wear the regalia of the institution that conferred their highest degree. The doctoral gowns are usually faced with black velvet, although the color of the velvet may vary according to the field of study. Hoods, which differ in length according to the level of the degree held, are lined with official colors of the university or college that conferred the degree, usually with one color forming a chevron pattern over the other. Some colors you will see on faculty and administrators' robes are, for example, the crimson of Harvard, the maroon of Chicago, the orange and black of Princeton, the dark blue of Yale, and the light blue and white of North Carolina.

Like the hoods of master's and doctoral degree candidates, faculty hoods are edged and bound with velvet in the color appropriate to the field of study. The colors in the hoods and gowns of faculty and administrators represent the following fields in which degrees were taken:

APRICOT: Nursing
BROWN: Fine Arts
CITRON: Social Work
CRIMSON: Journalism
DARK BLUE: Philosophy
GOLDEN YELLOW: Science
GREEN: Medicine
LEMON YELLOW: Library Science
LIGHT BLUE: Education
LILAC: Dentistry
OLIVE GREEN: Pharmacy
ORANGE: Engineering
PEACOCK BLUE: Public Administration
PINK: Music
PURPLE: Law
SAGE GREEN: Physical Education
SALMON PINK: Public Health
SCARLET: Theology
YELLOW BROWN: Commerce, Business, Accountancy
WHITE: Arts, Letters, Humanities

UNIVERSITY COLORS

As symbols of unity among Carolina students, alumni and fans, the school colors of light blue and white were first used around 1800 to distinguish between members of the Dialectic and Philanthropic Literary Societies. Throughout the 19th century, students were required to be members of either the Di or the Phi. The Di's color was light blue, and the Phi's was white. At University commencements, balls and other social events, the student officials, managers and marshals wore the color of their society, blue or white. Because the chief marshal or chief ball manager represented the whole student body, not just his society, he wore both colors. When the University fielded its first intercollegiate athletic teams in 1888, the question of what colors to wear had already been answered. Light blue and white had come to symbolize membership in the University, not in a single society.

THE UNIVERSITY SEAL

The University seal typically appears on diplomas and graduation materials, grade transcripts and documents that indicate accomplishment in or on behalf of the University. The first seal of the University of North Carolina, designed in 1790, showed the face of Apollo and his emblem, the rising sun, used to symbolize the dawn of higher education in the state. The words "sigul universitat carol septent" (Seal of the University of North Carolina) surrounded the drawing. A modification in 1895 added lighted torches of learning beside Apollo's profile. Two years later another alteration replaced Apollo's head with a shield on which the words Lux (light) and Libertas (liberty), separated by a white band running from the upper right to the lower left of the shield, appeared. In the 1940s, some observers mistakenly claimed the white stripe on the shield was a bend sinister, a heraldic code that was demeaning. In truth, the stripe was a bar sinister and merely denoted a second or later son. Still, the direction of the stripe was reversed, removing any question of stigma. Today's seal is the same as the 1897 version, except the stripe runs from the upper left to the lower right.

MESSAGE from the CHANCELLOR

Dear Graduates and Families:

The University of North Carolina is the oldest public institution of higher education in the country. It embodies the hopes for a democratic nation and the promise that education could make that democracy and the world better for future generations. We still believe in that promise at Carolina, and that is why we celebrate your graduation today.

The world has changed a lot since you entered UNC, and it needs you. Thanks to your Carolina education, you are ready for it. You have learned how to propose new ideas and have gained a worldview to understand their implications. You know the importance of extending opportunities to everyone.

On behalf of our faculty and staff, thank you to all the family members and friends who helped you through your educational journey. We know that you could not have done it without their love and support.

Welcome to the ranks of Tar Heel alumni who have gone out into the world and made a difference. We know you will, too. Carolina and Chapel Hill will be here for you. No matter where you go, you can count on our love and support. We can't wait to hear from you.

Hark the Sound!

ALMA MATER

The words of "Hark the Sound," UNC–Chapel Hill's alma mater, were written in 1897 by William Starr Myers, a graduating senior. The Glee Club director asked Myers to put words to the tune "Amici," and the song was first performed on June 2, 1897, as part of the Glee Club's Commencement performance in Gerrard Hall.

Soon the song was almost forgotten. When a University quartet tried a few years later to remember the words, they could recollect only the first verse and the chorus of Myers' original version. Two members of the quartet, Charles S. Mangum and Charles T. Woollen, added two verses to the one they remembered. Mangum later became a professor in the School of Medicine, and Woollen worked as the University's business manager and comptroller.

HARK THE SOUND

Hark, the sound of Tar Heel voices
Ringing clear and true,
Singing Carolina's praises,
Shouting N.C.U.!

Hail to the brightest star of all!
Clear its radiance shine!
Carolina, priceless gem,
Receive all praises thine.

For Your Information

If you have any questions regarding Commencement activities, or in the event of an emergency, please contact an usher.

Open captioning of the ceremony will be available on the video screens in the Dean Smith Center.

This Commencement program is printed prior to administering final examinations. Therefore, including degree candidates' names in this program does not represent certification that candidates have satisfactorily completed degree requirements.

All diplomas are printed after graduation and are mailed to graduates. Every effort has been made to ensure the accuracy of this program's content. Any omissions or errors are unintentional.

HOLDEN THORP

Chancellor

Holden Thorp took office as Carolina's 10th chancellor on July 1, 2008. He has invested three decades of his life at the University, starting as an undergraduate student who earned a bachelor of science degree with honors in 1986. Through his research, Thorp developed technology for electronic DNA chips and founded spin-off companies. He raised money for a science complex that has helped boost faculty research productivity, served as director of the Morehead Planetarium and Science Center, and was dean of the College of Arts and Sciences.

Thorp announced in September 2012 that he planned to step down, effective June 30, 2013. A Kenan Professor, he will resume his research and teaching in the chemistry department.

A North Carolina native, Thorp grew up in a Fayetteville family steeped in UNC traditions dating to the 1800s. When he graduated from Terry Sanford High School, the only college on his application list was Carolina. Attending a world-class research university — where the same people conduct research and teach — allowed Thorp to work in chemistry labs with top faculty and inspired him to become a professor. He pursued that dream at the California Institute of Technology, where he earned a doctorate in chemistry in 1989, and at Yale University for postgraduate work.

As chancellor, Thorp has been driven to ensure that UNC students today have the same life-changing opportunities that he did. He has pushed relentlessly to create an atmosphere in which students could be inspired to tackle the world's great problems. He launched "Innovate@ Carolina: Important Ideas for a Better World," a roadmap for innovation in science, business, medicine, nonprofits and academia. The chancellor has pushed the campus to leverage scientific and medical research for society's good, and to advance work in the humanities that leads to greater understanding of the challenges the world faces.

Thorp serves on the National Advisory Council on Innovation and Entrepreneurship, which held its first national forum on campus in 2011. He co-authored "Engines of Innovation — The Entrepreneurial University in the 21st Century," a UNC Press book that makes the case for the pivotal role of research universities as agents of societal change. Royalties support innovation at UNC.

Thorp's priorities include protecting Carolina's legendary commitment to providing a high-quality education at an affordable price—core values that have kept the University and the chancellor in the spotlight as leaders during a national debate about the future of U.S. higher education. He was among a dozen higher education leaders invited to the White House to discuss with the president how campuses can become more affordable while producing more graduates. Thorp also serves on the national Commission on Higher Education Attainment, which is charting a course for improving college retention and attainment and, in turn, restoring the nation's higher education preeminence.

The University's recent successes under Thorp's leadership include enrolling a 2012 first-year class of nearly 4,000 outstanding students drawn from a record 29,000 applicants, up 24 percent over last year. Faculty research brought in $767 million during fiscal 2012 despite a challenging federal budget picture. The University rose to ninth from 16th among all research universities for federal funding ($545.99 million) devoted to research and development in fiscal 2010. That was the first time UNC–Chapel Hill had cracked the top 10. Alumni and friends stepped up their private giving in fiscal 2012 for the University's second best fundraising year ever, with $287 million in gifts — up 4 percent — at a time when the economy was still struggling. New commitments jumped by 8 percent to $331.4 million, and the number of donors rose to 78,000, 1,000 more than in 2011.

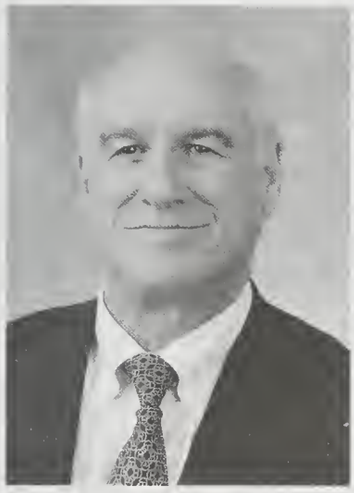
During Thorp's tenure, the University has successfully managed state budget cuts exceeding $238 million. A privately funded Bain & Company study has made operations more efficient and saved nearly $50 million annually in permanent state dollars. UNC–Chapel Hill also increased its percentage of successful faculty retentions to pre-2008 economic downturn levels as part of a proactive, aggressive strategy to keep Carolina's very best faculty in Chapel Hill.

Thorp's research expertise includes the electronic properties of DNA and RNA, and he co-founded Viamet Pharmaceuticals, which is developing drugs for prostate cancer and fungal infections.

An accomplished musician who plays jazz bass and keyboard, Thorp is married to Patti Worden Thorp, a Hope Mills native and UNC Greensboro graduate. Their children are John and Emma.

MYRON S. COHEN

The Commencement Speaker



Myron S. Cohen, the J. Herbert Bate Distinguished Professor of Medicine, Microbiology and Immunology and Public Health at UNC–Chapel Hill, is an acclaimed physician and researcher who has spent the last three decades studying the transmission and prevention of transmission of HIV/AIDS.

Cohen joined the UNC faculty in 1980 – the same year that AIDS was first identified – and was one of the first to recognize that any attempt to stem the AIDS epidemic would require an international program targeting improved care, treatment and research in resource-poor countries such as Malawi, China, the Democratic Republic of Congo, South Africa and Russia, as well as the United States.

Cohen's team of researchers at Carolina provided the scientific foundation for the Center for Disease Control's 2005 strategic plan for HIV prevention and led the National Institutes of Health to tap Carolina to help develop a safe and effective vaccine against HIV/AIDS.

As the architect and principal investigator of the multinational National Institutes of Health HIV Prevention Trials Network, Cohen was instrumental in showing that antiretroviral treatment prevents the sexual transmission of HIV-1. This work was recognized by Science Magazine as the "Breakthrough of the Year" in 2011.

In 2012, he was elected to the Institute of Medicine, one of the nation's highest honors for those in the fields of health and medicine.

Cohen has been a University faculty member for more than 30 years. His titles include associate vice chancellor for global health and director of the Institute for Global Health and Infectious Diseases. He earned his undergraduate degree from the University of Illinois, Urbana-Champaign, and his M.D. degree from Rush Medical College in Chicago.

CAROLINA ANNUAL FUND and 2012 SENIOR CAMPAIGN

Congratulations, graduates! There is no doubt that your experience at Carolina has included unparalleled opportunities and that your degree will open many doors for you in the future.

As Carolina students, you have been touched every day by private gifts to Carolina that maintain and enhance the University's tradition of excellence. Annual gifts improve the lives of students, faculty and staff. From scholarships to new research buildings and equipment, to access to incredible performances at Memorial Hall, to more than 6 million volumes in the libraries across campus, private gifts have impacted every aspect of campus life.

You're invited to support UNC–Chapel Hill through the Senior Campaign. You can make a gift to any part of the University that is meaningful to you — your major, a professorship, a student organization, scholarships and student aid, or campuswide programs. Or, to make an immediate difference where it is needed the most, consider supporting the Chancellor's Unrestricted Fund.

All gifts are included in the Senior Campaign and Annual Fund. Thank you to those who have already made your gift. Give online at annualfund.unc.edu/gift or by mail to P.O. Box 309, Chapel Hill, N.C. 27514-0309. For more information about the 2012 Senior Campaign, visit annualfund.unc.edu/students.

WELCOME YOUNG ALUMNI!

As you transition from students to alumni, we encourage you to keep up with young alumni events and Carolina news through the Carolina Annual Fund young alumni Facebook page (facebook.com/UNCYoungAlumni) and Twitter page (@UNCYoungAlumni). Through our social media efforts you can connect with fellow recent Carolina graduates in your area, participate in local events and social activities, and help Carolina stay strong by advocating philanthropy and support for the University among your peers. For more information about young alumni programs, visit youngalumni.unc.edu.

DEGREES and CERTIFICATES

UNDERGRADUATE CERTIFICATES

Certificate in Community Preparedness and Disaster Management
Certificate in Cytotechnology
Certificate in Dental Hygiene
Certificate in Radiography
Certificate in Sports Communication

UNDERGRADUATE DEGREES

Bachelor of Arts with a major in:
African and Afro-American Studies; American Studies; Anthropology; Archaeology; Art History; Asian Studies; Biology; Chemistry; Classics; Communication Studies; Comparative Literature; Computer Science; Contemporary European Studies; Dramatic Art; Economics; English; Environmental Studies; Exercise and Sport Science; Geography; Geological Sciences; German; Germanic and Slavic Languages and Literatures; Global Studies; History; Interdisciplinary Studies; Latin American Studies; Linguistics; Management and Society; Mathematics; Music; Peace, War and Defense; Philosophy; Physics; Political Science; Psychology; Public Policy; Religious Studies; Romance Languages; Sociology; Studio Art; Women's and Gender Studies
Bachelor of Arts in Business Journalism
Child Development and Family Studies; Elementary Education; Middle Grades Education
Bachelor of Arts in Journalism and Mass Communication
Bachelor of Fine Arts
Bachelor of Music
Bachelor of Science with a major in:
Applied Science; Biology; Chemistry; Computer Science; Environmental Sciences; Geological Sciences; Human Biology; Mathematical Decision Sciences; Mathematics; Physics; Psychology
Bachelor of Science in Business Administration
Bachelor of Science in Clinical Laboratory Science
Bachelor of Science in Dental Hygiene
Bachelor of Science in Information Science
Bachelor of Science in Nursing
Bachelor of Science in Pharmaceutical Sciences
Bachelor of Science in Public Health with a major in:
Biostatistics; Environmental Health Sciences; Health Policy and Management; Nutrition
Bachelor of Science in Radiologic Science

POSTBACCALAUREATE AND POST-MASTER'S CERTIFICATES

Postbaccalaureate Certificate in Auditory Learning in Young Children
Postbaccalaureate Certificate in Business Journalism
Postbaccalaureate Certificate in Core Public Health Concepts
Postbaccalaureate Certificate in Field Epidemiology
Postbaccalaureate Certificate in Global Health
Postbaccalaureate Certificate in Maternal and Child Health Leadership
Postbaccalaureate Certificate in Occupational Health Nursing Specialty
Postbaccalaureate Certificate in Radiologist Assistant
Postbaccalaureate Certificate in Technology and Communication
Post-Master's Certificate in Information and Library Science
Post-Master's Certificate in Public Health Leadership

GRADUATE DEGREES

Master of Accounting
Master of Arts in the discipline of:
American Studies; Anthropology; Art History; Biology; Chemistry; Classics; Communication Studies; Comparative Literature; Ecology; Education; English; Exercise and Sport Science; Folklore; Geography; Geological Sciences; Germanic Languages; German Studies; History; Linguistics; Mass Communication; Mathematics; Musicology; Philosophy; Political Science; Psychology; Public Policy; Religious Studies; Romance Languages and Literatures; Russian and East European Studies; School Psychology; Slavic Languages and Literatures; Sociology
Master of Arts in Teaching
Master of Arts in Technology and Communication
Master of Business Administration
Master of Clinical Laboratory Science
Master of City and Regional Planning
Education; School Counseling; School Psychology
Master of Fine Arts in the discipline of:
Dramatic Art; Studio Art
Master of Healthcare Administration
Master of Laws
Master of Physical Therapy
Master of Public Administration
Master of Public Health in the discipline of:
Biostatistics; Environmental Sciences and Engineering; Epidemiology; Health Behavior and Health Education; Health Policy and Management; Maternal and Child Health; Nutrition; Public Health Leadership
Master of Radiologic Science
Master of School Administration
Master of Science in the discipline of:
Biochemistry and Biophysics; Biology; Biomedical Engineering; Biostatistics; Cell and Developmental Biology; Cell and Molecular Physiology; Chemistry; Computer Science; Dental Hygiene Education; Ecology; Economics; Endodontics; Environmental Sciences and Engineering; Genetics and Molecular Biology;

Geological Sciences; Human Movement Science; Marine Sciences; Materials Science; Mathematics; Microbiology and Immunology; Neurobiology; Nutrition; Occupational Therapy; Operative Dentistry; Oral and Maxillofacial Pathology; Oral and Maxillofacial Radiology; Oral and Maxillofacial Surgery; Oral Biology; Orthodontics; Pathology; Pediatric Dentistry; Periodontology; Pharmaceutical Sciences; Pharmacology; Physics; Prosthodontics; Public Health Nursing; Rehabilitation Counseling and Psychology; Speech and Hearing Sciences; Statistics and Operations Research; Toxicology

Master of Science in Clinical Research
Master of Science in Disaster Management
Master of Science in Environmental Engineering
Master of Science in Information Science
Master of Science in Library Science
Master of Science in Management
Master of Science in Nursing
Master of Science in Public Health in the discipline of:
Biostatistics; Environmental Sciences and Engineering; Epidemiology; Health Behavior and Health Education; Health Policy and Management; Maternal and Child Health
Master of Science in Recreation Administration
Master of Social Work
American Studies; Anthropology; Art History; Biochemistry and Biophysics; Bioinformatics and Computational Biology; Biology; Biomedical Engineering; Biostatistics; Business Administration; Cell and Developmental Biology; Cell and Molecular Physiology; Chemistry; City and Regional Planning; Classics; Communication Studies; Comparative Literature; Computer Science; Ecology; Economics; Education; English; Environmental Sciences and Engineering; Epidemiology; Genetics and Molecular Biology; Geography; Geological Sciences; Germanic Languages; German Studies; Health Behavior and Health Education; Health Policy and Management; History; Human Movement Science; Information and Library Science; Marine Sciences; Mass Communication; Materials Science; Maternal and Child Health; Mathematics; Microbiology and Immunology; Musicology; Neurobiology; Nursing; Nutrition; Occupational Science; Oral Biology; Pathology; Pharmaceutical Sciences; Pharmacology; Philosophy; Physics; Political Science; Psychology; Public Policy; Religious Studies; Romance Languages and Literatures; School Psychology; Social Work; Sociology; Speech and Hearing Sciences; Statistics and Operations Research; Toxicology
Doctor of Public Health in the discipline of:
Biostatistics; Health Behavior and Health Education; Health Policy and Management; Maternal and Child Health; Nutrition

PROFESSIONAL DEGREES

Doctor of Audiology
Doctor of Dental Surgery
Doctor of Education in the discipline of:
Curriculum and Instruction; Educational Leadership
Doctor of Medicine
Doctor of Pharmacy
Doctor of Physical Therapy

THE BELL TOWER

The Morehead–Patterson Memorial Bell Tower was given to the University in 1931 by John Motley Morehead III and Rufus Lenoir Patterson. Its 14-bell carillon rings both manually and electronically to call students to class, provide twilight music and serenade the dispersing crowd after football games. Rising 172 feet, the tower is surrounded by a hedge and lawn designed by William C. Coker, botany professor and creator of the campus Arboretum.

CANDIDATES for GRADUATE DEGREES

The Graduate School

ESTABLISHED 1903

Dean Steven W. Matson

DOCTOR OF PHILOSOPHY

Laurie Ann Abler, Health Behavior and Health Education, Developing a Measure of Hope for Exploring HIV-Related Risks among Young South African Women in a High Prevalence Setting. Professor Suzanne Maman.

Delia Nichole Acevedo, Political Science, Using the Five Factor Model of Personality Structure to Identify the Antecedents of Political Ambivalence. Professor Pamela J. Conover.

Cynthia Thornton Bacon, Nursing, Exploring Organizational Influences on Patient Symptom Management in Hospitals. Professor Barbara A. Mark.

Kevin Richard Blauth, Neurobiology, Fractalkine Induces the Expression of Intercellular Adhesion Molecule-1 on CD4+ T-Lymphocytes: Implications for the Immunopathogenesis of Multiple Sclerosis. Professor Silva Markovic-Plese.

Emily Wenink Bratton, Epidemiology, Clinical Management and Outcomes of Patients in the Duke Cryptococcosis Clinical Cohort, 1996–2009. Professor Charles Poole.

Jarrett Grayson Camp, Genetics and Molecular Biology, The Impact of the Microbiota on Transcriptional Regulation in the Vertebrate Intestine. Professor John F. Rawls.

Alex Perrow Carll, Environmental Sciences and Engineering, The Influence of Autonomic Imbalance on Diesel Exhaust-Induced Cardiac Dysfunction in Heart Failure-Prone Rats. Professors Aimen K. Farraj and Avram Gold.

Alexis Wells Carpenter, Chemistry, Synthesis of Hybrid Inorganic/Organic Nitric Oxide-Releasing Silica Nanoparticles for Biomedical Applications. Professor Mark H. Schoenfisch.

Isaac Saibun Chan, Genetics and Molecular Biology, Hedgehog Signaling in Hepatocellular Carcinoma. Professors Anna Mae Diehl and Albert Baldwin.

Yu-Chi Chen, Genetics and Molecular Biology, Drosophila Neuroligin 2 Coordinates Pre- and Post-Synaptic Development, Differentiation and Neurotransmission. Professors Manzoor A. Bhat and Stephen T. Crews.

Zaozao Chen, Cell and Developmental Biology, Inhibition of Abl Family Kinases Produces a Profound Change in Cell Shape and Migration. Professor Ken Jacobson.

Catheryne Grayce Clouse, Epidemiology, Patient Retention at Key Milestones after HIV Diagnosis at a Primary Healthcare Clinic Offering Early Antiretroviral Therapy Initiation in Johannesburg, South Africa. Professor Audrey E. Pettifor.

Kimberly A. Coggan, Microbiology and Immunology, Characterization of a Type IV Pilus Biogenesis Operon in Pseudomonas Aeruginosa. Professor Matthew C. Wolfgang.

Siobhan Eileen Colgan, Education, The Role of Maternal Depression in Accessing Early Intervention Services for Children with Developmental Delay. Professors Julie L. Daniels and Rune J. Simeonsson.

Christopher John Currie, Art History, Art, Illusion and Social Mobility in 18th-Century France: Hyacinthe Rigaud and the Making of the Marquis de Gueidan. Professor Mary D. Sheriff.

Kelly Kent Davis, Journalism and Mass Communication, Public Faces: A Content Analysis of Gender, Ethnic and Racial Diversity on PBS. Professor Debashis Aikat.

Claire de la Varre, Education, An Exploration of Student and Teacher Social Presence in Asynchronous Discussion in an Online Advanced Placement Course for Rural High School Students. Professor Jill V. Hamm.

Chao Deng, Statistics and Operations Research, Optimal Design and Control of Finite-Population Queueing Systems. Professors Nilay Tanik Argon and Vidyadhar G. Kulkarni.

Vanessa Carolyn DeRocco, Chemistry, Biochemical and Single-Molecule Fluorescence Characterization of MUTS and MUTS Homolog Protein-DNA Interactions. Professor Dorothy A. Erie.

Crystal Heath Dodson, Nursing, Diffusion of Innovation: Knowledge and Attitudes of Oncology Nurses Regarding Pharmacogenomic Testing. Professor Marcia Van Riper.

Janet Michelle Doolittle, Bioinformatics and Computational Biology, Prediction of Host-Virus Interaction Networks. Professor Shawn Gomez.

Jon K. Edwards, Biomedical Engineering, Robotic Endoscope. Professor Robert Q. Dennis.

Carolyn Martindale Edy, Journalism and Mass Communication, Conditions of Acceptance: The United States Military, The Press and the "Woman War Correspondent," 1846–1945. Professor Jean Folkerts.

Murat Es, Geography, Turkish-Dutch Mosques and the Construction of Transnational Spaces in Europe. Professor Banu Gokariksel.

Gina Kim Flakes, Political Science, Integration and Exchange Rate Theory: Empirically Evaluating the Predictability of Individual Preferences. Professor Thomas H. Oatley.

Kathleen Foody, Religious Studies, Thinking Islam: Islamic Scholars, Tradition and the State in the Islamic Republic of Iran. Professor Omid Safi.

Edward Gordon Franklin, Chemistry, Utilization of Long Columns Packed with Sub-2 um Particles Operated at High Pressures and Elevated Temperatures for High-Efficiency One-Dimensional Liquid Chromatographic Separations. Professor James W. Jorgenson.

Philip Charles Gach, Chemistry, Capturing, Analyzing and Collecting Adherent Cells Using Microarray Technologies. Professors Nancy L. Allbritton and Royce W. Murray.

Melita Marie Garza, Journalism and Mass Communication, They Came to Toil: News Frames of Wanted and Unwanted Mexicans in the Great Depression. Professor Barbara Friedman.

Deepak Gopalakrishna, Genetics and Molecular Biology, DiGeorge Syndrome Phenotypes Reflect Disrupted Interaction between Inductive Signals and 22q11 Genes. Professor Anthony Lamantia.

Melanie Louise Bain Gratton, Statistics and Operations Research, Algorithms for Trust-Region Subproblems with Linear Inequality Constraints. Professor Jon W. Tolle.

William Burton Grider, Economics, Gateway Theory in a Dynamic Context: The Effect of Past Substance Use on Current Demand. Professor Donna Gilleskie.

Jeanne Gunther, Education, Illuminating Teacher Change in the Context of a Technologically Mediated Professional Development Program and Early Reading Intervention: A Case Study. Professors Lynne Vernon-Feagans and Marnie Ginsberg.

Tracy Hadden-Loh, City and Regional Planning, Understanding Urban Development and Water Quality through Scenarios. Professor Yan Song.

Jeffrey J. Harden, Political Science, Multidimensional Democracy: The Supply and Demand of Political Representation. Professor Thomas M. Carsey.

Nathan Jay Harris, Biology, The Role of Rap1 in Drosophila Morphogenesis. Professor Mark Peifer.

Susan Wallace Haws, Health Behavior and Health Education, A Multilevel Study of Schools' Influences on Adolescent Substance Use. Professor Susan T. Ennett.

Abby Hoffman, Education, Teacher Attunement: Supporting Students' Peer Experiences in Early Elementary Classrooms. Professor Jill V. Hamm.

John R. Houser, Physics and Astronomy, A Systems Level Analysis of Transcriptional Regulation in the Yeast Mating Response. Professors Richard Superfine and Timothy Elston.

Rolien Hoyng, Communication Studies, Istanbul of Networks: Space, Technology and Governance. Professor Lawrence Grossberg.

Chia-Wen Hsu, Pharmaceutical Sciences, Development of Multiplexable Biosensors to Quantify Spatiotemporal Dynamics of Multiple Rho GTPases and Protein Kinases in the Same Living Cell. Professor Klaus M. Hahn.

Jing Hu, Environmental Sciences and Engineering, Effects of Bioremediation on Bioavailability and Genotoxicity of Contaminants in PAH-Contaminated Soil. Professor Michael D. Aitken.

Joel Wayne Hudley, Geological Sciences, Reconstructing Modern and Pliocene (c. 5.4–2.4 Ma) Decadal Climate Variations in the Paleoenvironments of the Middle Atlantic Bight Using Isotope and Increment Sclerochronology. Professor Donna M. Surge.

Laili Irani, Maternal and Child Health, Family Planning in Urban Kenya: An Examination of the Factors Affecting Contraceptive Use. Professor Ilene S. Speizer.

Robert Brandon Irvin, Psychology, Emotional and Contextual Influences in an Altruistic Decision-Making Task. Professor Joseph Lowman.

Cassandra Baheeya Jabara, Biology, Using Deep Sequencing with a Primer ID to Resolve the Structure of Viral Populations and Reveal Pre-Existing Drug Resistance Mutations in the HIV and HCV Protease Genes. Professors Corbin D. Jones and Ronald Swanstrom.

Karen Elizabeth Jakub, Nursing, Long-Term Adjustment and Reimplantation Surgery in Patients with Implantable Cardioverter Defibrillators. Professor Margarete Sandelowski.

Shannon Zenia Jones, Toxicology, The Identification of Novel Mechanisms to Regulate B Cell Responses during Adaptive Immunity. Professor Barbara J. Vilen.

Dio Kavalieratos, Health Policy and Management, Exploring the Role of Palliative Care in Heart Failure: Referral Barriers, Care Gaps, and Quality of Care. Professor Morris Weinberger.

Yeuseung Kim, Journalism and Mass Communication, Effects of Source of Customized Recommendations, Type of Product, and Amount of Choice on Consumers' Attitudes. Professor Sriram Kalyanaraman.

Yuri Kim, Geography, Water Balance Change Under Climate and Landuse/Landcover Variability in the North Carolina Piedmont. Professor Lawrence E. Band.

Carlye Yates Kincaid, Psychology, Risk and Resilience among Single Mother Families: A Closer Look at Parenting and Adolescent Outcomes. Professor Deborah J. Jones.

Jessica Klusek, Speech and Hearing Sciences, Pragmatic Language in Autism and Fragile X Syndrome: Links with Physiological Arousal and Anxiety. Professor Molly Losh.

Bethany Ellen Kok, Psychology, Testing a Socio-Autonomic Spiral Model of Social Connection. Professor Barbara L. Fredrickson.

Kim Maureen Lichtveld, Environmental Sciences and Engineering, Using in Vitro Cultured Lung Cell Exposure Systems to Compare the Toxicity of Fresh and Aged Diesel Exhaust Utilizing an Outdoor Smog Chamber. Professors Harvey Jeffries and Kenneth G. Sexton.

Yang Liu, Pharmaceutical Sciences, Pharmacokinetics and Biodistribution of LCP Nanoparticles. Professor Leaf Huang.

Lindsey Ward Lyles, City and Regional Planning, Stakeholder Network Influences on Local-Level Hazard Mitigation Planning Outputs. Professor Philip R. Berke.

Jennifer Marie Lynn, History, Contested Femininities: Representations of Modern Women in the German Illustrated Press, 1020–1045. Professor Karen Hagemann.

Bonnie Anne Lyon, Environmental Sciences and Engineering, Impact of UV Treatment on Disinfection Byproduct Precursors and Subsequent Byproduct Formation from Chlorine and Chloramine. Professor Howard S. Weinberg.

Laura Haak Marcial, Information and Library Science, Moving beyond the Desktop: Searching for Information with Limited Display Size. Professor Bradley M. Hemminger.

Helen Camp Matthews, Romance Languages, Sugar Turns to Cotton: French Retellings of the Haitian Revolutions and the American Civil War. Professor Dominique Fisher.

Margaret Elizabeth McCormick, Cell and Molecular Physiology, The Adhesion Molecule PECAM-1 Directs Endothelial Nitric Oxide Synthase Activity and Cardiac Function to Regulate Cardiovascular Homeostasis. Professor Carol Otey.

Robert McKeever, Journalism and Mass Communication, Vicarious Experience: The Effects of Message-Induced Empathy on Attitudes toward Individuals with Severe Depression. Professor Daniel Riffe.

Jessica Tsesha Meed, Health Policy and Management, Home Front — Exploring Associations between Household Structure, Coping Strategies and Behavioral Health Visits within the Military. Professor James V. Porto.

Lucia Ingrid Mendez, Speech and Hearing Sciences, A Culturally and Linguistically Responsive Vocabulary Approach for Young Latino Dual Language Learners. Professors Elizabeth Crais and Dina C. Castro.

Alicia Ann Midland, Bioinformatics and Computational Biology, Characterization of the Breast Cancer Kinome. Professors Shawn M. Gomez and Gary L. Johnson.

Stephen Milder, History, "Today the Fish, Tomorrow Us": Anti-Nuclear Activism in the Rhine Valley and Beyond, 1970–1979. Professor Konrad H. Jarausch.

David L. Millman, Computer Science, Degree-Driven Design of Geometric Algorithms for Point Location, Proximity and Volume Calculation. Professor Jack Snoeyink.

Alex Fuller Mills, Statistics and Operations Research, Patient Prioritization and Resource Allocation in Mass Casualty Incidents. Professor Nilay Tanik Argon and Serhan Ziya.

Shalini Minocha, Pharmaceutical Sciences, Investigations into the Mechanisms of Cell Death: The Common Link Between Anticancer Nanotherapeutics and Nanotoxicology. Professor Russell J. Mumper.

Ashley Isaac Naimi, Epidemiology, Causal Inference in Occupational Epidemiology: Asbestos, Lung Cancer Mortality and the Healthy Worker Survivor Effect. Professor Stephen R. Cole.

Scott Philip Nichols, Chemistry, Tissue Integration and Antibacterial Effects of Surface-Derived Nitric-Oxide Release. Professor Mark H. Schoenfisch.

Christopher Robert Noel, Microbiology and Immunology, The FhaB Prodomain of Bordetella Affects the Biogenesis of Filamentous Hemagglutinin, Influencing Bordetella Virulence. Professor Peggy A. Cotter.

Elizabeth Grace Pollom, Biochemistry and Biophysics, Structure and Function of Lentiviral Genomic and Messenger RNA. Professor Ronald Swanstrom.

Fernanda Costa de Queirós, Maternal and Child Health, The Effects of Early Life Disabilities on Human Capital Accumulation in Young Adulthood. Professors Carolyn T. Halpern and Anita M. Farel.

Alexander Nathan Raines, Neurobiology, Myosin-X in Neuronal Development. Professor Richard E. Cheney.

William Charles Rice, Physics and Astronomy, Magnetotransport Studies of Metal-Organic Molecule-Metal Structures: Electronic Transport Through Molecular Films of Alkanedithiols and Valence Tautomers. Professor Frank Tsui.

THE CHANCELLOR'S MEDAL

The chancellor's medal, an emblem of the office of chancellor, is worn during the University's ceremonial occasions. The sterling silver disk, which is three inches in diameter and seven ounces Troy weight, was given to the University by John Sanders, professor emeritus and former director of the UNC Institute of Government, and his wife, Ann Beal Sanders. Modeled by sculptor Pete Hinton and bearing the University seal, it was first worn by Chancellor Paul Hardin during the 1994 University Day convocation.

THE FIRST CAROLINA DIPLOMA

In September 1796 Carolina student Davie Gillespie began working with a group of men to determine the Southern boundary of the United States. His instructors gave Gillespie a document to carry as proof that he had been a student at the University of North Carolina. The document, now in the Library of Congress, was signed by his professors and ended with the statement, "We thought it proper to give him this certificate."

The University's first graduating class in 1798 included Hinton James, the first student to enroll. Seven men received the first documents that by today's standards can be called UNC–Chapel Hill diplomas. One of the original diplomas is in the Southern Historical Collection in Wilson Library.

During the University's early years, commencement at Carolina was a time for examinations and promotions to higher classes. There was a commencement, but no degrees awarded and no graduation.

TAR HEELS

The University uses the nickname "Tar Heels," and the entire state does as well. One version of the nickname's origin has the name first being applied to North Carolinians during the Civil War. One record talks of a battle in Virginia, where their supporting column retreated, but North Carolina troops stood alone to fight successfully. The victorious troops were asked in a condescending tone by some Virginians, who had retreated, "Any more tar down in the Old North State, boys?" The response came quickly: "No, not a bit; old Jeff's bought it all up." The Virginians asked: "Is that so? What is he going to do with it?" The reply: "He is going to put it on you'ns heels to make you stick better in the next fight."

THE OLD WELL

At the heart of the campus stands the visual symbol of the University of North Carolina at Chapel Hill. For many years the Old Well served as the sole water supply for Old East and Old West dormitories. In 1897, the well was given its present decorative form at the direction of President Edwin A. Alderman, who described his beautification project as largely derived from the Temple of Love in the Garden of Versailles. In 1954, the well was given added beauty with brick walks, plantings and benches. Legend holds that students can bring good luck with a drink from the Old Well on the first day of classes.

A MESSAGE to CAROLINA'S NEWEST ALUMNI

Congratulations! You are now graduates of the University of North Carolina at Chapel Hill. Let your General Alumni Association help you make a seamless transition from students to alumni — no matter where you find yourselves after graduation. Visit alumni.unc.edu/youngalumni.

GETTING STARTED

Don't miss out on special invitations and services. Call (877) 377-7125 or visit alumni.unc.edu/update to keep your official University record updated. Jump start your network with Carolina alumni — join the GAA's groups on Facebook and LinkedIn.

ALUMNI CAREER SERVICES

Networking is the most effective approach to finding a job. The GAA can connect you with more than 7,000 alumni volunteers in our Alumni Advisor Network who can help you explore career options.

GAA members from the Class of 2012 have full access (phone, email or in person) to the GAA's certified career coach for one year following graduation. If you're thinking about grad school, GAA members also receive discounts on Kaplan prep courses.

FINDING OTHER TAR HEELS IN YOUR AREA

- Local Carolina Clubs can be found in nearly 100 cities around the globe. Socialize, network, cheer on the Heels and continue that spirit of Tar Heel service within your community.
- The GAA's Online Alumni Directory can help you develop a network like no other. The directory includes nearly 270,000 former Carolina students.

TRUSTED INFORMATION SOURCE

The "Carolina Alumni Review," the "Out of the Blue" e-newsletter, the GAA's Twitter feed and alumni.unc.edu can keep you updated on the University's achievements and challenges as well as what's going on in Chapel Hill.

Congratulations again. We hope you'll choose to join the nearly 70,000 GAA members who remain connected and help serve Carolina and our students — past, present and future. The GAA offers new grads a one-year membership for only $25 — a $20 savings off our annual dues rate. Or save $50 on life membership — only $28.25/month for 24 months.

For more information on how the Association serves new graduates, please call Brandon Copeland '12 or Diana Koonce '02 at (800) 962-0742 or email membership@unc.edu. Visit us on the Web at alumni.unc.edu.

COMMENCEMENT MUSIC

The University's beloved alma mater, "Hark the Sound," evokes the feelings of loyalty and friendship that students, alumni and true blue Tar Heels everywhere have for Carolina. The orchestral marches that accompany the commencement processional are equally memorable for their power and splendor. They are truly fitting musical celebrations of the talent and achievements of UNC-Chapel Hill's visiting dignitaries, faculty and graduates.

During today's commencement ceremony, members of the academic processional will be welcomed by the fanfare brass, woodwinds and drums of Nikolai Rimsky-Korsakov's "Procession of the Nobles" and Richard Strauss' "Konigsmarsch." Rimsky-Korsakov wrote his majestic march to open the second act of the opera-ballet "Mlada," which premiered in Saint Petersburg, Russia, in 1892. Strauss premiered the flourishing "Konigsmarsch" at a palace concert in Berlin in 1907.

The new graduates will exit the ceremony while hearing familiar Carolina melodies in "Tar Heel Rhapsody," a composition written specifically for the University that features its school songs.

THE BICENTENNIAL STAFF

The faculty marshal carries the bicentennial staff while leading the faculty processional on ceremonial occasions such as Commencement and University Day. The staff, commissioned for the University's 1993 bicentennial celebration by John Sanders, professor emeritus and former director of the UNC Institute of Government, and his wife, Ann Beal Sanders, was modeled by sculptor Pete Hinton. It consists of a sterling silver three-inch-high replica of the Old Well mounted on a turned and tapered oak shaft. The shaft was made from timber salvaged from the 1822 section of Old West residence hall during its 1991–1993 renovation.

DEGREES WITH DISTINCTION

To graduate with distinction or with highest distinction, undergraduate students must have completed at least 45 academic hours at UNC–Chapel Hill and have an overall grade point average of at least 3.5 or 3.8, respectively.

UNDERGRADUATE HONORS PROGRAM

The Honors Program offers exceptionally well-qualified first-year students, sophomores and juniors an opportunity to take part of their general education curriculum in special honors seminars and honors sections. Honors seminars are special topics courses, limited in enrollment to 15 students and taught by outstanding members of the University faculty. Honors sections of regular departmental course offerings are also limited in enrollment and are taught by permanent members of the University faculty. Honors seminars and sections emphasize critical reading, class discussion and expository writing.

Senior departmental honors programs are provided for students who have demonstrated a very high level of scholastic ability and achievement and who desire to pursue an intensive, individualized program of study in their major discipline. Honors studies ordinarily consist of one or more of the following: the preparation of an honors thesis or essay, an independent research or reading program, an artistic performance or exhibition, or the completion of advanced course work in the major not normally required of students in that major. It is on the basis of participation in senior honors that a student may be graduated from the University "with Honors" or "with Highest Honors."

GRADUATE DEGREES

The Graduate School

ESTABLISHED 1903

Dean Steven W. Matson

DOCTOR OF PHILOSOPHY

Lee M. Adcock III, Education, Re-Casting the Hollywood Indian: Technology Integration at Sequoyah Schools. Professor Cheryl Mason Bolick.

Caroline Bliss Adelman, Psychology, Examination of Concurrent and Longitudinal Associations among Emotional Reactivity to Stress, Interpersonal Problem-Solving and Adolescent Nonsuicidal Self-Injury. Professor Mitchel J. Prinstein.

Robert Erle Barham, English, Rhetorical Failure in English Renaissance Literature. Professor Jessica Wolfe.

James Berry, Business, Do We Have Creative Differences? How We Construe Creativity Influences: The Salience of Novelty and Usefulness. Professor David A. Hofmann.

Rebecca H. Best, Political Science, Negotiation in the Shadow of an Extremist Threat: Insurgencies and the Internal Commitment Problem. Professor Navin Bapat.

Allison Margaret Bigelow, English, Mining Empire, Planting Empire: The Colonial Scientific Literatures of the Americas. Professor Timothy Marr.

Laura E. Blue, Chemistry, Synthesis, Physical Characterization, and Chromatographic Performance of 1.7 μm and 1.1 μm Superficially Porous Particles Packed in Capillary Columns for Liquid Chromatography. Professor James W. Jorgenson.

Angela Yarnell Bonino, Speech and Hearing Sciences, The Effect of Signal-Temporal Uncertainty during Childhood. Professor Lori J. Leibold.

Anna Brigevich, Political Science, Territorial Identity Configurations in the European Union: The Impact of Regional Identity on Attachment to Europe and Support for Integration. Professor Liesbet Hooghe.

Emily Suzanne Brouwer, Epidemiology, Myocardial Infarction among HIV-Infected Patients Enrolled in the North Carolina Medicaid Program. Professor Til Sturmer.

Randy M. Browne, History, Surviving Slavery: Politics, Power and Authority in the British Caribbean, 1807–1834. Professor John Wood Sweet.

Jessica Caroline Cardenas, Pathology, The Role of P16 ^{Ink4A} Expression in the Age-Related Risk of Venous Thromboembolism. Professor Frank C. Church.

David Cavallo, Nutrition, Using Online Social Network Technology to Increase Social Support for Physical Activity: The Internet Support for Healthy Associations Promoting Exercise (INSHAPE) Study. Professor Alice S. Ammerman.

Fernando Chague, Economics, Conditional Betas: Asymmetric Responses to Good and Bad News. Professor Eric Ghysels.

Roseanne Marie Cheng, Physics and Astronomy, Tidal Disruption of a Star by a Massive Black Hole Computed in Fermi Normal Coordinates. Professor Charles R. Evans.

Karen Ann Cherkis, Genetics and Molecular Biology, Structural Analyses of AvrRpm1 and HopBA1: Two TTSS Effectors from the Plant Phytopathogen Pseudomonas Syringae. Professors Jeffery L. Dangl and John E. Sondek.

Alexandros Christodoulou, Psychology, Variation in Word Duration and Planning. Professor Jennifer E. Arnold.

Damien Crotcau-Chonka, Genetics and Molecular Biology, Genetic Contributions to Obesity and Related Complex Traits in the Cebu Longitudinal Health and Nutrition Survey. Professor Karen L. Mohlke.

Boyi Dai, Human Movement Science, The Relationships between Performance and ACL Loading during Athletic Tasks. Professor Bing Yu.

Carrie Duncan, Religious Studies, The Rhetoric of Participation: Gender and Representation in Ancient Synagogues. Professor Jodi Magness.

Margaret Elizabeth Duncan, Pharmacology, Characterization of Mechanisms of Antibiotic Resistance in Neisseria Gonorrhoeae. Professor Robert A. Nicholas.

Alan R. Ellis, Social Work, Effortful Control, Social Information Processing and the Prevention of Aggression in Elementary Schools. Professor Mark W. Fraser.

Matthew Barker Fariss, Anthropology, Gallinazo Phase Migration in the Moche Valley, Peru. Professor Brian R. Billman.

Megan Freeman, Psychology, Gene-Environment Interaction in Early Onset Bipolar Disorder. Professor Eric A. Youngstrom.

Rudresh Ghosh, Physics and Astronomy, Metal Oxide Thin Film Growth by Laser Ablation and Its Applications in High Surface Area Photoanodes. Professor Rene Lopez.

Arthur Gibb, Political Science, Implementing U.S. Security Strategy in the 21st Century: A Three-Part Examination of the Evolving Role of the Military in American Foreign and Security Policy. Professor Mark J. C. Crescenzi.

Clare Marks Gibson, Psychology, An Investigation of the Effects of Oxytocin on Social Cognition and Social Functioning in Schizophrenia. Professor David L. Penn.

Cary Gillenwater, Education, Graphic Novels in Advanced English/ Language Arts Classrooms: A Phenomenological Case Study. Professor Madeleine Grumet.

Benjamin McMillen Goerger, Human Movement Science, The Effect of Anterior Cruciate Ligament Injury and Reconstruction on Lower Extremity Biomechanics, Coordination and Variability. Professor Darin A. Padua.

Jason Rosenbaum Goldsmith, Pharmacology, Mechanisms of Mu Opioid Receptor Mediated Protection from Multiple Models of Acute Injury. Professor Christian Jobin.

Inmaculada Gomez Soler, Linguistics, Acquiring Spanish at the Interfaces: An Integrative Approach to the L2 Acquisition of Psych-Verbs. Professor Misha Becker.

Susanne Gomoluch, Germanic Languages, Redeeming the Imagination: The Case Study, Literature and Medical Discourse around 1800. Professor Jonathan Hess.

Donald Lee Goss, Human Movement Science, A Comparison of Lower Extremity Joint Work and Initial Loading Rates among Four Different Running Styles. Professor Michael T. Gross.

Joshua Michael Gray, Geography, Understanding Regional Water Resource Dynamics Due to Land-Cover/Land-Use and Climate Changes in the North Carolina Piedmont. Professor Conghe Song.

John D. Guerry, Psychology, Towards a Biopsychosocial Model of Adolescent Self-Injurious Thoughts and Behaviors. Professor Mitchell J. Prinstein.

Stephen J. Guy, Computer Science, Geometric Collision Avoidance for Heterogeneous Crowd Simulation. Professors Ming C. Lin and Dinesh Manocha.

Shawnya L. Harris, Art History, Conceptualizing African American Art: The Market, Academic Discourse and Public Reception. Professor Lyneise E. Williams.

Hannah Reed Harwood, School Psychology, The Relationship between Attention Problems, Internalizing Symptons and Quality of Life in Youth Receiving Outpatient Services. Professors Eric A. Youngstrom and Barbara H. Wasik.

Qianchuan He, Biostatistics, Variable Selection, Sparse Meta-Analysis and Genetic Risk Prediction for Genome-Wide Association Studies. Professor Danyu Lin and Hao Zhang.

Pamela Rose Hesker, Genetics and Molecular Biology, Defining the Function of Pyrin, the Familial Mediterranean Fever-Associated Protein, in Inflammation. Professor Beverly H. Koller.

Jeremy Dale Hilburn, Education, High School Teachers' Perceptions of Teaching Civics to Immigrant Students in a New Gateway State. Professor Xue L. Rong.

Christen Feldmann Holly, Public Policy, The Discretion-Capacity Framework: A Conceptual Approach to Analyzing the Dynamics of Federalism and Social Policy. Professor Daniel Gitterman.

Jasmine Ti Hudepohl, Psychology, Generalized Restriction: Understanding Anorexia Nervosa in an Interpersonal Context. Professor Donald H. Baucom.

Colin Hughes, Chemistry, Total Synthesis of the Proposed Structure of Aldingenin B. Professor Michael T. Crimmins.

Dwight W. Irvin, Education, Factors Affecting Adult Talk in the Inclusive Classroom and the Socially Competent Behavior of Preschoolers with Autism Spectrum Disorder. Professors Brian A. Boyd and Harriet Able.

Ning Jin, Computer Science, Discriminative Subgraph Pattern Mining and Its Applications. Professor Wei Wang.

Hoa Van Le, Epidemiology, Evaluation of the Performance of the High-Dimensional Propensity Score Algorithm to Adjust for Confounding of Treatment Effects Estimated in Healthcare Claims Data. Professor Til Stürmer.

Brandyn Gregory Rogers Lee, Mathematics, A Comparison of Eigencones under Certain Diagram Automorphism. Professor Shrawan Kumar.

Steven Leigh, Human Movement Science, The Influence of Technique on Throwing Performance and Injury Risk in Javelin Throwers. Professor Bing Yu.

Steven Morgan Lewis, Biochemistry and Biophysics, Computational Protein Interface Design and Prediction with Experimental Constraints. Professor Brian Kuhlman.

Colin Lickwar, Genetics and Molecular Biology, The Role of Set2, Transcription Factor Residence and Nucleosome Spacing in the Dynamic Access of Genomic Information. Professor Jason Lieb.

Cathay Liu, Philosophy, Unification in Descartes' Philosophy of Mathematics. Professor Alan J. Nelson.

Katy Liu, Cell and Molecular Physiology, Functions of Myosin-X in Polarized Epithelial Cells. Professor Richard E. Cheney.

Diane Losardo, Psychology, An Examination of Initial Condition Specification in the Structural Equations Modeling Framework. Professor Sy-Miin Chow.

David S. Lowry, Anthropology, For the Healing of the Nations: Lumbee Indian Community, Christian Missions and the Transformative Power of Intervention. Professor James Peacock.

Matthew Lubin, History, Aftermath of War: Cypriot Christians and Mediterranean Geopolitics, 1571–1625. Professor Melissa M. Bullard.

Winnie Kavulani Luseno, Maternal and Child Health, Effect of the Mchinji Social Cash Transfer Pilot Scheme on Children's Schooling, Work and Health Outcomes: A Multilevel Study Using Experimental Data. Professor Kavita Singh Ongechi.

Ping Ma, Pharmaceutical Sciences, Drug-Loaded Lipid Nanoparticles for Improved Cancer Treatment: Engineering, In-Vitro and In-Vivo Evaluation. Professor Russell J. Mumper.

Leah Jill Sirkus McGrath, Epidemiology, Influenza Vaccine Effectiveness among Patients on Hemodialysis: Methods to Control the Healthy-User Bias. Professor M. Alan Brookhart.

Jessica Tsesha Meed, Health Policy and Management, Home Front — Exploring Associations between Household Structure, Coping Strategies and Behavorial Health Visits within the Military. Professor James V. Porto.

William J. Meyer Jr., Anthropology, Home of the Living, Land of the Dead: Dwelling with the Bronze and Iron Age Tombs of Southern Burgundy. Professor Carole L. Crumley.

Stephen Andrew Miller, Chemistry, Ultrafast Dynamics in Nanomaterials: From Gold Clusters to Dye-Sensitized Semiconductors. Professor Andrew M. Moran.

Maria Minakova, Chemistry, Advanced Computer Simulations of Nanomaterials and Stochastic Biological Processes. Professors Garegin A. Papoian and John M. Papanikolas.

Hayley Mitchell, School Psychology, A Longitudinal Examination of Father Involvement and Its Effects on the Social, Emotional and Economic Outcomes of Adult Offspring. Professor Barbara H. Wasik.

Ilyse R. Morgenstein Fuerst, Religious Studies, Religions of Empire: Islamicate Texts, Imperial Taxonomies and South Asian Definitions of Religion. Professor Carl W. Ernst.

Zsolt Nagy, History, Grand Delusions: Interwar Hungarian Cultural Diplomacy, 1918–1941. Professor Chad Bryant.

Britton White Newman, Romance Languages, The Narrative of Censorship in Cuban Novels of the 1990s. Professor Rosa Perelmuter.

Ijeoma J. Nwabuzor, Social Work, Examining the Risk of Out-of-Home Placement among Child Welfare Involved Families Victimized by Domestic Violence. Professor Mark F. Testa.

Emily Anna Oblath, Chemistry, Microfluidic Devices for Performing Multiplexed Immunoassays and Nucleic Acid Tests. Professor J. Michael Ramsey.

Stephen Lecler Olivier, Computer Science, Locality Awareness for Task Parallel Computation. Professor Jan F. Prins.

Sakiko Oyama, Human Movement Science, Effects of Trunk Movement on Pitching Biomechanics and Performance in High School Baseball Pitchers. Professor Joseph B. Myers.

Jessica Hyui-Su Park, Chemistry, Design of Beta-Haiprins and Beta-Sheets for Molecular Recognition. Professor Marcey L. Waters.

Sarah Elizabeth Parker, Comparative Literature, Contrary Signs: Categorizing Illness in Early Modern Literature. Professor Jessica L. Wolfe.

Michael Vincent Paulauskas, History, Moscow on the Potomac: The Soviet Embassy and Detente, 1969–1979. Professor Donald J. Raleigh.

Jolynn Pek, Psychology, Fungible Parameter Contours and Confidence Regions in Structural Equation Models. Professor Robert C. MacCallum.

David Phillips, English, Black Blood/Red Ink: Fact, Fiction, and Authorial Self-Representation in Vladimir Nabokov's Look at the Harlequins!, Marguerite Duras' L'Amant De La Chine Du Nord, and Philip Roth's Operation Shylock: A Confession. Professor John McGowan.

Felix Portnoy, Information Science, Avoiding Ad Avoidance: Factors Affecting the Perception of Online Banner Ads. Professor Gary Marchionini.

Diana Marie Rancourt, Psychology, Potential Mechanism of Peer Influenee on Adolescent Girls' Disordered Eating Behavior: An Experimental Design. Professor Mitchell J. Prinstein.

Billye N. Rhodes, Education, "We Can Speak for Ourselves": Parent Involvement and Ideologies of Black Mothers in an Urban Community. Professor George W. Noblit.

Vanesa Ribas, Sociology, On the Line: The Working Lives of Latinos and African Americans in the New South. Professor Jacqueline M. Hagan.

Jennifer Elise Ringberg, Anthropology, Daily Life at Cerro León, an Early Intermediate Period Highland Settlement in the Moche Valley, Peru. Professor Brian R. Billman.

Melinda Margaret Roberts, Biology, Genetic Regulation of Cell Death and Disease Resistance in Arabidopsis. Professor Jeffery L. Dangl.

Jason Michael Rochette, Chemistry, Versatile Routes to Photo-Responsive Polyesters for Dual and Triple Shape Memory Biomaterials. Professor Valerie S. Ashby.

Derek Alan Rodriguez, Information and Library Science, Developing the "Understanding Library Impacts Protocol": A Method for Detecting and Communicating Academic Library Impact on Student Learning. Professor Helen R. Tibbo.

Hongyu Ru, Statistics, Statistical Analysis of Financial Time Series and Risk Management. Professors Eric Ghysels and Chuanshu Ji.

Megan Arlene Rúa, Ecology, The Role of Mutualists in Plant Response to Pathogen Infection. Professor Charles E. Mitchell.

Brandon Sams, Education, Reading Acts: An Inquiry into Reading and Teaching. Professor Madeleine Grumet.

Ozge Savascin, Economics, Endogenously Clustered Factor Approach to Macroeconomics. Professor Neville R. Francis.

Aram Shepherd, English, The Contours of America: Latin America and the Borders of Modernist Literature in the United States. Professor María DeGuzmán.

Jennifer Gentry Shields, Environmental Sciences and Engineering, Utilization of Microbial Source-Tracking Markers to Inform Targeted Remediation and Predict Potential Pathogens in High Priority Surface Waters. Professor Jill Stewart.

Cheryl Ann Smith-Miller, Nursing, Type 2 Diabetes Self-Management: Influences on Nutritional Practices and Physical Activity among Spanish-Speaking Limited-English Hispanics. Professor Diane C. Berry.

Jesica Speed, Communication Studies, Working Artists. Professors Madeleine R. Grumet and Steve K. May.

Kimberly Michelle Steward, Chemistry, Strategies for the Synthesis and Use of β-Stereogenic α-Keto Esters. Professor Jeffrey S. Johnson.

Andrew Stuart, Chemistry, Optimization and Characterization of New Materials to Enhance Performance of Polymer Solar Cells. Professor Wei You.

David Biaozhi Wei, Pharmaceutical Sciences, Economic Evaluation of Biological Therapy Use among Patients with Crohn's Disease. Professor Joel F. Farley.

ACADEMIC DRESS

The following information, based in part on An Academic Costume Code and Ceremony Guide (published by the American Council on Education), may be helpful in identifying academic attire worn during UNC's Commencement exercises.

DEGREE CANDIDATES' REGALIA. The University's bachelor's gown was redesigned last year by award-winning colorist and fashion designer Alexander Julian — a Chapel Hill native and UNC alumnus — to be both Carolina blue and truly green, as in sustainably made. The fabric for the new True Blue gown is made from 100 percent post-consumer recycled plastic bottles (23 bottles for each gown) and is manufactured at mills in the Carolinas. The information about the gown's sustainability is suitably printed directly on the cloth, without the use of an extra label. In addition to being dyed a custom Carolina blue color, the True Blue gowns also have a more streamlined fit, white piping along the yoke and two white panels in front. The new tassels are blue and white, topped with a silver-colored Old Well medallion. An optional accessory is an embroidered white stole that the graduate may give to a parent in gratitude after the Commencement ceremony.

The untrimmed, black master's gown has a hood and an oblong sleeve, open at the wrist, that hangs nearly to the ground; the back part of its oblong shape is square cut and the arc in the front is cut away. The hooded doctoral gown features three bars across each sleeve. In 1999, the Faculty Council authorized a special doctoral gown for Carolina graduates. It is Carolina blue, with facings and crossbars of dark blue outlined in white piping. The facings bear the shield of the University supported by the torches of learning.

The hoods of master's and doctoral degree candidates vary in color according to the field of study (see list below).

FACULTY REGALIA. Faculty wear the regalia of the institution that conferred their highest degree. The doctoral gowns are usually faced with black velvet, although the color of the velvet may vary according to the field of study. Hoods, which differ in length according to the level of the degree held, are lined with official colors of the university or college that conferred the degree, usually with one color forming a chevron pattern over the other. Some colors you will see on faculty and administrators' robes are, for example, the crimson of Harvard, the maroon of Chicago, the orange and black of Princeton, the dark blue of Yale, and the light blue and white of North Carolina.

Like the hoods of master's and doctoral degree candidates, faculty hoods are edged and bound with velvet in the color appropriate to the field of study. The colors in the hoods and gowns of faculty and administrators represent the following fields in which degrees were taken:

APRICOT: Nursing
BROWN: Fine Arts
CITRON: Social Work
CRIMSON: Journalism
DARK BLUE: Philosophy
GOLDEN YELLOW: Science
GREEN: Medicine
LEMON YELLOW: Library Science
LIGHT BLUE: Education
LILAC: Dentistry
OLIVE GREEN: Pharmacy
ORANGE: Engineering
PEACOCK BLUE: Public Administration
PINK: Music
PURPLE: Law
SAGE GREEN: Physical Education
SALMON PINK: Public Health
SCARLET: Theology
YELLOW BROWN: Commerce, Business, Accountancy
WHITE: Arts, Letters, Humanities

UNIVERSITY COLORS

As symbols of unity among Carolina students, alumni and fans, the school colors of light blue and white were first used around 1800 to distinguish between members of the Dialectic and Philanthropic Literary Societies. Throughout the 19th century, students were required to be members of either the Di or the Phi. The Di's color was light blue, and the Phi's was white. At University commencements, balls and other social events, the student officials, managers and marshals wore the color of their society, blue or white. Because the chief marshal or chief ball manager represented the whole student body, not just his society, he wore both colors. When the University fielded its first intercollegiate athletic teams in 1888, the question of what colors to wear had already been answered. Light blue and white had come to symbolize membership in the University, not in a single society.

THE UNIVERSITY SEAL

The University seal typically appears on diplomas and graduation materials, grade transcripts and documents that indicate accomplishment in or on behalf of the University. The first seal of the University of North Carolina, designed in 1790, showed the face of Apollo and his emblem, the rising sun, used to symbolize the dawn of higher education in the state. The words "sigul universitat carol septent" (Seal of the University of North Carolina) surrounded the drawing. A modification in 1895 added lighted torches of learning beside Apollo's profile. Two years later another alteration replaced Apollo's head with a shield on which the words Lux (light) and Libertas (liberty), separated by a white band running from the upper right to the lower left of the shield, appeared. In the 1940s, some observers mistakenly claimed the white stripe on the shield was a bend sinister, a heraldic code that was demeaning. In truth, the stripe was a bar sinister and merely denoted a second or later son. Still, the direction of the stripe was reversed, removing any question of stigma. Today's seal is the same as the 1897 version, except the stripe runs from the upper left to the lower right.
